THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

AGENTS: MONTAGUE: Harold F. Landry, Albert Aitken, Mrs. Byron Stewart, Miss Harris, Miss... AGENT GEORGETOWN: Waldon Lavers.

The Guardian may be bought at any of the following places in Montague: Miss S. A. Llewellyn; Mrs. Clay, Georgetown; The Post Office; in Souris: The Snack Bar and N. E. Richards & Son.

FITTED FOOTWEAR at the Montague Shoe Store. Mrs. George Drake, Montell, was a recent visitor to Montague, guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Myers.

Miss Georgie Webster, Boston, Mass., spent a week in Cardigan visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Frey, New York, are spending a short vacation in Lower Montague at the tourist home of Mrs. Thomas Jackson.

Her friends are pleased to learn that Mrs. Robert Bryan, Montague, is convalescing satisfactorily after undergoing an operation for appendicitis in the Kings County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Myers, South Boston, who are visiting relatives on the island, spent a few days in Montague, guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Seyer, Cardigan, formerly from Collingwood, N. S., and their son Leverage were visitors to Montague on Friday. Leverage is mate on a coastal boat at New Westminster, B. C. and is now home on a 54-day leave.

STREET WORK IN PROGRESS—More work is being done on the drains in Montague this week. A new culvert is being placed on the side street between the Blue Dome restaurant and Mabons Drug Store. The culvert of 18-inch pipe is 50 feet long, and will take care of the drain water from the Wood Island Hill. This wooden one which has been blocked in several places causing an overflow which has torn up a considerable part of the road.

AT SCOUT CAMP—The patrol leaders of the Boy Scouts of the First Montague Troop are now under canvas at Camp Buchanan where they are completing the Silver Arrowhead patrol leaders course which was started in Montague in April. The boys attending include D. Mabon, J. MacDonald, B. Beck, D. Stewart and S. Hessian. Mr. Eric Duvar, scout master, was at the camp for a few days instructing. The camp chief is Mr. P. A. Driscoll. Mr. MacPherson is the executive commissioner, Gordon Kerr. It is expected that the course will end on Monday of next week.

DARLINGTON SCHOOL CLOSING—The annual closing exercises of Darlington School took place recently and there was a large number of parents, friends and children present. After some lively games and an especially exciting game of softball, everyone entered the school and enjoyed an abundant supply of ice-cream and cake. Chocolate bars, apples and oranges were also provided generously by the Women's Institute. After everyone had completely satisfied their appetites, prizes and grading certificates were given out by the teacher. The following prizes were awarded: Prizes for Spelling—Grade I, Blair Campbell; Prize for Spelling in the Senior Grades—Donalda MacPherson; Prize for Current Events—Donalda MacPherson. Prizes for best Drawings—Catherine Nicholson and Errol Campbell; Prizes for Health in Grade I—Esta Pollard and Blair Campbell; Prizes for Current Events—Donalda MacPherson and Catherine Nicholson; Prize for Nature in Grade I, Blair Campbell. Prizes for Wild Flower Portfolios—Errol Campbell and Donalda MacPherson. Prize for Arithmetic in Grade I, Blair Campbell. Prize for highest average—Errol Campbell. Prize for neatness in Grade I—Esta Pollard and Blair Campbell.

A nicely worded address was read to the teacher by Randolph Nicholson and two lovely gifts presented by Blair Campbell. The teacher replied briefly, thanking the pupils for their thoughtfulness and appreciation. After the teacher and the Women's Institute had been thanked for their treat, and regret expressed that the teacher was departing, all went home feeling they had spent a pleasant afternoon.

Mr. John A. MacPherson has returned from a visit to Nova Scotia. While in Halifax he was guest of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. MacPherson.

Mr. Arthur Matheson spent a few days in Montague where he was a candidate for entrance examinations. Mr. Matheson received his instruction from the correspondence course.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sprow and son Johnny, accompanied by Miss Betty Davidson of Annapolis Valley, were recent visitors to P. E. I., visiting friends and relatives throughout the Province. Inter-school softball is becoming a favourite pastime in this locality, and although the Bellevue team has met with no major success it is felt they have learned much that may be of value in future games.

A number of Georgetown Boy Scouts are encamped this week on Boughton Island under the supervision of Scout Master, D. J. MacCormack. Mr. MacCormack has revived the Scout movement in Georgetown and regular weekly meetings have been held in the Canadian Legion Hall during the past winter and spring. It is understood that Mr. MacCormack will leave shortly for Saint John, N. B. where he will take a Scoutmaster's course.

For the past few days Main Street has been the scene of great activity as a large carry-all towed by a diesel caterpillar tractor were engaged in digging out one side of the street to a depth of two and one half feet and some thirty trucks were engaged in hauling in loads of stone which were dumped in the dug-out part, and then covered with clay. The same procedure was then followed on the opposite side of the road. It is expected that the work will be completed in a day or two and then travelling of the entire stretch of road from Poole's Garage to the Station House here will take place.

Island Boys Join Tour

Two boys from Prince Edward Island who are making a tour of the United Kingdom with a group of other boys from every province in Canada talked to the driver of the locomotive of the "Scotian" of the Canadian National Railways at Moncton, N. B., on their way to Montreal. The group will include boys all the way from Yellowknife in the Northwest Territories and Dawson City in the Yukon, to St. John's, Nfld. During the course of their tour of the United Kingdom they will visit historical sites, industrial plants, resorts and other points of interest. A similar group of boys from the United Kingdom will make a tour of Canada under the leadership of Field Marshal Sir Claude Auchinleck. Photograph shows, left to right, Ronald Leard of Summerside, and Robert Nelson, Charlottetown, P. E. Advertisement for SAFETY AND FIRST AID. ALL EMPLOYERS OF LABOUR. Your attention is directed to the very important matter of "ACCIDENT PREVENTION" in all your undertakings where workmen are employed and in which the safety of your workmen must receive your first consideration. We ask you to consider carefully the reading of the following Regulations made under the Workmen's Compensation Act and approved by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, December 20th, 1949:— SAFETY AND FIRST AID Regulation 7. Sec. 1. An employer who disregards the recommendations of the Safety Officer or other person authorized by the Board (Section 7, subsection 1) to make such inspection of the ways, works, machinery and appliances for the safety of the workmen under his employ, shall be liable to have his rate raised according to his hazard or hazards and if the hazard or hazards so continue after this inspection the employer shall be restrained from carrying on operations until such hazard or hazards are removed to the Board's satisfaction. Sec. 2. Every employer shall likewise comply with the First Aid requirements for his workmen as required by the Board to be kept on his premises, factory, sawmill, or other place of employment and these appliances shall at all times be in easy access to the workmen. Our inspectors will visit you from time to time and will make any reasonable recommendations for your action with respect to installing, where necessary, such safeguards and measures that will prevent possible injury or death to your workmen. Your full co-operation and assistance in this great work of human welfare is expected. WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION BOARD OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND
