

Police Chief Will Testify In A Large Way

VANCOUVER (CP) — Police chief Walter Mulligan says he will go before the Tupper commission to deal with allegations by members of his force linking him with underworld payoffs.

In a statement issued through his counsel Saturday, Chief Mulligan said he "will testify in a large way."

The statement said the chief "will cover all the ground, all the nooks and crannies and will deal, too, with the men who have been making the accusations."

Several senior officers on the 735-man force testified before the commission last week that the chief had accepted payoffs from gamblers and bootleggers. Hearings were adjourned Thursday for 10 days.

Other witnesses expected to appear before commissioner Reginald H. Tupper, named last month to investigate charges of corruption and laxity in the force, include Mayor Fred Hume, magistrate Oscar Orr and Judge Ray Sargent. All members of the city police commission, former attorney-general Gordon Wismer, and a long list of persons whose names have been mentioned during the inquiry which opened Wednesday.

Discuss Eastern Peace Meeting

WASHINGTON (Reuters) — A Far East peace conference as one possible follow-up to the Big Four talks in Geneva was under active discussion in congressional and diplomatic quarters Monday.

Washington observers do not expect the United States will agree to Asian settlement talks on the basis of Soviet Premier Bulganin's raising the issues of Formosa and China's seat in the United Nations at the launching of the summit talks.

But it is acknowledged by officials that certain discussion on Asian problems must come and that these discussions will have to embrace principal parties to disputes in the Orient.

Italian Government Barely Wins Vote

ROME (Reuters) — The Italian chamber of deputies Monday night gave a narrow vote of confidence to Italy's new centre coalition cabinet headed by Christian Democrat Antonio Segni.

Segni, who is noted for his program to break up big farms and hand them over to peasants, formed his cabinet 12 days ago. It has Social Democrats and Liberals, and has the backing in Parliament of the small Republican party.

Segni's platform has a somewhat more left-wing bias than that of his predecessor, Mario Scelba, a Christian Democrat who inherited the political mantle of the late Alcide de Gasperi.

Segni, like Scelba, is expected to continue a foreign policy strongly favorable to the West.

The government received 363 votes, while 265 deputies registered negative votes and 12 abstained. The coalition parties and Republicans voted solely for the government. Communists, Socialists, Monarchists and Neo-Fascists voted against.

A Monarchist splinter group abstained.

Time for a QUICK PICK-UP

Don't argue with a locomotive. So a manufacturer of rail equipment has developed a lightweight rail inspection car that carries four people yet can be taken off the track by one man.

Since men who design rail cars, aircraft and other transportation equipment regularly use aluminum to cut down dead weight and increase payload, it is no surprise that aluminum was used to replace heavier materials in many parts of this inspection car. The person who will be surprised is the locomotive engineer who first sees a rail inspector nonchalantly— and single-handedly—hosting his scooter from the track.
