Torture Charged In Arson Case

MONTREAL (CP)—A Montreal businessman who alleges he was tortured by police to make him testify about a number of arson cases has filed a $250,000 dagage action in Quebec Superior Court, naming the Quebec justice department and Claude Wagner, former justice minister, among a large number of defendants.

Other defendants named in the action by businessman Louis Sicotte are the Fire Underwriters Investigation Bureau of Canada Inc., two men described in the action as representatives of the bureau, and 12 provincial policemen.

Mr. Sicotte, an insurance adjuster, also filed a 10-page declaration with the court purporting to give details of an interrogation at provincial police headquarters in Montreal Oct. 20, 1965.

Jack "Santa Claus Balcom" Presents The True Version of - - - "Twas The Night Before Christmas" or "A Stranger Visits Island Mobile Homes"

Twas the night before Christmas and while waiting for "Merle",
We sat there just chatting with a good looking girl.
She wanted a trailer, the size did not know,
We carry good stock, so attempted to show.
When out on the lot there arose such a clatter,
We jumped from the desk to see what's the matter.
We saw an old fellow all dressed up in red,
Right from his ankles to the top of his head.
He gave a HO. HO. and the Reindeer a snort,
I thought for awhile that I needed a quart.

The moon on the crest of the new fallen snow,
Gave a nice homey feeling to the trailers below,
While we were deciding it must be St. Nick,
He jumped out of his sleigh, into a trailer so quick,
All we could hear was a sigh of delight,
Ringing so loud through the dark crispy night.
My what a beautiful home this would be, (GENERAL)
And Look there's even a place for the tree.
And Look at the carpet from wall to wall,
And that beautiful tile stretched down the hall,
The bright colored fridge and stove to match,
And that beautiful furniture with nary a scratch.
To the bedroom he went and we heard in a snap,
The bed looks so cosy I must have a nap.
But I haven't got time He said with a Jerk,
I've got to get busy, and get back to work.

My how his eyes twinkled, as he strolled round the lot
And he spotted a (Glendale) just right for his Tot,
A 50 x 12 and priced way so low
A home that is insulated for ice and snow.
Old Santa looked tired from delivering Toys
So I showed him another to get away from the noise,
A new (Richardson) two bathrooms and all
A place to retire when sick of it all.

We then turned to our customer who shouted with glee
What I have just seen, sure satisfies me,
We thought she meant Santa, and started to giggle,
But then she stood up with a cute little wiggle,
I mean the "Homes" she said with delight,
My husband and I will be out Monday Night.

Then laying his finger aside of his nose,
And giving a nod, up the chimney he goes.
He sprang to his sleigh, to us all gave a whistle
And away he then went like a shock guided missile.
But we heard him exclaim as he drove out of sight,
For bargains 'GALORE' see Jack Balcom Tonite.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all our Old and New Friends.
