Young-Moynagh Wedding

—St. Stephen's Church, Milltown, N. B., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, July 14, at nine o'clock when Rev. Father O'Brien united in marriage, with nuptial mass, Mary Teresa, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Moynagh, Emerald, P. E. I., and Harold Eugene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Young, St. Stephen, N. B.

Miss Elizabeth Mahar played the nuptial music, while Rev. Father Poole rendered appropriate hymns.

Her uncle, Clarence Mohan, gave the bride in marriage and she was attended by her cousin, Miss Hilda Mohan as bridesmaid. Mr. Emmett Mohan, cousin of the bride, was the groom's best man.

The bride looked charming in a floor length gown of white slipper satin, the fitted bodice having a jewel neckline of seed pearls and rhinestones and lace inserts and long sleeves tapering to points over the wrists. The bouffant skirt, featuring a centre panel from which three tiers of satin extended to the back forming a bustle effect, fell gracefully into folds ending in a full train. Her finger-tip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls and rhinestones and she carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Miss Mohan, as bridesmaid, wore a gown of pink net over taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline. She wore a matching headdress of pink net and lace mitts and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Mohan, wore a dress of navy and white with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother, Mrs. Young, was attired in navy with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Park Hotel for the immediate relatives. The toast to the bride was proposed by the best man and the groom responded.

Later in the day, the happy couple left for a honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. For travelling, the bride chose a navy blue gabardine suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of red roses. On their return, they will reside in St. Stephen, N. B.

Callow Appeal Recalls How Own Misfortune Led To Benefit Many

—On Saturday, November 3rd, the citizens of Alberton and surrounding districts will have their first opportunity to share in the work being done by Walter Callow, a veteran of World War I who, blind and paralysed, has lain abed in Camp Hill Hospital at Halifax since 1920.

Walter Callow is a challenge. Lying in his small, quiet room, his body helpless, unable only to hear and speak, he is nevertheless, alert of mind and is living a busy, happy and useful existence.

A member of the Royal Flying Corps in the First World War, he suffered a severe injury when his plane crashed during a test flight in 1917. Through thirteen years of difficulty and sufering his stout spirit kept him living an almost normal life, but for twenty-one years he has been bedridden and for twelve years he has been blind, but one who visits him receives not the impression that he is calling upon an invalid but upon a competent business man at work in his office.

During the years of World War II the "Callow Cigarette Fund" became well known. Knowing how much cigarettes meant to the men overseas he determined to send over all he possibly could. To establish the fund he sacrificed the pleasure and comfort of his radio and then gave up smoking himself. Out of his own savings he bought modest victory bonds and raffled them in aid of the fund. Patriotic verses which he wrote and had printed in illustrated folders were sold and added about $6,000.00 to the fund. Various organizations, societies and individuals also contributed to the fund and, as a result, more than three million cigarettes for servicemen were sent overseas.

Following the end of the war, Walter Callow turned his indomitable energy toward the creation and supplying of wheelchair buses for veterans' hospitals. Support for this fund came from all over the world and in May, 1947, the first wheelchair coach in the world was completed at an approximate cost of $16,000.00. At that time Callow said, "There's one fellow here at the hospital who's been in a wheelchair seven years. In that time He's been away from the hospital only three times. Think what it would mean to fellows like him to be able to go to baseball games, hockey games, wrestling matches, to be able to take a trip or spend a social evening with friends. Think of the lift to his morale which just looking forward to things like that would bring."

There are now three coaches. Two of them are large enough to accommodate twelve wheelchairs and the smaller one will accomodate ten. The coaches are kept in Halifax and take invalids in Halifax on every possible outing, picnics, sports events, out-door festivals and churches and other places, giving them a much happier outlook on life.

Every year these coaches cover the Maritimes, giving every invalid possible an outing. Three weeks ago one of these coaches was on Prince Edward Island. A hostess and a driver accompany the patients and they are trained to give necessary assistance. It is Callow's objective to have simliar coaches all across Canada that those with physical handicaps may enjoy some of the things which make life brighter and more worthwhile.

Walter Callow is a shining example of how a man can help his fellows even if he cannot physically help himself. Lying on his back unable to move and unable to see, his active brain is continually searching for new ways to help veterans and others who are also physically handicapped. It has been said, "You can't stop Walter Callow!" The Walter Callow fund is administered by a responsible board of directors comprising business men, many of whom are war veterans. Every cent donated goes directly to the fund.

On Saturday, November 3rd, members of Regalette Rebekah Lodge will conduct a tag day at Alberton in aid of the Walter Callow Fund. This will be the time for citizens to help Walter Callow brighten the lives of those who are more fortunate than he is but much less fortunate than the average person. Everyone is asked to contribute willingly and generously.

Brae Y. P. U. Entertains At Hallowe'en Party

—There was an attendance of over sixty-five when the Brae United Church Young People's Union entertained the children of the Sunday School at a big Hallowe'en party on Monday night, Oct. 29th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oulton.

The lovely farm home was attractively decorated with lanterns, candles, Hallowe'en streamers, black cats and skeletons, and provided a fitting atmosphere for the games and contests.

Prizes were given for the best children's costumes and the following were the winners:

Junior Children — (1) Lorna MacKinnon, (2) Verna Wallace (3) Margery MacKinnon and Heber MacPhee, equal.

For the senior children the prizes for best costumes were won as follows—(1) Jean Dickson (2) Barbara MacNeill (3) Claudette MacNeill and Norma Dickson, equal.

In the contest juding the number of pumpkin seeds in a bottle the prize was awarded to Erison MacLeod who guessed a total of 184, just two short of the correct total of 186. Others who guessed close to the total were: Ralph Lidstone who said 180 and Mrs. W. G. Dickson who guessed 179. The judges for the best Hallowe'en costumes in the children's division were: Mrs. Roy Oulton, Mrs. Eric MacNeill and Neil MacKay.

A pie eating contest evoked much merriment and laughter. Taking part were—Mrs. Roy Oulton, and Mrs. Eric MacNeill and the following gentlemen:— Robert Oulton, Harris Rogers, Al Grigg and Stirling Barbour. The winner was Mrs. Roy Oulton.

The West Devon United Church Young People's Union joined the Brae Y. P. U. for this enjoyable party.

Meeting the guests at the door was a "Ghost" cleverly impersonated by Mrs. Roy Oulton. In the dining room another "Ghost" met the young people, cleverly acted by Mrs. Robert Oulton while a realistic "Witch" told everyone his fortune as she stirred her huge cauldron. The "Witch" was splendidly played by Mrs. Lorne MacNevin.

Games and contests such as Hallowe'en telegrams, Pumpkin Relays, Raisin Relays and written contests were enjoyed under the leadership of the minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson.

Delicious refreshments were served and this happy evening concluded by a short worship service conducted by the president Mrs. Roy Oulton with Mrs. Fred W. MacLeod at the organ and by all repeating the Mispah Benediction. —AZ
