RIPLEY'S BELIEVE IT OR NOT

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	Pass	1 ♥	1 ♠
1 NT	Pass	2 ♥	Pass
2 NT	Pass	3 NT

Opening lead—eight of spades.

A fellow's allowed to daydream, isn't he? Now I have had this hand in mind for a long time, and if it ever comes up with me holding the West cards, I have got the cure for it to prevent South from making three no-trump.

I realize the chance this particular layout will ever be dealt with me in the West seat is very remote. I know that if I played bridge every day for the next billion years or so the odds would still be greatly against this setup on-the-spot when it comes to taking charge of the operation.

We'll suppose that the bidding has gone just as indicated in the diagram. You are not being asked to approve the bidding because, honestly, it is not up to the standard we like to recommend in this column.

But that's the way the bidding goes, and naturally, since I have the greatest faith in partners, I open the suit dear partner has bid. This brings forth the jack from East, and declarer, who has no idea I have a singleton spade, stays off the jack.

It is quite clear to me at this point, for some reason I do not understand, that unless I make the proper discard South will take nine tricks. These would be a spade trick, four hearts, a diamond, and three clubs.

But since this is the hand I have been dreaming of for years, no such thing happens. When South takes the ace of spades I discard on it the ace of hearts!

South may now huff and puff, or sweat and strain, but it will get him absolutely nowhere. He just can't make the grade any more.

I hope this hand is dealt to me some time.

Expect Early Increase In Vancouver Wheat Shipments

seas wheat shipments from this port, slow and steady during recent weeks, are expected to climb shortly with closure of shipping on the St. Lawrence River.

And with more than a half-dozen Japanese vessels loading right now the statistics should show an upward jump any day.

Shipments from here for the crop year to date total 26,176,000 bushels, nearly 10,000,000 bushels down from the same period last year.

A waterfront strike has been blamed for the deficiency. The elevators were jammed full and grain trains from the Prairies were halted as waiting ships lay at anchor in the harbor while longshoremen struck for more than a month.

ALL-TIME HIGH

Figures show that in the year ending July 31 last, shipments reached an all-time high of nearly 137,000,000 bushels. In the year before the figure was 125,000,000.

Japan's import figure of Canadian grain since 1951 has leaped sharply. In that year, vessels jumped 13,000,000 bushels across the north Pacific. During the elapsed seven years she has increased her imports to 50,000,000 bushels, taking most of it in Japanese ships.

The best customer out of Vancouver continues to be the United Kingdom, with 74,000,000 bushels. India purchased 8,000,000 while the Oceania area of the Pacific took 1,500,000.

A Vancouver grain exchange official said Thursday that Russia imported more than 14,000,000 bushels to July 31. Red China bought several cargoes of Canadian wheat this summer but there have been no renewals of orders.

Two Western Newspapers Get New Publishers

TORONTO (CP) — Two Western newspapers, the Vancouver Province and Winnipeg Tribune, get new publishers Jan. 1.

The Southam Company Limited announced Thursday:

Fred S. Auger, vice-president and publisher of the Tribune since 1951, becomes publisher of the province, succeeding A. W. Moscarella who retires.

Ross Munro, assistant publisher and editor-in-chief of The Province, succeeds Mr. Auger as vice-president and publisher of The Tribune.

Mr. Moscarella, 65, has had 39 years' service on Southam Newspapers in Winnipeg and Vancouver. He will continue as a director of the Southam Company and of Pacific Press Limited. Pacific Press owns the Province and the Vancouver Sun and the Southam Company holds a half-interest.

SOUTHAM DIRECTOR

Mr. Auger, 51, also is a Southam director. Before joining the Southam Company he was advertising manager of Procter and Gamble Company Limited and, earlier, manager of the Vancouver branch of McKim Advertising Agency. A native of Calgary, he is married and has two sons.

Mr. Munro, 45, was awarded the OBE for his work as a Canadian Press war correspondent during the Second World War. He joined the Southam News Services in 1948. He is a graduate of the University of Toronto in political science and economics and is married, with one daughter.

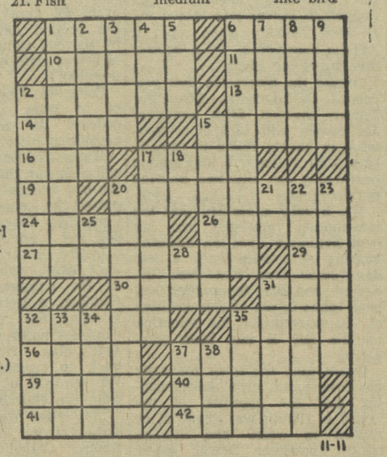
Yesterday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
