

to attend their "LOVING", "CLEAN", "WELL SUPERVISED" little daycare, my only advise would be: "invest in some rugged hockey equipment, YOU MAY NEED IT"! Also, I have two questions for Peter, "If immature close minded people are unwelcome at MYRONS... then how do you and the rest of the bouncers get in the building?", and if you believe "We shouldn't be treated any better than we act", then I guess the reverse is true: you personally, wouldn't mind being snuck up from behind, choked, punched, and for an added touch have your girlfriend called names... ALL in a so-called safe public atmosphere, by the people who are supposed to be protecting you!!! In conclusion, MYRONS staff want us to realize that it is a privilege, granted by their highest God given authority, not a right to attend THEIR club. This kind of attitude may be accepted if MYRONS was the only club in town, BUT with popular clubs located less than a block away on either side of them, they may soon find that the LOCAL CHILDREN have a new backyard in which to play.
