Hockey School Nears

BACK in the late forties, the annual hockey school for referees and coaches was instituted here and Frank 'King' Clancy was the first instructor. Each year since, without interruptions, the school has continued and many outstanding personalities have come to Charlottetown to pass along their hockey wisdom to the 'desk jockeys' about the game. The president of the National Hockey League, Clarence Campbell, his referee-in-chief, Carl Voss, Frank Lefevre, Roy 'Red' Storey, George Tasse, Buddy O'Carroll, Jimmy Skinner, Hovie Meeker, Pete Kelly and several others have graced the school with their attendance.

It was as Brigadier W.V. 'Bill' Reid who started all this and carried it on so successfully until 1960. Since then his successor, Dave Boswell, has continued the fine work of those hockey clinics.

This December Dave has secured the services of Eddie Powers, one of the most capable officials the NHL has seen in many years. Eddie, who headlines last February 1 after the game of January 31 between Montreal and Toronto, this was the game where Powers, who is a complete and perfect shot and the same in which Canadians took violent exception to Eddie's officiating. The storm was not going long before Powers resigned from the NHL staff because he felt he didn't get sufficient backing from the NHL top brass. It was pretty much a reputation of the 'Storey story' and naturally Powers received loads of mail.

Powers Is Colorful
WE aren't going to get into any arguments over Powers and the Canadiens. However, we do know that Eddie was one of the best officials who ever officiated in the game. He is a good thing with a real flourish and never hesitated on any call. His decisions came fast and was not talking back to this particular level. He was the boss but he had a generous mind about who was in charge.

A Big Attraction
WELL, this same Eddie Powers will be here with us next weekend. The school goes on Friday and Saturday, December 13 and 14 with Eddie, as associate instructor, will be several other well known officials and three hours, and three hours.

But Powers will be a big attraction. Although very few local people have ever met him, 'poplar' and 'poplar' but that is not an excuse for not going to see him. He is a real person who has lived his life with the NHL and he is confident he will make an excellent instructor. His record in the National Hockey League is a fine one and we know that he will be able to pass on to our young officials those who attend next week's sessions which are to be held at the Charlottetown Forum.

Minor Hockey Day
IT'S minor hockey day once again and Bucko Trainor's Forum will be a real beehive of activity today.

Charlottetown recreation director, Jim Fox, has lined up a number of exciting events for the day. The day will be a day of Ivan Diberty. Things are going along splendidly and registration is all completed by today.

Chicago Back Hawks Face Leafs On weekend
another encounter tonight at Maple Leaf Gardens. "I think we're the only club that can give them a run for their money," boasted Punch Imlach, perennially optimistic coach and general manager of the Chicago demotion gang five times without a win so far in the National Hockey League season, were working up their reflexes—and their nerve—for points away. We may be sooner than many critics would expect.
