"Hallowe'en"

Dim and eerie is the twilight, Little winds are chill and keen. Goblins lurk within the shadows, 'Tis the night of Hallowe'en.

You can feel its awesome wonder, Feel the magic in the air. See black cats that are enchanted, See strange mystery everywhere.

See the gleam of jack-o-lanterns, Hear the sound of dancing feet. If you have the faith of childhood, All these wonders may be seen.

capita has declined from 1,500 pounds in 1942 to less than 1,200 pounds estimated for this year. The annual production of butter has declined more than 40,000,000 pounds during the past 3 years alone. This is the lowest production on record in 20 years; the production of cheese, at one time our biggest export commodity, has dropped from 138 million pounds in 1945 to less than 100 million this year; the production of fluid milk has not been sufficient to meet the year-round requirements of a large number of city markets, necessitating the re-constitution of milk from manufactured products. This shortage of fluid milk will become progressively worse unless the over-all decline is halted.
