A BEAUTIFULLY groomed heavy draft mare owned by Lorne Crockett of Alma was judged the best horse at the Alberton Exhibition and besides first in her class received the R. T. Holman and Canadian Tire Corporation special prizes.

ROADSTER TROTTERS and pacers in harness quickly attracted a crowd to the judging ring at the Alberton show yesterday.

Final Placings Made As Alberton Fair Concludes

Alberton Exhibition continued to be favored with good weather and a large number of people visited the fair on its second and closing day yesterday.

As judging of livestock continued Hereford and Holstein cattle, draft horses and that part of the roadster class not judged the previous day were brought into the ring.

As was announced Wednesday the champion roadster stallion was shown by Frank McAlduff. Yesterday a beautiful little animal belonging to Willard Coughlin was declared champion mare.

In draft horses the champion mare was shown by Lorne Crockett and the champion stallion by Donald Barbour.

The very large number of Holsteins shown made the judging a long and sometimes difficult task. Alvin Palmer won the exhibition special prize for champion bull and carried off the championship ribbons for both junior and senior males. The junior female champion was shown by Carl Montgomery and the senior female champion by Arnold Smallman.

In the Hereford judging Fred C. Ramsay was awarded the junior and senior male championships and the exhibition special prize for champion bull. The junior female championship went to Robert McLaurin and the senior female championship to a new exhibitor, A. S. Johnson and Son of Belmont.

POULTRY CLASSES LIGHT

Poultry showings were small. There was a slight increase in the number of geese and ducks entered but fewer hens were shown this year.

The potato championship was won this year by Mrs. Beecher Smallman.

Prizes for the best collections of garden vegetables were awarded to Mrs. Claude Lewis, Mrs. Beecher Smallman, Erision McLeod, Mrs. R. E. Lockerby and Mrs. Robert Oulton.

There were few entries of fruit and most of it was immature. The prizes offered by Myrtle and Roy Leard for the best collections of fruit went to Mrs. Robert Oulton and Mrs. Jean Webb.

In flowers the first prize collection of dahlias shown by Mrs. Lorne McNeill.

One never knows what may appear in the novelty classes. This year the first prize went to Mrs. Alvin Bell for a centerpiece.

Mrs. Gordon Hardy and Mrs. John Rayner won first and second prize.

Mrs. John Wells received first prizes for the best collection of cut flowers and for the best collection of roses.

The display space for needlework and handicraft was severely taxed and for this reason it could not be viewed to the best advantage. Entries in this class were far more numerous than in previous years. As in former years they were of excellent quality.

FOURTEEN FIRSTS

The largest exhibitor in this class, and probably in the whole exhibition, was Mrs. Gus P.A. Arsenault of Abraham's Village who had thirty-nine entries. She won thirty prizes—fourteen firsts, nine seconds, five thirds and two fourths.

It would be quite impossible to comment on each entry form worthy of special mention. Among the many beautiful hooked rugs perhaps the all yarn one by Mrs. Isaac Dunbar stands out as being of particularly fine craftsmanship. Of floral design in pleasing colors and very fine hooking, it is worked to a degree of perfection that makes it reversible.

Of beautiful workmanship, is a red satin bedspread with design reminiscent of the old Boston Sidewalk—done in shades of green and gold.

It is the work of Mrs. Walter Culbert, a new exhibitor, whose summer home is in Alberton South.

The only lace tablecloth entered this year was the work of Mrs. Ord Sharpe and the only lace tablecloth was by Mrs. Irving Hardy.

There were several nice samples of needle point. First prize winner was Mrs. Verna Shea. The only entry of petit point was by Mrs. John Foley.

Mrs. Fred Leard won two firsts for her samples of knitted and of crocheted lace.

The only entry of applique was a very pretty apron made by Mrs. Gus P. A. Arsenault.

Mrs. Sylvère Arsenault won first prize for a fancy apron and Mrs. Beecher Smallman won first for a kitchen one.

From five entries of woman's cotton dresses, one made by Mrs. Beecher Smallman was selected for first place, and from four child's cotton dresses the one made by Mrs. Leonard Barnett was chosen.

The only weaving was by Mrs. Gus P. A. Arsenault.

The jewellery was interesting. A four-piece set made by Mrs. Leonard Barnett from plastic ribbon was placed first and a set made from sponge rubber by Mrs. Martin Buchanan came second.

PAINTINGS

Paintings and snapshots were also interesting. In oils Miss Martha Meyer won first prize and Mrs. John Foley second. Mrs. Milton Smallman won first place in water colors.

The first prize collection of Island views by Mrs. Sergeant Metherall were indeed typical of the Province. Some were in color and some in black and white. In snapshots of children first place was given to the collection by Mrs. Lorne McNeill.

One never knows what may appear in the novelty classes. This year the first prize went to Mrs. Alvin Bell for a centerpiece.

Prizes for the best collection of canned vegetables went to Mrs. Jack Clark, Wilson Christopher and Mrs. Harry Adams.

A most successful exhibition included last evening with dancing. Music for round dancing was provided by Lowell Huestis and his orchestra and for square dancing by Leonard Barnett's orchestra.

During the afternoon and early evening much pleasure was afforded by Burke's Pipe Band, an ever popular form of entertainment.

Fire In Car Threat To Service Stn.

A fire in the B-A Service Station one-quarter mile east of Miscouche yesterday afternoon threatened the garage for a short period but was extinguished without damage by the pumper of the Miscouche Fire Department.

The fire broke out in the seats of an old car, located about 10 feet from the garage. The frame of the vehicle was being cut up for junk with an acetylene torch when sparks apparently ignited the cushions.

The fire gained momentum when a pail of oil was poured on after being mistaken for a pail of water. With the flames leaping higher than the garage, the owner, Mr. Francis DesRoches, rushed to the fire station and drove the pumper to the scene where the fire was soon extinguished.

Fortunately the wind was favorable and the flames were blowing away from the building, otherwise a serious fire could have resulted.

Callaghan's Single Pushes Legion Over Tyne Valley, 8-7

Des Callaghan's single following a booming triple by Des Roberts sent the latter across the plate in the final inning and the Summerside Legion captured the first game of a best three of five semi-final series with Tyne Valley at Queen Elizabeth Park last evening.

The final score was 8-7.

Joe Bernard, toting the slab for the winner, was making his softball pitching debut and was surprisingly effective considering his inexperience. He allowed Tyne Valley only six hits and struck out seven. Control was his chief problem, and he issued nine free tickets to the initial sack. Ira Campbell, Tyne Valley flinger, was touched for 12 safe hits. He struck out two and gave up no walks.

Des Roberts belted a home run, a triple and single in four tries. Clarence Gillis, Henry Gallant and Art Sonier all hit 2 for 3. One of Gallant's singles a four-base blow to deep centre.

Ira Campbell was the hitting star for the Tigers, getting a home run and two singles in three trips for a perfect day at the plate. Elmer Gorrill hit one for one, and walked three times.
