

In Memoriam

MR. CLARENCE MACINTYRE

Mount Stewart and surrounding district was saddened on July 5, 1953, when they learned of the death of Clarence MacIntyre in his 24th year. He passed away peacefully in the Charlottetown Hospital after a brief illness. Death was due to a car accident which occurred in the vicinity of Savage Harbor on June 26. He was administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church by Rev. Monsignor Maurice MacDonald. Clarence, better known as (Cogie) was ever ready with a smile and helping hand to a neighbor in a time of need. The many flowers, messages of sympathy and Mass cards bore testimony to the esteem in which he was held. By his friends and neighbours he leaves to cherish his memory, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. MacIntyre, Mt. Stewart, seven sisters and six brothers and a brother William who predeceased him some years ago; Mary, Mrs. Peter Doucette; Evelyn, Mrs. Bertram MacDonald; Winnifred, Mrs. Charles Murphy of Mt. Stewart; Theresa, Mrs. Donald J. J. MacDonald, St. Andrew's; Catherine, Boston, Mass.; Joan and Vernita at home Vincent at Charlottetown. Valentine at Mt. Savage Harbor, Cyrene at Mt. Stewart, Albert, Reginald and Gertrude at home. His funeral which was largely attended took place July 8, to St. Andrew's Church where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by his pastor the Rev. George MacCormack. The pallbearers were Frankie Feehan, Bruce Affleck, Peter McLeod, Angus McPhee, Leighton Trainor, Oliver Smith. His remains were laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. R. I. P.

IN MEMORIAM

MISS SARAH E. MACLEOD *The death occurred in Georgetown on February 7, of Miss Sarah Elizabeth MacLeod at the age of 74 years. She had been a life-long resident of Georgetown, and at the time of her death was residing in the old home with her brother,

Albion. During her lifetime she had been an active worker in the community and church. She had acted as secretary of various societies in the church, had taught Sunday School, a class of junior boys, for a great many years. She had been organist of the Presbyterian Church, now St. David's United Church, as long as most of the members can remember. Her faithfulness could always be depended upon in her various church duties. She leaves to mourn her brother, Albion and a brother Rev. Parmenas MacLeod, now retired and residing in Winnipeg, Man. The funeral took place from St. David's United Church on February 9, with Rev. W. A. Paterson conducting the service. Pallbearers were: Capt. H. Larsen, Messrs. Guy Hemphill, Chester Walker, Fred Allen, Emerson Lowellyn and Wallace MacDonald.—A.C.
