MONDAY

THREE IN HOSPITAL FOLLOWING ACCIDENTS—Two women and one man were in hospital in Charlottetown following accidents over the week end. About six o'clock yesterday morning a car crashed into the steel work of the Hillsboro Bridge injuring two of the occupants, a man and woman, slightly. Both belonged to Charlottetown. They entered the Prince Edward Island Hospital for treatment. A woman from Donaldston was shaken up in an accident at Dunstaffnage yesterday. She was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital. Several other slight accidents were reported. One occurred at the corner of Queen and Kent streets and another on the North River Road.

PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER — On the evening of June 18th the home of Mrs. Jeanette Campbell, Darlington, was the scene of a happy event when upwards of one hundred and forty neighbours and friends from the surrounding districts gathered together to tender her daughter, Miss Evelyn Campbell, a miscellaneous shower prior to her marriage to Mr. William Younker, Kingston. The bride-to-be was led to the seat of honor by the Misses Lizzie Rennie and Catherine MacPherson while the Wedding March was played by Miss Isabel MacDonald. The many useful gifts were opened by Mrs. Walton Toombs and the Misses Janet MacPherson, Lillian Deacon and Catherine MacPherson, while the accompanying verses were read by Miss Lizzie Rennie. The bride-to-be expressed her thanks for the useful gifts and invited all to go to see her in her new home. After singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow," the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and music, the latter being furnished by Messrs. Heber Campbell and Raymond Gallant, Elmwood. Dainty refreshments were served by the ladies.

The people of Pleasant Valley and surrounding communities were deeply grieved and shocked when it became known that Mr. Malcolm McInnis had quietly and peacefully passed away on June 13th at the age of 74. He had been under medical treatment for years.

The late Mr. McInnis was an honest and upright man, a kind and thoughtful neighbor. To know him was to love him. During the time he was laid aside from active service he was never known to murmur or complain. A smile was always on his lips, for he knew in Whom he believed. A short service was held at the home by the Rev. Mr. Wallace, and then he was taken to the United Church at Pleasant Valley. The service at the grave in Fredericton was under the auspices of the Orange Order. The hymns sung were, The Lord is My Shepherd, Asleep in Jesus, Unto The Hills Around. Mr. I. Hill sang very sweetly the solo, Will The Circle Be Unbroken.

The deceased leaves to mourn a heart-broken widow, also one sister, Mrs. Margaret Cole and one brother James, of Charlottetown, and to whom heartfelt sympathy is extended.

The pallbearers were neighbors of the deceased: Messrs. A. J. Stevenson, Harry Weeks, James MacSwain, John McDowell, Malcolm McLennan, W. F. Stevenson.

The messages were numerous and beautiful, testifying to the love and sympathy of all.

A very pleasant evening was spent on Wednesday, June 3rd when the members of True Brothers Lodge, Crapaud, gathered at the hospitable home of Mr. Manford Beer, Hampton, to convey their best wishes to Manford and Mrs. Beer for a happy journey through life.

After a pleasant time spent in social intercourse the bride and groom were led to a place of honor in the living room. Mr. Frank Pidgeon then called the gathering to order and read and addrss of appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Beer after which Mr. Witfield Howatt presented a beautiful and comfortable arm-chair to Mr. Beer and a handsome set of dishes to his wife.

Mr. Beer fittingly responded to the good wishes and useful remembrances. Complimentary speeches were made by A. J. Robinson, Augustine Cove, James MacKay, Desable, Arthur Dawson, Tryon, and Rev. Bridgewater, Victoria.

A delicious lunch was served by the ladies and after singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows" the members departed for their homes each and all expressing hearty good wishes for the guests of honor.

Following is the address.

Mr. and Mrs. Manford Beer,
Hampton, P. E. I.

Dear Manford and Mrs. Beer,—We your Brother Masons, assembled here this evening convey to you and your Bride our hearty wishes for your happiness.

We welcome Mrs. Beer to our midst and trust that your journey through life may be a long and pleasant one. For the past number of years you have been Secretary and have discharged the arduous duties with painstaking care. In passing through practically every office in our Lodge you have shown equal diligence and have presided over us as our Master with dignity and charm.

Our Grand Lodge has very fittingly recommended you for the honor of representing us at our Sister Grand Lodge of Washington, D.C.

We ask you to accept these small remembrances of our good will to you and Mrs. Beer and hope they will serve to remind you of our esteem and good will,

True Brothers Lodge N. 8, Crapaud, P. E. I.

ELECTED PRESIDENT OF STUDENT COUNCIL—Mr. Frederick B. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Lea of Charlottetown, has been elected President of the All University Student Council of Boston, Mass.,—the largest university or college student body in New England. A brilliant student, Mr. Lea was winner of the Buck Scholarship for three years, one of five students elected to the Delta Senior Honor Society last year, and one of two elected at Boston University as its representatives at the Harvard Tercentenary celebration.—

TUESDAY

—DEATH OF EMILE BERNARD — Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Emile Bernard in the death of her husband, who passed away in the Prince County Hospital on Saturday. Mr. Bernard was taken to the hospital on Wednesday in a serious condition. Mr. Bernard had been in the employ of Ronald MacNeill of Sherbrooke, and was very highly thought of in the community. Besides his widow, there is an infant baby left to mourn. The remains were taken to his home in Palmer Road for burial.—S.

—WEDDING ANNIVERSARY — About fifty friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Rogerson on Cambridge Street, Summerside, last week to celebrate their 19th wedding anniversary. The house was very prettily decorated for the occasion. Mr. Garnet Profitt was Master of Ceremonies and gave a short address and on behalf of the guests presented the happy couple with a beautiful table lamp. Instrumental music was furnished for an impromptu dance by Mr. Garnet Profitt, Ted Acher, Webster Raynor, Samuel MacAusland and Miss Gertrude MacKenna on the piano. A sumptuous lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by some of the ladies present. Mr. Rogerson made a neat speech thanking one and all for their hearty good wishes.—S.

At the recent closing exercises of the University of Saskatchewan at Saskatoon, the degree of LL.D was conferred on M. F. Hedley Auld, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for the Province of Saskatchewan, in recognition of his services in the interests of agriculture during the past years.

Address to Mr. Auld

In presenting Mr. Auld to Sir Frederick Haultain, chancellor of the university, President Murray said:

"Twice before has this university sought to honor distinguished representatives of agriculture. The first was Mr. Angus McKay who discovered the most suitable method of tillage for the Prairies, the second, the Hon. W. R. Motherwell, who had been most active in advancing the interests of agriculture through governmental policies and now the university wishes to do honor to one whose service has been in the field of administration where clear cision, sound policies, tact and above all, integrity, are of fundamental importance. Mr. Auld's services have been rendered in times of unparalled difficulty when problems of relief have been almost overwhelming.

—FAMILY REUNION — Mrs. W. G. Ramsay had the pleasure of seeing her children and grandchildren gathered round her on July 5th for a happy family reunion. Mrs. Ramsay was celebrating her 83rd birthday. The tea table daintily appointed with snow-white linen, gleaming silver and lovely spring flowers, had a beautifully decorated birthday cake in the centre. The cake was the handiwork of Cordelia Ramsay, who proudly presented it to her grandmother, with 83 candles burning brightly. The old lady was very sweet and gracious as she sat at the head of the table, justly proud of her family. There were many lively gifts in remembrance of the happy event and letters of congratulations from absent friends. Present at he gathering were: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ramsay, Summerside, and their son, Russell; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ramsay, Malpeque; Mrs. (Dr.) Park and Mrs. Waldron of Revere, Mass., daughters of Mrs. Ramsay, and their friend, Miss Dutton; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Harrington of Sea View, with their three children, Ellen, Cordelia and Keith (Mrs. Harrington was formerly Maud Ramsay); Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ramsay, with whom Mrs. Ramsay makes her home, and their children, Lois and Enid. Enid was accompanied by her husband, Mr. Bruce Stewart.—S.

Col. J. R. Allan, 82-year-old former commander of the 82nd Prince Edward Island Infantry regiment, was killed on his West Covehead farm yesterday by a fall from a 20-foot scaffolding in one of the stables.

A son and one of the hired men found the aged man lying dead on the stable floor below the scaffolding platform. He bore a deep skull wound believed to have been suffered when his head struck a jutting nail on the stable wall as he fell. He had been doing repair work to the interior of the building when the accident occurred.

Coroner Dr. I. J. Yeo decided an inquest was not necessary.

Col. Allen was a native of West Covehead district, son of an old Prince Edward Island family. He commanded West Covehead Militia regiment—Prince Edward Island 82nd—before the Great War and retired as Colonel with the re-establishment of militia following the Great War. He did not go over seas.

After his retirement Col. Allan returned to fox ranching on his large West Covehead farm and still was active and busy until his timely death last night.

Surviving are his wife and two sons, Dr. Wyllie Allan, Charlottetown, and James, at home.

OTTAWA, July 6.—The Medical Council of Canada tonight announced 290 candidates, including 13 women, were successful in its recent examinations. This gives them the right to register and pay their fee in their respective provinces which issues the license to practice.

The list of successful candidates includes Thomas E. Grant, fontague, P. E. I., and Leigh J. Crozier, Darnley, P. E. I

NEW FISH PLANT AT GEORGETOWN—Georgetown's new fish plant built by brothers Captain Charles M. Fitzgerald and Captain John Fitgerald, is to open as soon as brine freezing machinery is installed. The plant was built especially for freezing, processing and salting cod. Already the plant's operators have obtained 15 tons of cod fish from Carraquet, N. B., fishermen working the east and south-east coasts of Prince Edward Island. When things are in full swing, the Fitzgerald brothers will build two fishing boats and keep the plant supplied themselves.

—FUNERAL OF MR. JAMES PLATTS—The funeral of Mr. James Platts, which took place on Sunday at his late home at Howlan was attended by a large concourse of people from far and near, who came to pay their respects to an honoured friend. Rev. A. F. Baker conducted the services at the house and also at the grave. Interment was in the Bloomfield Cemetery. The deceased was a prominent farmer of the district and most highly respected. His death occurred on Thusday last after a lingering illness. He leaves his widow, two sons and three daughters.—S.

Mr. Herbert Greenaway, Chief Field Commissioner of the Boy Scouts Association, was in Charlottetown over the weekend and had interviews with Provincial President L. D. Murray and Provincial Commissioner J. J. Morris and other members of the executive of the local association with regard to the development of scouting in the province.

It has been decided that the services of Mr. Greenaway be obtained for several months in the year, namely, in September of the current year and in January, February, and from May 15 to July 15 in 1937. Mr. Greenaway's great experience and knowledge of scouting will be an outstanding advantage to Scouters and Scout executives in this province.

It is understood that Mr. J. A. Styles, Chief Executive Commissioner, and Mrs. Styles, will be here for a short vacation about the middle of the present month, and will be guests of President Murray and Mrs. Murray at their summer cottage, Keppoch.

WEDNESDAY

—FUNERAL HELD MONDAY — The funeral of Arthur MacQuarrie was held on Monday afternoon on the lawn of his parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacQuarrie, Searlestown. Many relatives and friends attended in sincere sympathy with the grief-stricken parents in their terrible bereavement. Rev. Ewen MacDougall conducted the service, assisted by Rev. Mr. Organ of Bedeque United Church. The pallbearers were the young lad's chums, Lou Wright, Arthur Holland, Gilbert Bell, Alva Blackmore, Earle Hammill and James Reid. Interment was in the Church of Scotland Cemetery at Cape Traperse.—S.

Clergymen and parishioners from every part of the Charlottetown Roman Catholic diocese attended the funeral at Kelly's Cross yesterday of Rev. Francis McDonald, Summerfield pastor, who died Saturday night at the parochial residence there after a long illness.

The remains were removed from his residence Sunday evening at 4 o'clock. Service was held by His Excellency Rt. Rev. J. A. O'Sullivan. The pallbearers were: John T. White, P. L. Cash, Barneby Croken, Louis McCarthy, John Curley, L. MacCarville.

Monday morning at 10 o'clock Pontifical Requiem High Mass was celebrated by His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan, assisted by Rev. Dr. James Murphy, High Priest; Rev. Gavan Monaghan, Deacon, and Rev. Raymond MacKenzie, Sub-deacon. The funeral oration was delivered by Rev. Wm. Monaghan.

The remains were transferred at 1 o'clock to Kelly's Cross preceded by Rt. Rev. Monsignor Maurice MacDonald and Rev. Father Keefe. The pallbearers were the same as above.

Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock Pontifical Requiem High Mass was celebrated by His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan, assisted by Rev. P. McMahon, D.D., High Priest; Rev. M. Monaghan and Rev. N. Poirier as Deacons of Honor; Rev. G. P. Monaghan, Deacon of Mass; Rev. R. V. MacKenzie, Sub-deacon; Censor Bearer, Rev. Wm. Monaghan; Master of Ceremonies, Rev. W. Keefe, assisted by E. Robin; Acolytes, Rev. J. B. MacNeill and Rev. H. Croken. The pall carriers were Rt. Rev. Monsignor Chaisson, Rev. Owen Kiggins, Rev. T. Campbell, Rev. A. MacAulay, Rev. I. R. A. MacDonald, Rev. Daniel Croken. The pallbearers were Frank Flood, J. A. Bradley, J. W. McKenna, J. P. Carragher, Dominic MacDonald and Michael Duffy.

The funeral oration was delivered by Rev. Geo. Bradley, S.J. The choir, composed of Island priests under direction of Rev. F. X. Gallant, with Rev. Theo. Gallant at the organ, sang the funeral Mass.

Service at the grave was conducted by Rt. Rev. Monsignor Maurice MacDonald.

At the funeral, which was the largest ever seen at Kelly's Cross, every parish in the diocese was represented. Members of the Emerald B. I. S. attended in a body. A delegation from the Charlottetown Knights of Columbus was present also.

FUNERAL OF COL. ALLAN ON THURSDAY—The funeral of the late Col. J. R. Allan will be held from his residence at West Covehead tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon, service starting at 2.30. Interment Sherwood Cemetery. It will be a military funeral, and members of the Prince Edward Island Highland Regiment who will arrive home today from annual training at Aldershot will take part.

PROTEST "INDIVIDUAL AREA" FOR PARK—Protesting against proposed selection of an "individual area" for establishment of Prince Edawrd Island's National Park, a resolution passed by the annual convention of Cavendish district Women's Institutes suggests use of $40,000 appropriated for the purpose by the federal government for beautification of school grounds, tree planting along highways and marking of historic spots to make the province "The National Park of Canada." Another resolution passed by the convention called for stricter enforcement of the provincial prohibition and traffic laws.

Rev. W. J. Enright, C.SS.R., who has been stationed at the Redemptorist house in Charlottetown for the past six years, and who has recently been appointed Rector of a parish in Vancouver, leaves for British Columbia this morning. His place here is being taken by Rev. Daniel O'Sullivan, C.SS.R., who has been stationed in Quebec City for the past three years. Rev. Father O'Sullivan was born in Ireland and has been in Canada since he was a boy. He was ordained in New York in 1917.

Rev. Edward Walsh, Rector of Toronto, who was to have taken Rev. Father Enright's place in Charlottetown has been transferred to the Redemptorist Seminary at Woodstock, Ontario.

Rev. Father O'Sullivan is expected to arrive in Charlottetown some day this week.

Parishioners gathered in the Holy Redeemer Hall last night to say farewell to Rev. Father Enright and present him with a suitable gift.

WORLD'S RECORD COW—A 16-year-old Holstein cow, Jean Abbekerk Pontiac, owned by Mr. Wilfred R. Bovyer of Southport, P. E. I., holds the world's record for cows milked twice a day. The big bovine's Record of Performance was not kept until she was five years old, but from the time it was until August last year she produced 167,000 pounds of milk and 6,500 pounds of butter fat. Her total butter fat production is the equivalent of more than four tons of butter. The cow's 1936 record will be completed next month and it is believed it will bring her total butter fat production record to more than 7,000 pounds. "No cow in the world has equalled her in eight lactations on two or three time milking," according to G. M. Clemens, Secretary of the Canadian Holstein Friesian Association. "Only three have beaten her on eight lactations for fat in all America and four for milk," he stated. Jean's seven-year-old daughter is also going strong. She will have produced 80,000 pounds of milk before the end of August.

The death of an aged and respected resident of Green Bay occurred on Wednesday, May 27th, when Mrs. Sarah Costello, relict of the late John Costello, passed peacefully to her Eternal Reward.

The deceased was born in Kelly's Cross 86 years ago, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carragher. Early in life she married the late John Costello, the well and favorably known blacksmith of Green Bay at that time.

From this union there sprang 15 children, 6 boys and 9 girls, 4 of whom predeceased her.

In addition to the arduous task of rearing such a large family, in whose minds she inculcated the virtues of honesty, thrift and love of God, the task of doing likewise for 6 grandchildren also devolved upon her weakening but willing shoulders.

Of her it can be said, that she was a capable and conscientious wife and mother, a kindly and charitable neighbour, and a faithful member of the Catholic Church. These qualities earned for her the respect and esteem of all who had the pleasure of meeting her.

Truly, by her sudden demise, a stricken family is bereft of the kindest and most loving care of one, whom to know was to love, and Green Bay has lost one of its most respected citizens.

DOIRON—GALLANT — A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Annes Church, Hope River, on June 3rd, when Asilde Ling Annie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Gallant became the bride of Mr. Wilfred Doiron of New Orleans. Rev. Father W. V. McDonald performed the ceremony. Miss Lydie Doiron played the wedding march. The bride looked beautiful in a gown of white satin and white hat and shoes and accessories to match and carried a pearl rosary. She was attended by her sister Miss Margaret, who wore a dress of pale blue silk crepe with white hat and shoes and also carried a pearl rosary. Mr. Cornelius Fleming ably supported the groom. After the ceremony the wedding party motored to the home of the groom where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken off. After a very enjoyable day spent in visiting relatives and friends a delectable supper was served at the home of the bride. The evening was spent in music and dancing "Till wee small hours of the morning." Mr. and Mrs. Doiron will reside in New Orleans. Their many friends wish them every success in life.

The death occurred at Riverdale on May 2, 1936, of Mrs. Edward McQuaid, formerly Bridget MacNally. She was born at Hope River in 1860 and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick MacNally. From the date of her marriage fifty years ago she had been a resident of Riverdale and during her long and busy life tok an active interest in the affairs of St. Ann's Parish, Lot 65 throughout the many years until age and ill health prevented her continued activity.

She had been a sufferer of paralysis for the past five years, an affliction she bore with true Christian patience to the Divine Will of God. About two weeks previous to her death she took the flu which developed into pneumonia and despite medical attention her time to die had come. During her period of suffering she was often consoled by the Sacraments and the last rites of the Catholic Church were administered to her shortly before her death by the beloved pastor, Rev. Father Herrell.

She was an ideal Christian woman in every sense. Her strict observance of the rules of her Faith and her devotion to her Church and family left an example worthy of imitation. She had always been willing to serve others in time of need and the manner she bore her many and heavy crosses during life have left a paragon behind them.

Her husband predeceased her 47 years ago, also her two sons, Joseph W. and John E. have predeceased her.

There are left to mourn with loving memory her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Edward McQuaid, who tenderly nursed her, four grandchildren; also two brothers, Joseph, Ottawa, Ont., and Terrance of Lot 11, P. E. I.

Her funeral which was held on May 5th to St. Anne's Parish, Lot 65, where a Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. Leo Herrill. After the final absolution her body was laid to rest beside that of her two sons in the adjoining cemetery to await the glorious resurrection.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Wm. McQuaid, Jno. McManus, Jas McQuaid, Charles Curley, Jas. Clarkin, Eph. Costello.

May her soul rest in peace.

THURSDAY

In the passing of Mr. James Bismark Craswell whose death occurred very suddenly at noon on Monday, May 25, 1936, at his home in Rustico, we have lost one of our most esteemed citizens. Mr. Craswell was the only son of the late James Craswell who died many years ago. From an early age he was the only support of a widowed mother, and by hard work and courage, coupled with good management he succeeded in acquiring a comfortable home where he and his wife might enjoy their declining years, but the stern Reaper speaks in a voice that is still "Not my will but Thine be done."

He will be greatly missed by all who knew him, being one of those wonderful men who always seemed equal to every occasion and willing to serve other in time of need. His cheerful disposition and bright smile that never faded in life, brought sunshine to the hearts of many, and become of that and his many good deeds, his memory will shine as a beacon light to illuminate the pathway of those he left behind.

There passed peacefully away at his home in French River on Tuesday, June 16th, Hugh John Lamont in his 69 year. Deceased had been in failing health for a long time and bore his illness with calm resignation to the Divine will. The funeral service which was largely attended was held on June 17th and was conducted by Rev. V. E. Orsborne who spoke comforting words to the bereaved family from Ps. 103, verse 15, "As for man, his days are as grass." The hymns sung were: "The Lord's my Shepherd" and "Sleep on Beloved". Mr. Orsborne sang very effectively, "Looking This Way."

The pall bearers were Robert MacLeod, Fred Clark, Everett MacLeod, Hall Burt, Eliphalet Howatt, and Wm. E. Profitt.

The remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Geddie Memorial Cemetery. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Undertakers Cutcliffe and Anderson of Hunter River.

Besides an invalid widow, he leaves to mourn their loss, one son, Donald at home, and four daughters, namely: Jean, (Mrs. Jas. W. Cousins) Park Corner; Minnie, (Mrs. Kenneth MacLeod) French River; Emma, (Mrs. Andrew Bain) Park Corner and Maisie, (Mrs. Claude Adams) French River.

Coffin Island, Magdalen Islands, June 26th, 1936.

John A. Dunn, the last to be recovered of the six young men drowned on April 17th when their boat capsized near the entrance to Grand Entry Harbour, was laid to rest today with his five companions in death.

Thus has ended the continuous search for bodies by sorrowing relatives and sympathetic friends which began immediately after the accident—the greatest tragedy ever known in the Magdalen Islands.

All of the men were Magdalen Islanders except Orrin C. Dingwell of Bay Fortune, P.E.I. who had arrived one week before and remained the guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Clark. The others were Foster Clark, Ray Dunn, John and Aubrey Dunn (brothers) and Baxter Turnbull, all from the little settlement of Old Harry, the home of each being less than a mile from that of the others. Henry Clark, the only survivor, also lives in Old Harry.

The people of Old Harry mourn the loss of the six fine young men who have gone from their midst but have been rewarded in at least one particular and that is that the bodies should all be found and that as in death they were not divided they agreed from the first that they should all be buried together in the little cemetery of Saint Peter's-by-the-Sea.

GRADUATE OF LAW SCHOOL—Among the recent graduates of Northeastern Law School, Boston, was Emmett M. Rowe of 32 Cutter Ave. Somerville, Mass. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowe, Donaldston. His many friends wish him success.

St. Ann's Church, Hope River, P. E. I. was the scene of a very pretty wedding on the morning of Wednesday, June 24th, when Mary Patricia, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leeming Murphy, Millvale, became the bride of Louis Vincent son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mulligan, Newton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Oswald Murphy, Tignish cousin of the bride, who also celebrated the nuptial Mass. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion with flowers and potted plants. As the bridal party entered the church the Wedding March was delightfully rendered by Mrs. J. Wilfred McAleer who also presided at the organ while the choir sang suitable hymns during the ceremony.

The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of white satin, Princess style, with large picture hat, and accessories to match, and carried an arm bouquet of white lilies and maiden hair fern. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Lillian Cahill, Kildare, who wore a lovely grown of flowered chiffon with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses and maiden hair fern. Mr. Fred Ranahan ably supported the groom.

After the ceremony a delicious wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, after which the bridal party left on a short motor trip through the province returning in the evening to receive the congratulation and good wishes of a host of relatives and friends. Dancing was indulged in till the "wee sma' hous" of the morning when all departed to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Mulligan many years of happiness.

The happy young couple will reside in Newton where the groom is a prosperous farmer. The bride formerly held a lucrative position in the Provincial Building, Charlottetown where through her courteous and efficient manner she won for herself many friends. Previous to her marriage she was the recipitent of many useful gifts at a miscellaneous shower given in her honor at the home of Mrs. W. W. Murphy, New Glasgow. The Guardian joins in wishing the happy couple every happiness.

There passed away in Charlottetown on June 27th, after several months of illness, Mrs. Norma Martin relict of the late Rev. J. C. Martin in her seventy-ninth year.

She will be kindly remembered by many of the Congregations, ministered to by her husband Cardigan, Mt. Stewart, Wood Islands, Richmond Bay East.

The funeral was held on June 30th from Trinity United Church to Orwell Head where interment was made, beside her husband, who predeceased her about six years ago.

The service in the Church and at the grave, were conducted by her Pastor, Rev. Hugh Miller, assisted by the Rev. J. M. McLeod.

The L. O. A. of which Mrs. Martin was a member, conducted a beautiful and impressive service, under the direction of Mrs. Bell she was also a member of the O. E. F. represented at the funeral.

She is survived by her daughter Mrs. Bennett of New York who was present at the funeral, and two sisters in New York.

The Pall-bearers were: Major MacKenzie; Dr. Ayers; G. H. Holbrook; A. J. Houle; Lester Douglas; J. F. McLean.

The sympathy of the Community goes out to the bereaved.

LEFT ON RETURN—Mr. James Pierce of Alameda, California, who has been visiting his sisters, Mrs. James Bryenton, Charlottetown, Mrs. Alfonso Bryenton, Brackley, and other relatives and friends, left on return to his home Thursday morning. His many friends were all pleased to see him looking so well. Mr. Pierce is employed with the Santa Fe Railway Co. of Oakland, California.

AIRMEN SLIGHTLY INJURED YESTERDAY—Pilot Walter Fowler and student pilot Bruce Foster were slightly injured yesterday afternoon when they made a forced landing with a moth biplane at Warren's Mills, about five miles from Upton Airport. The student pilot, accompanied by instructor Fowler, was practicing landing in unfamiliar fields when the accident occurred. A down draft which they met when flying with throttled down motor forced a field in a small valley caused the crash. Both men were bruised and cut slightly about the face. The undercarriage and one wing of the plane were damaged and the propellor broken.

Col. J. R. Allan, former commander of Prince Edward Island 82nd Militia Regiment, who was killed by a fall at West Covehead Monday, was buried at Sherwood yesterday.

Services, held at the old Allan homestead, were attended by former officers of P. E. I. 82nd, active militia and men and a large number of friends from many parts of the Island.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Dr. R. Moorhead Legate, who was assisted by Rev. G. C. Webster and Rev A. MacKenzie. Rev. T. A. Wilson gave the sermon.

Dr. Legate officiated at the grave at Sherwood Cemetery and a Prince Edward Island Highlanders squad fired a rifle salute when the coffin was lowered into the ground. Pipers from the Highland Battalion played a lament.

Active pallbearers were L. Marshall, C. Auld, J. MacMillan, C. Robertson, R. Shaw, E. White.

In the quiet and peaceful passing of William Forbes Cameron on the 16th June 1936, Lower Montague lost one of its highly respected and much loved citizens.

Deceased was born on March 4th, 1868, at Pictou, N.S. He removed to Boston, Mass., in 1889 where for a period of twenty-five years he was employed by the New England Structual Co., East Everett. In 1925 he suffered an accident while at work, and after spending a year in hospital, removed to P. E. Island where he made his home until his death with Mr. Montague Annear.

Mr. Cameron was a man possessed with a keen, analytical mind, a great reader, and added to these was his possession of a rare sense of humor, common to those descendants of Auld Scotia, which made him one of the most interesting conversationalists, and in whose company the writer has spent many happy hours.

Although not in the best of health during the last few years, yet his cheery optimism and his bright outlook on life, always left an impression of faith, confidence, and enthusiasm on those whom he contacted.
