NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market rose to a record high and made one of the year's biggest gains Wednesday in the wake of the Democratic victory in Tuesday's elections.
 Key stocks rose from fractions to around two points generally, but there were wider gains.
 Wall Street had anticipated Democratic success but the event itself seemed to convince the investing public that the U.S. is in for greater prosperity under Eisenhower. Remarks by President Eisenhower Wednesday once again linked Democrats with free spending.
 The market charged heavily in the afternoon, putting the ticker tape behind transactions for a period of 12 minutes.
 The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose $2.20 to a record of $201.40. The gain matched last Wednesday's and was topped this year only by the rise of $2.40 Jan. 3.
 Based on the gain in the AP average, the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange rose an estimated $2,798,000,000.
 The industrial component of the AP average was up $3.30 to a record peak, the rails rose $1.60 and the utilities $0.25, both to highs for the year.
 Distillers Seagrams and Granby M. A. each rose 1/2 among Canadian issues on the New York Exchange. Canadian Pacific was up 3/4, Hudson Bay Mining advanced 1/2, Hudson Bay Mining gained 1/2 and McIntyre Porcupine rose a point. International Nickel dropped a point.
 Most Canadian issues on the American Exchange remained unchanged from Monday. Exceptions were Shawinigan, up 1/2, Molybdenum up 1/2 and Richwell down 1-1/2.
