JULY 14, 1896.

THE NEW GOVERNMENT.

We sincerely hope that the honour and prosperity of this country will be guarded and promoted by the new administration announced to-day. It will be noted that Mr. Laurier has not begun his promised economical reform in his own cabinet. The Cabinet is as big as ever, and if it be true that the controllers are each to be $2000 added to their salaries, it will be so much the more expensive. We are bound, however, to believe that the promised economy will be practiced, with double force, in other directions. The taking in of three Provincial Prime Ministers will, we presume, add materially to Mr. Laurier's strength in Council. How it will be regarded by men of ability who have all these years supported Mr. Laurier when in the cool shades of opposition is another matter. To be supplanted is not pleasant. We can imagine that Lister, Clariton, Casey, McMullen, Somerville and others who have so long stood beside their leader and cried aloud against the late Government and Protection are not happy in being ignored now that the victory for which they fought, so valiantly has been won. Still, it must be admitted that Messrs. Mowatt, Fielding and Blair, having used all the power and influence of their respective Provincial Governments to gain the Liberal triumph in Federal politics, have strong claims upon the Liberal Leader. The matter is not one of general interest, but the friends of those who have been ignored must feel sore, and it will tax Mr. Laurier's art to satisfy them and yet be economical. If our Mr. L. H. Davies had been left out, and Mr. Peters taken in, we should have felt that a wrong had been done; and that is what is felt by the partisans of those who have been left out. "Hope is theirs, by fancy fed." We have no doubt that they will, for a time at least, be constrained to silence their emotions in the pleasing expectation of benefits yet to come. There can be no doubt that Mr. Peters has an eye to the future, and so also may we be sure that Mr. Lister and others of the disappointed. That Mr. Fielding has given the important portfolio which belonged to Sir Richard Cartwright goes to show that Mr. Laurier has decided to adhere to the Protective principle in the tariff. It will be remembered that Mr. Fielding was the man elected by the sovereign majority to take Nova Scotia out of the Union; but Nova Scotia is still in the Union, and Mr. Fielding has ever since been in power. Mr. Fielding has proved that he is able to disobey the mandate of the majority, and still hold on to office. He is, therefore, the very man to be Finance Minister in a Cabinet which intends to repudiate its pre-election pledges and adhere to the National Policy established by those whose places the Liberals have taken.

It is a somewhat suspicious circumstance that Mr. Tarte has been taken into the Cabinet and the Hon. David Mills left out. Still we shall hope for the best, and will judge the new Ministry by its acts.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. It is rumored that some of the most enthusiastic of the silver Democrats have had the gold filling taken out of their teeth and silver substituted therefor. As the Mail and Empire remarks, there is nothing like consistency in a politician.

Halifax Herald: The import prices of ordinary grades of tea for several years past in England have been from 23 pence to 31 pence per pound. The British duty on that tea has been and is 4 pence per pound, that is the duty is equal to an average value of about 110 per cent. That is how "free trade" as it is in England" treats the poor man.

A few years ago Mr. Tarte gave the following estimate of Mr. Laurier: "He has a character, venerated on the outside. Scratch a little and you will discover the mediocrity within. He is not learned; his speeches show it. His thought never rises above the plane of his prejudices. He never will be faithful to what he does not possess—principles, sound convictions or patriotism."

Now Mr. Tarte is a member of Mr. Laurier's cabinet!

At the present time Great Britain stands lowest among civilized nations in the number of acres under grain for each one hundred inhabitants, and also at the foot of the list in respect to the number of pounds of grain produced for each inhabitant; the United States standing, in both cases, first. The number of acres under grain in the United States for each 100 inhabitants is 230, in Russia 190, in the Argentine 150, in Denmark 150, in Roumania 140, in Canada 130, Austria and France 100, in Germany 75, Italy 70, in Belgium 40, in England 26.

Progress of L.E.B., a Quebec Laurierite and Mercierite organ, discourses on the Quebec victory as follows: "The province of Quebec has pronounced itself, and has enrolled itself under the banner of Laurier, that he may restore their schools to the Catholics of Manitoba within the least possible delay. This will average the detractors of our race. It would be a mistake to conclude from the elections that the bishops advise has lost its influence. Nothing of the sort is true. The electors held exactly to the instructions of the bishops, voting for the candidate of their choice from the moment that that candidate promised to work for the restoration of separate schools in Manitoba. But this was not all, the national sentiment was declared in an unmistakable manner, and a French Canadian stands at the head of confederation."

Corra Belle Fellow, whose marriage to Chaska, a Sioux, created a sensation some years ago, has been deserted and left in destitution by her Indian husband. She came of an excellent Washington family, but fell in love with Chaska while teaching on a reservation near Pierre, S. D., and married him in spite of the opposition of her family. They acquired a fortune by exhibiting themselves in dime museums throughout the country, but he has squandered all of her money and disappeared with a woman of his own race, leaving his wife with four children to support.

FARMERS' AND DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

Matters pertaining to Dairying Discussed—Officers Elected. The Farmers' and Dairymen's Association met in the Young Liberals Club Room this forenoon, and was called to order by J. C. Underhay, Esq., President. Among those present were the following prominent farmers and dairymen:—J. C. Underhay, Bay Fortuna; Albert Fraser, Red Point; James McInnis and James McLean, St. Peter's; James A. Shaw, Thomas and Robert Ford, Milton; Wm. Patrick, Hampton; Walter Simpson, Bay View; John Podmore, representing a Glasgow cheese house; W. W. Hubbard, Editor of the-operative Farmer, Sussex; and Rev. J. C. McMillan, Cardigan.

The first business was the election of officers and resulted as follows: President—J. C. Underhay, Bay Fortuna. Secretary—James McInnis, St. Peter's. The President then addressed the meeting, explaining its objects.

Mr. Patrick, of Hampton, opened a discussion on the best manner of the cheese-making and disposing of their cheese. He was in favor of shipping them direct to the Old Country firms, thus dispensing with middle men.

APPALLING RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

Twenty-seven Killed and Forty Wounded, Many of Them Fatally. OMAHA, Neb., July 12.—An appalling accident to an excursion train occurred early this evening at Logan, Iowa, 35 miles from this city, on the Chicago and North-western, in which 27 persons, living in this city, Coonrod Blinn, Missouri Valley, and intervening points, were killed and 40 injured. Many of the injured will, in all probability, die before morning. The train consisted of fifteen coaches, loaded down with members of the Omaha Pacific Pioneers' Association, Omaha their families and their friends, who had spent the day at Logan, Iowa. About 7 o'clock the journey homeward commenced. The train had hardly passed the limits of the city and was turning a curve when the engineer blew the whistle and the train came to a halt. The excursion had been run into by a fast freight known as No. 25, and all the coaches were derailed. The scene which followed is indescribable. Both engines and first passenger coaches were demolished. The shrieks of the women and screams of the injured and dying of the crash of the heavy machinery and the screeching of escaping steam from the wrecked locomotives. The engineer and fireman of the excursion train disappeared after the collision.

TRANSPLANTING LOBSTERS.

The Dominion Government's Experiment Gives Promise of Success. VANCOUVER, B. C., July 11.—Attached to yesterday's Pacific Express was a special freight car containing the shipment of live lobsters and oysters which have been sent out by the Dominion fisheries department to be transplanted in the waters in the hope of propagating them. The journey from Halifax occupied exactly a week, and Mr. Stuyver, who is in charge, states that his live freight arrived in much better condition than he had expected. The temperature of the car was kept at forty-four degrees by means of ice, and fresh salt water was shipped from here a few days ago to meet the car. The shipment consisted of six hundred lobsters and eight hundred oysters, but owing to the jolting of the car about a hundred lobsters died. A large number of lobster eggs and some bladders for transplanting in the Fraser river were also brought in the car. The oysters are in fine condition. The officials leave to-morrow by steamer with the crustacean charges in a cruise up the coast to select a suitable spot to plant them. This will be enclosed with the report until it is seen whether the experiment is a success or not.

A BICYCLE EXPRESS.

How the News of the Chicago Convention was Distributed. CHICAGO, July 11.—One of the features of newspaper work of the National Convention was the manner in which the bicycle service was employed by the Associated Press. The bicycle messengers and reports of the convention during the night sessions to the main office of the Western Union Telegraph Company down town. Three expert bicycle messengers were employed, Alford H. Shugler, M. H. Beebe, and W. W. Phelps. The men rode in relays similar to that of the pony express employed to deliver the United States mails over the plains in former times. The first rider conveyed the report as far as Fifty-fifth street and Michigan avenue, where it was delivered to a fresh rider, who proceeded with it to Thirty-first street, there it was delivered to a third rider, who conveyed it to the Western Union, where through pneumatic tubes it was delivered to the various newspaper offices of the city. A practical test of this system proved its great efficiency, and the young gentleman so employed won encomiums for the promptness with which they performed their work.

STRECK BY LIGHTNING.

The Summer correspondent of the Guardian writes: During the thunder storm last Friday a house belonging to Mr. Charles Rogers, Alberton, and occupied by Mr. Albert Ford and his family, was struck by lightning and damaged to the extent of about $200. One door was torn off its hinges, and a cot, out of which a little child had been removed a few minutes previously, was shattered. Although there were eleven persons in the house at the time, no one was hurt.

NEWS NOTES.

The Boston Standard, the A. P. A. organ, has suspended publication. At the Democratic Convention a day or two ago, Sewell was nominated for the vice-presidency on the sixth ballot. At Portland, Me., on Sunday the thermometer registered as high as 96 degrees and not a breath of wind relieved the suffering city until late in the evening. For the whole of Egypt on Saturday there were reported 362 new cases of cholera and 321 deaths, several of the deaths being in the Egyptian army at Wady-Halfa. The Italian cabinet which was formed by the Marquis di Rudini four months ago has resigned. King Humbert has charged the Marquis di Rudini with the formation of a new ministry.

A despatch to the Times from Lima, Peru, says that the government has declared Viquitos, in the province of Loreto, which was the seat of the revolution under Zumbato, open to commerce again.

The tars on board the two men-of-war now at Montreal are being handsomely treated. Mayor Wilson Smith made a banquet for himself among the men by supplying to each ship daily a large amount of the London Chronicle, commenting on the tragic and unendurable mess in which South African affairs have drifted. I understand that the government has taken over the civil and military administration of Rhodesia.

The army work has made its appearance in some sections of Ontario, and iron fields and oats are being devoured. The worst is first appeared about a week ago, and now number millions. Farmers are greatly alarmed.

The British steamer Emerald, from Newcastle for Valencia, has arrived at Cherbourg in a badly damaged condition, as the result of a collision with the steamer Woodloomook. It is supposed that the Woodloomook foundered. No lives lost. A large number of the Emerald's crew were killed, the French cable explorer, M. Martel, the French cable explorer, and to examine those lines thoroughly. He has taken a number of portable ladders, telephones and electric lights for cable exploration.

Advices from Kingston, Jamaica, state that an unknown number of persons were killed and more were wounded in an accident on Saturday on the American section of the railway extension. Some Americans were among the victims. The details have not yet been reported.

Fish Creek and Batoche are places made memorable by the conflicts between Canadian volunteers and Canadian rebels. At these places the total vote for Mr. Laurier at the late election was 54 and for Mr. Mc Kay 13. At Batoche, Bie's stronghold, the new Premier's majority was 31 in a total vote of 41. That musket Mr. Laurier would have carried if he had been on the banks of the Saskatchewan in 1885 brought down as many votes as the rebels brought down volunteers.

Torture and mutilation are in full swing in the prisons of Servia. According to published reports, confirmed by foreign consular dispatches, a medical officer of the name of Maslac, has been roasted to death at Pozegza by the prison authorities, while in a town called Pozarevatz a couple of political offenders have been suspended to rafters by their hands and feet.

From Cuba General Bernal reports that his command had a combat lasting three hours, with 1500 rebels, near Rensales, province of Pinar del Rio. The rebels were entrenched in strong positions and made a desperate resistance. Troops made repeated bayonet charges, led by General Bernal personally. At last an attack was made with the assistance of artillery and the insurgent positions were captured. Spanish losses are said to have been slight. One officer was wounded. The rebels left 31 dead on the field and carried many of the wounded in their retreat, including Lera, their leader.

A news agency which circulated a report that a special envoy had arrived in Berlin from Caracas, entrusted by the Venezuela Government with authority to negotiate with the British Government a settlement of the boundary dispute between Great Britain and Venezuela, asserts that the envoy is General Pietri, and that he is accredited to both the Berlin and Madrid Governments. According to the agency, General Pietri will present his credentials immediately upon the return of the Kaiser from his Nordland trip, and in the meantime will go to Madrid.

It is announced from London that the government has got into a muddle over the Irish land bill which is acceptable to neither to the nationalists nor to the Ulsterites as it stands. Gerald Balfour, the chief secretary for Ireland, has tried to conciliate both parties by amendments, with the only result of increasing the discontent among both nationalists and Ulsterites. It is understood that T. W. Russell, liberal member for the south division of Tyrone, threatens to oppose the measure if the government persists in the amendment, and it seems likely the government will have to withdraw the bill altogether.

FRASER AND JONES ARE IGNORED.

Writes for the Bye-Elections—A Batch of Queen's Counsels.

OTTAWA, July 14. The members of the new Cabinet were yesterday sworn in. The Cabinet is composed as follows: Premier and President of Council—Hon. W. Laurier.

Minister of Justice—Sir Oliver Mowat. Minister of Trade and Commerce—Sir R. J. Cartwright. Minister of Finance—Hon. W. S. Fielding.

Minister of Marine and Fisheries—Hon. L. H. Davies. Minister of Railways and Canals—Hon. A. G. Blair. Minister of Public Works—Hon. J. I. Tarte. Postmaster-General—Hon. W. Mulock. Minister of Agriculture—Hon. Sidney Fisher. Controller of Customs—Hon. Wm. Patterson. Controller of Inland Revenue—Sir Henry Joly.

Minister of Militia—Hon. F. W. Borden. Secretary of State—Hon. R. W. Scott. Solicitor-General—Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick. Hon. Mr. Dobell and Hon. F. G. O'Brien, Ministers without portfolio.

A Minister of the Interior has not yet been appointed. That office will probably be filled by a western man.

It is stated that the Controllers of Customs and Inland Revenue are to be abolished and the Controllers given full Cabinet positions.

It will be noted that in forming the new cabinet, D. C. Fraser, the "Guysboro king" who stamped the Northwest and British Columbia with Mr. Laurier, and Hon. A. G. Jones, the old Liberal war-horse of Halifax, are both ignored, and Hon. Mr. Fielding, an entirely new man, is taken in as the representative of Nova Scotia. None of the Liberal members elected in Nova Brunswick, 27; Nova Scotia, 6; P. E. Island, 2; Manitoba, 3; The Territories, 3; British Columbia, 2.

Writes for the bye-elections in the constituencies vacated by the ministers will be issued to-day. Nomination will take place on Thursday, July 30th, and polling on August 6.

About the last act of the late ministry was to recommend a number of barristers in different parts of the country for appointment as Queen's Counsels. The total number approved by His Excellency is 173, as follows: Ontario, 92; Quebec, 36; New Brunswick, 27; Nova Scotia, 6; P. E. Island, 2; Manitoba, 3; The Territories, 3; British Columbia, 2.

LAURIER'S NEW CABINET.

What is Thought of it by Halifax Newspapers.

Comments of the Halifax Herald and the Chronicle.

HALIFAX, July 14. Commenting on the new Cabinet, the Chronicle (Liberal) says: "The new Government of Canada is probably the strongest Government, Conservative or Liberal, that Canada has had since Confederation. In saying this we do not overlook the fact that the first Conservative Government after Confederation and the Mackenzie Government included some very able men. The people of Canada may rest assured that the men whom Premier Laurier has called into power will give this Canada of ours a faithful, honest, clean and efficient administration of public affairs, and will devote themselves so earnestly and patriotically to the promotion of the public weal that they will win the unstinted confidence and admiration of their political opponents."

The Herald (Liberal Conservative) remarks: "Mr. Laurier, after much searching among his friends elected to Parliament, and among the governments and legislatures of the provinces, has so far succeeded in gathering together a batch of men more or less attracted by what Mr. Beaugrand calls 'the Treasury coup'; that he feels able to announce the personnel of the new ministry albeit not yet complete. For though the Premier has searched his party high and low and far and wide he has not yet found a man for the portfolio of the Interior. Three very important departments are given to three new men, Tarte, Blair and Fielding, and it is certain an awful trio to put in control of the leading departments of the administration and expect clean and economical government. Fielding's record in Nova Scotia has been characterized by waste and extravagance and by the rolling up of a debt burden of three or four millions of dollars upon the province, a large portion of the borrowed money being so used as to debauch the electorate and keep his party in power. But so rapidly did he run the political race course and bring his province to direct taxation for pro-union purposes, that in the course of a dozen years he felt that his time was come to leave this constituency and local politics, if he wished to escape being sent out by the fiat of the people. Mr. Blair's course in New Brunswick has been little, if any, better. It is more mention of Tarte's name brings before the mind all the corruption of the Mercier administration, with himself as a participant in all the arts and ready to put a dagger into the Mercier regime at Ottawa. To expect clean and economical government from such men might be considered a piece of great faith, but it would not be much evidence of wisdom. Mr. Mackenzie once wrote a graphic account of how he defended the étaiel, and how a weak minister would fail. Mr. Laurier has not even attempted to try his strength. He has rather handed over the keys of the castle."
