

Local and Other Items.

A PUBLIC MEETING is being held at Montague Bridge.

THERE was no business before the Stipendiary Magistrate to-day.

CAPTAIN McRAE's company of volunteers are practising with the rifle at Kensington Range.

Don't forget the sale of China, Glass, and Crockery-ware, to-day, at the store lately occupied by John LeLacheur. Great bargains may be expected, as the Stock will be sold without reserve. Sale commences at 11 o'clock.

THE case of McKinnon vs. McKinnon, an action of ejectment, is still pending in the Supreme Court. There will probably be a decision in the case this evening. The next case is Miss Annie Matheson vs. McKinley, for breach of promise. It will be called to-morrow morning.

THE Methodist Sabbath School Picnic, which was held at Beech Grove to-day was, in every respect, a success. The train, which left this city, was crowded with children of the school and their parents. The grounds selected for the Picnic were well adapted, and a very pleasant day was spent.

In yesterday's report of the City Council proceedings we stated that Councillor Byrne was the seconder of Mr. Morris' resolution ordering the release of Wm. Potter, a person confined in jail for selling liquor without license. By an examination of the Minutes of Council, we find that the seconder was Councillor Hooper. When the vote was taken Councillor Byrne was in one of the ante-chambers.

AN action of assault was tried before Theoph. DesBrisay, Esq., on Tuesday. It was brought by Mr. Dugald McEachern, of West River, against Neil McFadyen, Angus McFadyen, Alex. McFadyen, Angus Darrach and Alex. C. Shaw. The assault was committed on the 12th of April last. Several witnesses were examined, after which the action was withdrawn by the plaintiff submitting to nonsuit, with a view of ending the case in the Supreme Court.

The steamer Worcester, which arrived here last evening, had on board the following passengers:—Capt. Chas. A. Sawyer, Miss Powers, Annie McLeod, A. J. Rich and wife, Katie McSwain, Patrick Bailey, Bridget McGrath, Annie Doolee, Mary Pheely, Miss Campbell, Mrs. Driver and three children, Mary Storehouse, Mary Shepherd, Miss Smith, Isabella McGilvray, Miss McKeen, Mrs. George Wier, Minnie Brown, Deliah Trainor, Flora McLean, Miss Bird, Mrs. McDonald, Ellen Koughan, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. P. L. Grady, Mary M. Feehan, Miss Flynn, G. W. Griffith, Wm. Lundy, John Barry, Lizzie A. Moan, Annie McLean, Mrs. Philbert, Miss D. McLeod.

Troops for the Twelfth July.

OTTAWA, July 8.—A requisition having been forwarded to the Militia Department by the Magistrates of Montreal for sufficient troops to preserve order in that city on the 12th, orders have been issued for the calling out of that number of corps considered strong enough to suppress any attempt at disorder.

LATER!

MONTREAL, July 8.—The Government, on the requisition of six magistrates, has directed Sir Selby Smyth to concentrate two thousand soldiers here on the 11th, under canvas, fully prepared to assist in preserving peace on the 12th. The Catholics are greatly incensed at the authority being taken out of Mayor Beaudry's hands. Great anxiety prevails, and it is believed that, notwithstanding all precautions, trouble will take place.

SECOND DESPATCH.

MONTREAL, July 8.—11.30 p. m.—A great mass meeting—in fact, a gigantic demonstration of Irish and French Canadian Catholics was held to-night in Chaboulez Square in support of the stand taken by Mayor Beaudry in reference to the Orange procession. The number present were not less than eight or ten thousand. Several strong addresses were delivered in English and French, upholding the Mayor, and resolutions in conformity therewith were passed with great enthusiasm. The most singular fact is that neither advertisement in newspaper nor placard in the streets announced the meeting. It was only the evening before it became known, that the power was taken out of the Mayor's hands. The people sprung up as by magic, and the assembly was the largest probably ever seen here. Mayor Beaudry has not returned home yet, but is expected to-night. Another meeting will be held to-morrow night to receive the Mayor's report of the result of his mission to Ottawa.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in. Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means for enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worried out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct cause of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10 cents. Try it.

The Congress.

The Occupation of Cyprus.

Socialism, Etc., Etc.

(Special Despatch to Examiner.)

BERLIN, July 9.

It is believed the Congress has decided that, while Russia receives Batoum as a free port, the territory principally inhabited by the Lazise, is excepted from the Russian control. In return, the British Plenipotentiaries accepted the substitution of the expression essentially commercial, instead of exclusively commercial, as applied to the port of Batoum.

Congress, in to-day's sitting, disposed of several additional frontier questions of a minor character, and arrived at a satisfactory settlement relative to Batoum.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 9.

A memorandum by Prince Peter, of Oldenburg, condemns universal military service as the cause of socialism and general discontent.

ROME, July 9.

The Dirello, a Ministerial organ, does not think European opinion will view the occupation of Cyprus in a very friendly manner.

The Twelfth in Montreal!

MASS MEETING.

The Orange Hall Attacked!

Special despatch to Examiner:

MONTREAL, July 9.

Another mass meeting was held on Champ de Mars to-night in support of Mayor Beaudry's policy, which was attended by about fifteen hundred persons, chiefly French Canadians. Resolutions endorsing the Mayor's conduct were passed, and some fiery speeches delivered by Aldermen Thebaud and Laberg, and several others.

When the meeting broke up, a section passed through the city singing. On passing the Orange Hall, on St. James Street, they demolished the windows with stones, but there was no opposition, and everything became quiet afterwards.

Nobel's Last Statement.

BERLIN, July 8.

Dr. Nobel has sufficiently recovered to be several times examined. It is doubtful whether he will survive his injuries. He says he plotted the crime alone, but communicated his intentions to some acquaintances who did not oppose it. His present statement is believed.

A Treaty Between England and Turkey.

LONDON, July 8.

In referring to the new treaty between England and Turkey the Telegraph's correspondent says: "This defensive treaty does not necessarily come within the scope of the deliberations of Congress. It is an independent contract between the powers concerned, the validity of which could not be called in question except at the cost of war. Arrangements will, however, be announced to Congress. The position at Cyprus will give England absolute control over the Euphrates Valley. A railway having this object in view will be constructed. No further Russian encroachment in this direction will be possible so far as Asia is concerned. England and Turkey will practically form one power."

LONDON, July 8.

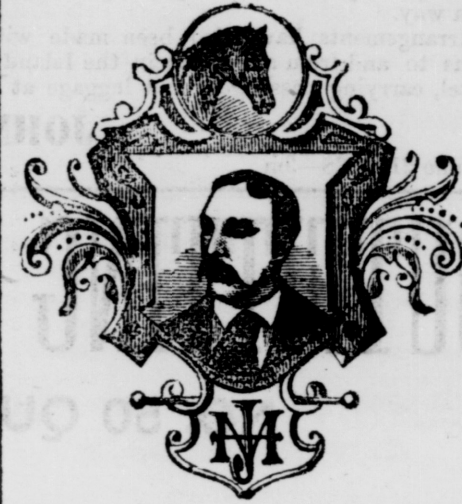

A Berlin despatch states that the Treaty will be signed on Saturday next. Negotiations between Austria and Turkey, relative to the occupation of Bosnia and Herzegovina have commenced. The Turks desire Austria to sign a document acknowledging the Sultan's title to the Province. The Russians estimate their total war expenditures at 788,000 roubles.

The United States military attaché, with the Russian forces near Constantinople, has now been ordered to remain there, which is construed to indicate that a resumption of hostilities is anticipated.

The Batoum question is virtually settled. Prince Gortschakoff declared at Saturday's sitting that the Czar, as a proof of his desire to satisfy legitimate interests, had resolved to make Batoum a free port. Beaconsfield announced that England could not be satisfied with the Czar's reassuring resolve. Salisbury warmly advocated the claims of the Lazise to be protected from annexation, and private negotiations are proceeding on the subject. Russia objecting to have warlike independent people in the immediate neighborhood of her new possessions. There are also some slight difficulties in regard to the dismantlement of the fortifications, the Russians claiming that some of them are natural features of the ground.
