Soviet Leadership Switch Seen Possible Dark News

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press Special Writer

Removal of Nikita S. Khrushchev from top Soviet positions has the look of a desperate attempt by powerful Conservative forces to prevent the world Communist movement from falling apart.

The Chinese Communists will cheer this development. Khrushchev has been their prime target, but the world Communist split will be far from healed by this move.

Any healing will be at great cost to Soviet policies of relaxation.

There is some indication that forces in the party led by Mikhail Suslov are behind this development. If that is so, it can prove to be gloomy news both for the Soviet people and the West.

The removal of Khrushchev does not look like a complete route. Indeed, it is questionable that he put up stiff opposition to stepping aside.

NO RELAXATION?

The appointment of Leonid Brezhnev to head the party seems to indicate at least some of Khrushchev's policies will be continued, but the appointment of Alexei Kosygin as premier does not promise relaxed relations with the United States.

His appointment has the look of a sop to the Soviet people. Kosygin's name once was connected with consumer industry back in Stalin's days.

But Kosygin is likely to be a pale substitute for Khrushchev as premier.

What appears to have happened is that Khrushchev stepped on important toes; Khrushchev carried his revision of dogma too far and clashed with powerful forces including elements of the military.

Only recently Khrushchev—who has been blamed for evidences of creeping capitalism—himself suggested the revolutionary step of giving production priority in the economy to consumer industry instead of heavy industry. This would have reversed a policy sanctified by 40 years, and would have indicated downgrading of military production.

WENT TOO FAR

That was where Khrushchev may have gone too far.

On the party side, Khrushchev's policies obviously were weakening the hold of the Soviet party on Communists abroad who have been asserting their independence. In addition his policies at home have been responsible for an upsurge in Soviet popular opinion which has been exerting pressures on the Kremlin. This meant that the party's authority at home was being weakened while it was starting at the prospect of a splintering of the movement around the world.

This stepped on the toes of Conservative elements remaining from the Stalin days.

The Communist party probably cannot go all the way back to Stalinsim. But there are indications in all this that there is a tightening up in prospect—and that can be bad news both for Russians and the West.

VISIT PLANNED

LONDON (CP) — Canadian High Commissioner Lionel Chevrier will pay a courtesy call on the 4th Canadian Infantry Brigade group at Soest, Germany, Oct. 15-16, Canada House announced Wednesday. A spokesman said the trip is "just routine."

French Group Leader Praises Queen's Address

QUEBEC (CP)—A St. Jean Baptiste Society Leader has termed Queen Elizabeth's address to the Quebec legislature magnificent and deplored the fact it was pushed into the background by police action during last weekend's royal visit to Quebec City.

Dr. Lucien Boulet, president of the Quebec diocesan section of the French - language patriotic society, told about 500 delegates to the annual meeting the Queen's address amounted to "a royal gift."

Dr. Boulet said the Queen's words are not only a magnificent and subtle support "of our just demands," but also a reminder of the need for justice and mutual respect in English-French relations in Canada.

Mr. Boulet suggested the St. Jean Baptiste Society organize meetings with leaders in English - speaking Canada to acquaint them with the principal grievances or requirements of French - speaking Canadians, the goal being to increase mutual understanding.

Quake, Test Coincided

WASHINGTON (AP) — By a bizarre coincidence, a fairly large earthquake occurred in the Kurile Islands 1,000 miles northeast of Japan Friday at virtually the same time as the Chinese nuclear explosion.

The timing was so close U.S. seismologists thought the earth-shocks might have been the result of the nuclear blast.

Later reports convinced them however, that the shocks came from an earthquake in the islands at least 2,000 miles from the Chinese test site.

Work Planned At Louisbourg

OTTAWA (CP) — A winter works program for the restoration of the fortress at Louisbourg with a total expenditure of $219,000 was announced here.

Work on the program is to start as soon as possible and continue until March 31, 1965. The announcement by the northern affairs and labor departments said the program means 13,202 man-days of employment. Additional employees will be hired and continuous work will be provided for others who might have been laid off, the announcement said.

3♣	Pass	3♦	Pass
5NT	Pass	6♦	Pass
6NT

Opening lead—king of spades.

Here is an interesting hand played by France and Belgium during the European championships last year.

With Theron South for France,, and Desrousseaux, North, the bidding went as shown. Two clubs was an artificial bid and two hearts was an artificial reply, showing one ace. Three clubs and three diamonds were natural bids, but five notrump was conventional. requesting partner to bid seven diamonds if he had two of the three top diamond honors.

When North couldn't oblige and responded six diamonds, Theron decided to bid six notrump rather than risk a possible bad trump break at a diamond slam.

This turned out to be good judgment, since six diamonds would surely have been defeated. Theron also had to play the hand exceptionally well to make six notrump.

He won the spade lead and cashed five clubs and the A-K-Q of hearts, reducing the dummy to the nine of hearts and A-J-9 of diamonds. In his own hand his remaining cards were the ten of spades and K-7-4 of diamonds.

Gauging the situation perfectly, Theron played a diamond to the ace and returned the nine of hearts, discarding a spade on it. East took the heart, but was then forced to lead a diamond away from the queen. Theron played low and thus made the slam.

Of course, six clubs would have been a sounder contract, and even seven clubs could have been made— by means, of a squeeze.

To make the grand slam, declarer would have to win the spade lead, ruff a spade, and cash five clubs and three hearts, keeping in dummy the nine of hearts and A-J of diamonds. East would have to come down to three cards on this series of plays and would find it impossible to keep both the ten of hearts and the Q-10-8 of diamonds

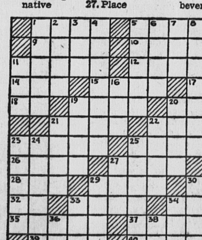
Saturday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
