

THE DAILY EXAMINER,

JULY 12, 1881.

Sir Hector's Visit.

The people of Prince Edward Island (irrespective of Party) will, we think, be pleased at the visit of the Minister of Public Works. To see a Minister so deeply interested in the affairs of his office, and so energetic and painstaking as to travel thousands of miles in order that he may have a personal knowledge of them, is of itself very pleasing. But Sir Hector also comes to us as the representative of a great race—one of the component parts of this Canada of ours,—and as such we are glad to receive and welcome him.

The Bench and Bar.

The Patriot is anxious that we should come out strong against the character of our Judges—bring some definite charge against them. Such is not our intention.

Our contention, briefly stated is this: The Court should not do or permit to be done any act calculated to impair the confidence of the public in it. The pleading of sons before their fathers, and brothers before their brothers is such an act; therefore such pleading should not be permitted.

If the Patriot can show that this proposition is not sound, we shall apologize to the Court for what we have done.

Sir Hector Languevin.

HIS ARRIVAL—THE GUEST OF THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR—INSPECTS THE PUBLIC BUILDINGS—VISITS SOURIS—AND GOES TO SUMMERSIDE THIS EVENING.

SIR HECTOR LANGUEVIN, accompanied by his son, Mr. L. A. F. Languevin, Mr. McKay, Private Secretary; Mr. F. H. Perley, C. E., and Mr. Thomas Scott, Chief Architect for the Dominion Government, arrived here in the steamer St. Lawrence, last evening, about half-past seven. On his arrival he was welcomed by Mr. Brecken, M. P., and Major Peake, Aide-de-camp to His Honor the Lieutenant Governor. A large number of gentlemen (among them several of our leading citizens) were congregated on the wharf; and as he landed three hearty cheers were given.

Sir Hector at once drove to Government House, where, at half-past eight o'clock, he received a deputation from the City Council, headed by His Worship the Mayor, who presented the following

ADDRESS:

To the Hon. Sir Hector Languevin, C. B. K., C. M. G., Minister of Public Works of the Dominion of Canada.

SIR.—We have much pleasure in welcoming you to our city. Though personally unknown to us, we are glad to see you as the minister of one of the most important departments in our civil service. May we be permitted to add our congratulations upon the honor recently conferred on you by our Gracious Sovereign.

We trust that this, your first visit to our shores will, in every way, be pleasant to you; it ensures to us that though isolated to a great extent from the chief centres of Dominion trade and commerce, we are not overlooked and that our welfare and interests are remembered.

We are glad that your tour of inspection will enable you to see our Province, when the fruitfulness of its soil and the industry of its people will be most apparent, perhaps nowhere more visible than in those settlements where the French Acadian has worked as a loyal subject of our beloved Queen.

Signed on behalf of the citizens of Charlottetown.

Sir Hector, in reply, expressed his thanks for the address which had been presented him. It was now seventeen years since he visited this Island, having been one of a deputation amongst whom was the late lamented Thomas D'Arcy McGee. He briefly narrated the circumstances in connection with that visit, and felt fully convinced that the consolidation of the different Provinces of Canada had been productive of good, and that a bright future was in store for this Dominion. As the Premier was absent in England, and it was necessary that the members of the Cabinet be present at Ottawa, his stay, therefore, would be very brief. If he could in any way do anything for the benefit of P. E. Island he would happily do so. He assured the gentlemen present that the interests of this Province would not be overlooked. He had just completed a hurried tour through the other Maritime Provinces, and had now arrived at the most remote portion of the Dominion with the exception of British Columbia.

He did not wish to be looked upon as a Cabinet Minister, but only as a Canadian; for he felt just as much at home on this Island as he would were he in his native city. He thanked the gentlemen for the reference made to the honor lately conferred upon him by Her Majesty. He did not, however, recognize it as a personal honor, but as a mark of respect shown his race. After he had again thanked the deputation for their considerate kindness, they withdrew.

At ten o'clock this forenoon, Sir Hector, accompanied by Hon. W. W. Sullivan, Mr. Brecken, M. P., Major Parker, Mr. E. Haviland and others, commenced his official inspection of the Dominion buildings in this Province, and during the forenoon he also visited the Provincial Buildings.

He afterwards lunched with Mr. E. J. Hodgson, Q. C.; and at one o'clock to-day he left, by special train, for Souris. He will return this evening, and purposes leaving for Summerside and Miscouche.

THE "CHARYBIS."—The Toronto Globe's Ottawa correspondent learns upon good authority that the wooden brig Charybdis, recently presented to Canada by the Imperial Government as a training ship for boys, sailed from Plymouth Sound for St. John, N. B., on Thursday, June 16th.

Hon. Neal Dow and Mr. Powell in Zion Church.

THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC SHOULD BE SUPPRESSED ON THE GROUND THAT IT IS A PUBLIC NUISANCE—ALCOHOL NOT A FOOD, AND AS A MEDICINE NOT SUPERIOR TO OTHER DRUGS.

LAST evening Hon. Neal Dow and Mr. Powell addressed a large audience in Zion Church, Rev. Dr. Murray, occupied the chair.

Mr. Dow argued that the liquor traffic is inconsistent with the public good; that therefore liquor shops should be suppressed by law, just as lottery shops and gambling houses are suppressed; and that there is the greater reason for putting them down, in that they do much more harm than all other public nuisances combined. The argument that because people like liquor, liquor shops should be permitted, he met by the fact, that though some people like to go to gaming houses, yet the State has no hesitation in suppressing them; and if that is right the suppression of the liquor shops is right also. He declared the Maine Liquor Law to be a success from the beginning. Proportionately to the population and the other States of the Union, the cost of the liquor drunk by Maine, if prohibition had not prevailed, would not be annually $26,000,000. In point of fact, the cost of all the liquor smuggled into the State and consumed illicitly, is not more than $500,000. He quoted the opinion of Mr. Secretary Blaine, that Maine has, during the past twenty years, been the most prosperous State in the Union. Mr. Dow illustrated his statements by many anecdotes; and his address was exceedingly interesting.

Mr. Powell contended that alcohol is of no value whatever as a food, and that as a medicine, other drugs will produce effects equally or more satisfactory. He cited authorities such as Dr. Benjamin Ward Richardson, the celebrated scientist; Sir H. Thompson (Physician to the Prince of Wales), Sir William Gull, Dr. James Edwards, the record of the London Temperance Hospital, in which alcohol has never been administered but to one patient—and he died,—and in which the percentage of cures has been greater than in any other hospital of the Mother Country.

The Co-Adjutor Bishop of Fredericton.

CONSECRATION SERVICE.

The Consecration of the Rev. Dr. Kingdon, as Co-Adjutor Bishop of the Diocese of Fredericton took place on Sunday morning in Christ's Church Cathedral. The edifice was completely filled, many being obliged to stand. At 11 a. m. the beautiful chimes of the Cathedral ceased to peal forth, a long procession of clergy and students entered the western door, and proceeded to the centre aisle to the chancel, in the following order: Six Divinity students, two Deacons, 80 priests, Rev. Dr. Kingdon the new Bishop elect, and the Bishops of Nova Scotia, Quebec, Albany, and Maine; the Metropolitan—Right Rev. Dr. Medley—following in the rear, accompanied by his Chaplain, bearing the crozier. As the procession passed up the aisle, a hymn, set to Old Hundred was sung. The Metropolitan immediately took his place at the altar, and was assisted in the office of Holy Communion by the Bishop of Nova Scotia, who read the Epistle, and the Bishop of Maine, who read the Gospel. The Right Rev. Dr. Deane, Bishop of Albany, one of the most able preachers in the United States, delivered a powerful and eloquent sermon from 2nd Timothy IV., 2. The subject was ably dealt with, and was most suitable to the impressive ceremony about to take place. The Litany was then sung, and the Bishop elect having answered the questions put to him by the Metropolitan, retired from the Chancel, and returned soon after vested in his new Episcopal robes. The hymn, Veni Creator, having been sung by the Bishops and clergy, the communion was conferred by the imposition of hands by the Bishops present. The service throughout was most impressive, the devotion of the congregation being particularly noticeable. The new Bishop has made a favorable impression upon all who have met him and is well calculated to make a successful Prelate. The mitre worn by the Metropolitan was sent out from England expressly for this service. The altar and front were beautifully decorated with flowers, one member of the congregation alone contributing twelve hundred roses. The morning was warm, clear and bright.

WINTER COMMUNICATION—THE CAPES ROUTE.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR.—The presence of a Cabinet Minister in this Province seems to the writer opportune for further directing attention to the capes route, as the best for summer as well as winter travel, by extending the P. E. I. Railway to Cape Traverse, and two strong ferry boats to ply from thence to Cape Tormentine, these should be fitted with rails, so as to transport loaded cars of grain, vegetables, fish in bulk, saving the cost of loading and unloading, and the cost of packages from Tormentine to Aulac or Amherst. The local or wayside traffic would be nearly sufficient to pay the working expenses of that part of the line. As our staples are to a great extent of a perishable nature, it becomes a necessity to be able to ship to market with the least possible delay. In the one article of potatoes, tens of thousands of bushels are lost every season in transport, owing to long passages and leaky vessels. Besides in the spring we rarely can get our potatoes and eggs to market in time to benefit by the high prices usually prevailing in the early spring. Vessels are often delayed for weeks in the Gulf, and often during the time thus lost the prices abroad have been steadily falling. With a continuous line we could use refrigerator cars for the transport of fish, butter and goods affected by heat. I was astonished on being told by my old friend Mr. Stumbles, now of Ottawa, that fresh fish are brought to that market from Portland, Maine, paying duty and building up the trade of a foreign power, while the best fishing grounds in America are not available for want of transport facilities. I might go on and fill columns of the EXAMINER with arguments; but knowing that your readers are not tolerant of long letters, allow me to subscribe myself Yours respectfully, HENRY COOMBS. Charlottetown, July 12, '81.

MOVEMENTS OF THE FISHING FLEET.

Fourth of July week, as usual, brought in a large fishing fleet, and codfish and mackerel have been in liberal receipt since our last issue, somewhat in excess of the previous week, when there were 116 arrivals, with 2,206,000 lbs. codfish, 120,900 lbs. halibut, and 8,945 lbs. mackerel, and larger than for any previous week since last September. We notice twenty-three arrivals from Western Bank, with 1,608,000 lbs. codfish and 22,000 lbs. halibut; four from Bay of Fundy, with 92,000 lbs. codfish; seven from the shore grounds, with 110,000 lbs. do; twenty-nine from Georges, with 584,000 lbs. do. and 29,000 lbs. halibut; thirty-nine from mackereling trips, with 10,390 barrels, 8,940 sea-packed and 450 fresh, and three from Grand Banks, with 83,000 lbs. halibut. Whole number of arrivals, 105; total receipts, 2,394,000 lbs. codfish, 134,960 lbs. halibut, and 10,390 lbs. mackerel. For the corresponding week of last year there were 29 arrivals from Georges, 6 from Western Bank, 8 from off shore, 9 from Grand Banks, and 9 from mackereling trips, the 39 vessels landing 1,360,000 lbs. codfish, 302,400 lbs. halibut, and 3,920 lbs. mackerel.—Cape Ann Advertiser.

The cruel report of the drowning of one of the sons of the Prince of Wales, which was circulated on Monday, was a stock-jobbing canard, designed to effect British railways, by creating a belief that the review of the volunteers by the Queen at Windsor next Saturday would be abandoned. It happily is not often that those who coin money out of other people's misfortunes go to the length of circulating so heartless a rumor as that of Monday last, but the present case is so vile that it is to be hoped no effort will be spared to discover and adequately punish the perpetrators of it.

The denial of the French authorities, of the statement that they intend shortly to mobilize 120,000 men for service in Northern Africa, is not accepted in England.
