ACROSS THE ISLAND

Salt in Tale of Old Fisherman

By NEIL A. MATHESON
Provincial - Farm Editor

I HAVE to think George P. Thompson, Charlottetown for his salty tale on an old fisherman... Captain Dan Macdonald - Earl Macdonald of Cardigan is a Scotswoman...

Hit him "A Poke In His Dirty Mug"

"I TOOK the chance, gave the captain a poke in his dirty mug and then I jumped over the side of his pirate ship... Taken aboard a British ship he had his leg dressed and got a "pee of murr" which made him "feel a lot better."

"1900 And Froze To Death"

RECALLING The unusually bad weather of last year - the man started the first of July and hardly ever stopped... THE WEATHER was normal January through March, but in April was chilly, May was even worse and blizzards howled over the Maritimes in June, snow lay deep on the fields and the wind was in the dead of winter...

Charged To Volcanic Eruptions

THE UNFORSEEN weather was charged to volcanic eruptions in other parts of the world "a pall of volcanic" which interrupted the sun's rays... If that sort of weather never believe many would charge it to nuclear tests or some such developments...

Chinese People Appreciative

THE DEPARTURE of three well known Chinese families from this city yesterday reminds me of an observation I have often thought of making... International relations and power politics are often difficult to understand...

A Guide To Winter Weather

HERE'S A way to find out what kind of weather we're going to have this winter... I checked on those days this year and noted that January should be blustery, there was very little snowfall on December 28, February should be cruddy cool and fine, and the December 28 weather, which indicates what we can expect in March...
