Official Visitation Made To Montague Hillside Lodge

The regular meeting of Hillside Lodge, I. O. O. F., was held on Wednesday night with Ross Hamilton, N. G., presiding. There were thirty-four members and four visitors present. The lodge was honored with an official visit by the Grand Master, Wylie Gorveatt, Amherst, N. S. He was accompanied by D. D. G. M. Russell Matheson and Robert MacKinnon of Charlottetown. The following officers were installed by the Grand Master: N. G., Ellery Shaw; V. G., Homer Moar; rec. secy., Douglas MacLaren; fin. secy., James Dewar; treasurer, Cyrus Shaw; chaplain, William Hicken; P. N. G., Ross Hamilton. The Grand Master was assisted by Harry MacGregor and staff. After the installation Brother Gorveatt gave a lengthy address on the work of the order. He mentioned the need of the principles of the order in every day living. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the Grand Master. Another pleasing event was the presentation of 25-year jewels to James Dewar and Glen MacLaren. Brother Gorveatt graciously presented the jewels to the two brothers and was assisted by Russell Matheson, D. D. G. M. The brothers thanked both the lodge and the Grand Master for the jewels. Ross Hamilton thanked the brothers for their support during his recent term of office as Noble Grand, and asked the continued support for the incoming officers. After the lodge closed to a hearty lunch with Ross Hamilton favoring the members with selections on the piano.

Nash Motors of Canada Present THE WORLD'S NEWEST AND SAFEST CARS

3 New Ramblers The '56 Rambler 4-Door Sedan. Designed and built for the average family, the all-new Nash Safety-Styled Rambler 4-Door Sedan is a masterpiece of automotive engineering. Its construction gives you a flush with the lower body panels and a sweep-upward roof for maximum protection. The interior is the most spacious and comfortable ever offered in any automobile.

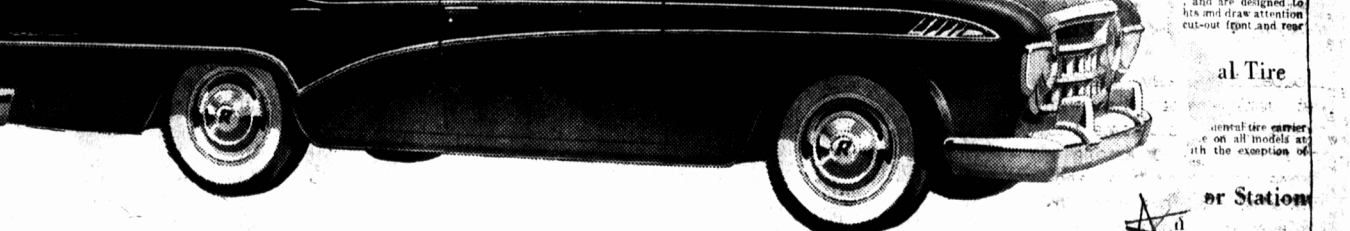

"King Size" Inside, Rambler Size Outside. Although the 1956 Nash Rambler makes its appearance with a new, King-Size interior, it maintains its compact exterior design. In step with this new, spacious interior, the '56 Nash Rambler features greater all-around visibility, with a huge wrap-around windshield and rear window. The new Rambler King-Size interior is enhanced by gorgeous color-key interior trim and upholstery. The colors and designs that will den the heart of every motorist.

Nash Reclining Seats. Here's another Rambler "First". The '56 Safety-Styled Nash Rambler has headlights centered in the grille for increased safety when driving at night. The new Nash Rambler has a new, more powerful engine. You do the very same thing as you do in the '55 Nash. If you get tired on a long trip, you simply ease your seat back to one of five reclining positions! Airline Reclining Seats.

Double-Safe, All-Welded Construction. The complete line of '56 Nash Double-Safe, All-Welded cars are on wheels! The new Nash Rambler has a new, more powerful engine. You do the very same thing as you do in the '55 Nash. If you get tired on a long trip, you simply ease your seat back to one of five reclining positions! Airline Reclining Seats.

Rear Fenders. The extremely simple rear fenders blend into the sleek back rear pillar and rear door panel. The upper line of the fender is raised above the "force" line of the door, and is carried upward over the back-light. This line is accented by a continuous moulding that establishes the flowing integration of the panel, rear pillar and rear fender. The fenders have a slight upward at the rear edge, and the long and narrow tail lamp light blend into the fender surface.

Discs. The new Nash Rambler has a new, more powerful engine. You do the very same thing as you do in the '55 Nash. If you get tired on a long trip, you simply ease your seat back to one of five reclining positions! Airline Reclining Seats.
