

Doctors To Hear Report On Sask. Medicare Plan

MEETINGS - The annual meeting of the P.E.I. Medical Society gets underway this morning in Summerside. The weekend convention will be held at the Royal Canadian Legion Home. Registration is scheduled to begin at 9 a.m. with a 10 o'clock business session presided over by Dr. L. G. Dewar, president of the society. At this meeting various reports will be delivered, including economic, medical education and financial reports.

Official opening is slated for 11 o'clock, with a noon luncheon at the nurses residence of Prince County Hospital, when a special speaker will be Dr. A. F. W. Peart, Toronto, deputy general secretary of CMA. Dr. Peart will speak on the Saskatchewan medicare plan and the recent crisis there. He is expected to give a chronological review of developments in that province. Dr. Peart was in the Saskatchewan area at the time of the crisis and will provide a behind-the-scenes report as well.

AFTERNOON Afternoon sessions, presided over by Dr. Marvin Clark, will consist mainly of provincial and local reports.

S'side Builder Is Dead At 65

SUMMERSIDE - The death of a well known Summerside building contractor, Byron Hawley Thompson, 65, occurred Tuesday at the Prince County Hospital.

In failing health for a short period, Mr. Thompson became seriously ill last Friday when he entered hospital.

He was born, Aug. 17, 1886, at Margate, to the late Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Thompson.

He enlisted in the Canadian Army and served four years with a Canadian machine gun corps during the First World War, after which he went to the United States and carried on building contracting business before returning to his native Summerside.

He was employed for a number of years by M. F. Schurman Co. Ltd. and served most of his time as manager of the Summerside retail branch.

He was a past member of the Legion and the Board of Trade. Besides his widow, the former Annie Bernard of Kensington, he is survived by two sons, Edwin, an historian at the William National Monument, Walla Walla, Wash., and Reginald, with Eastern Bacteries Ltd., at Summerside.

Other survivors include six brothers and two sisters, Horace and Ralph, Long River; Stanley C. of Ch'Town; Roland of Calgary, Alberta; Roy of Margate; Clifford, and Dorothy (Mrs. Norbert Brennan) of Toronto; and Winnie (Mrs. C. C. Baker), Kensington.

The funeral was held Thursday from Trinity United Church with interment in Margate Cemetery.

ASSISE SENATOR DIES MELBOURNE (Reuters) - Former senator Douglas Cameron, 84, known as "the patriarch of the Australian Labor party," died Monday. He was a senator from 1928 until his resignation in June this year. He had been ill for several months. He was minister for aircraft and postmaster-general from 1945 to 1949.
