Credit Union League Has Flourishing Year

TIGNISH — The 26th annual meeting of the P.E.I. Credit Union League was held in Tignish Regional High School Wednesday with 32 delegates from credit unions throughout the province attending. Members and guests numbered well over 100.

E.C. Gaudette, chairman of Tignish village commissioners welcomed the delegates to the village for the first league meeting here.

Edmond Gallant, president, presided and in his president's report, expressed sadness in the loss of Rev. L. Ayers who was a member of the board of directors. He spoke of his fine leadership, not only to the credit union movement, but to the co-operative and adult education movements.

The managing director's report, and report of national director were given by Gregory T. Kelley, managing director for P.E.I. and national director to the board of CUNA.

He reported two credit unions chartered this year were Summerside RCAF credit union and the Capital credit union in Charlottetown and both show great growth possibilities.

Capital Credit Union since forming in October 1962 has assets exceeding $20,000 on its own as well as taking the preparatory steps to accept five other credit unions within a 20 mile radius of the capital city.

In the report of the board of directors, Gilbert Gaudet, named Tignish as the home of the largest credit union, and one which has held this position of prominence for many years. Here in Prince County he said can be found more credit unions with assets exceeding $100,000 than in the other two counties combined. There are 57 credit unions on P.E.I.

The financial statement showed total assets of $5,472.74. The share and loan department has total assets of $46,536.11 and credit union stabilization fund total assets $2,209.80.

Reporting for the credentials and resolutions committee were Mrs. Max McInnis and Urban LeBlanc.

A hot turkey dinner at the Legion community hall at noon was catered by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Legion.

Following the presentation of the outgoet for '63-'64, Robert Ingram Canadian manager of Cuna and Cuna Supply gave his report. Charles Eikel, the managing director of Cuna Mutual Insurance society was guest speaker.

Some of the others giving reports and assisting at the workshops were: Joseph P. Wallner, Dougall MacDougall of Cuna Mutual Insurance Society; Harry Daley, vice-president of national executive of Cuna from Saint John, N.B.

Mr. Kelley read telegrams and messages during the day and introduced many of the guests present among them were Mr. and Mrs. Eikel of Madison, Wis., Very Rev. M.J. Rooney, Tignish.

A lobster supper was served in the evening at the Legion community hall by the members of the Tignish Sports Recreation Association prior to the evening session.
