FINAL REVISION OF THE VOTERS' LIST.—Qualified persons in Charlottetown and Royalty whose names are not already registered on the Dominion voters' lists for Queen's County should bear in mind that there is time to have their names put on will close on the 31st. Applications will be received up to that time at the law office of John T. Mellish, Esq.

Boys' reefers from $1 at James Paton & Co's. o26 3i

A big bargain at James Paton & Co's. A boy's overcoat for $1.75. o26 3i

THE RIFLE.—No. 1 Battery, G. A., are holding their annual target practice this afternoon.

ASTRAKAN JACKETS and furs of all kinds. We keep the best goods made, at popular prices.—Beer Bros. oct23eodtf

FIRE.—The alarm yesterday afternoon was the result of some soot in one of the chimneys in the Queen Hotel taking fire. No damage.

To be sold at auction, to-morrow, Tuesday, without reserve, at 1 o'clock, a horse suitable for driving or light express.—E. Mellish, Auctioneer.

Men who feel "run down" and "out of form," whether from mental worry, overwork, excesses or indiscretions, will find a speedy cure in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. All dealers. 1w

SOME LAMBS.—The Summerside papers report that on Thursday Mr. Sawyer shipped 213 lambs from that place, and on the following day Mr. Merril sent away 413.

AFTER ALL the crockery and glassware sold the past summer, we believe we yet have a piece for every man, woman and child on the island. We want everyone to call and be convinced.—W. P. Colwill. 4w dw—oct3

SHORT IN HIS ACCOUNTS.—The town treasurer of Walkerton, Ont., died recently. Since his death his accounts have been examined and a shortage of $2,200 has been discovered.

WHEN you ask for Nasal Balm do not permit your druggist to give you some "just as good" substitute. It is the only remedy yet discovered that will thoroughly cure catarrh. Sold by all dealers. 1w

THE PREMIER.—The steamer Premier arrived from Halifax and intermediate ports at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and sailed again this morning at 3 o'clock. She carried a general cargo both ways.

SAD SUICIDE.—A woman named Smith, who lived at Trenton, near New Glasgow, N. S., committed suicide a few days ago by cutting her throat with a razor. She leaves a husband and five children.

REV. W. B. KING.—The last issue of the St. John Progress contains an excellent portrait of Rev. W. E. King, formerly of this city but now Rector of St. Luke's, Halifax. A complimentary autobiography is also published.

FOOTBALL.—The members of the Crescent Football Club are particularly requested to meet at the club house, Victoria Park, on Wednesday evening next at 7 o'clock, sharp. Business of importance.—J. Rundle, Capt. o26 2i

PLATE GLASS.—Mr. A. E. McEachen, the well-known boot and shoe man, has had large plate glass panes put in the doors and windows of his store on Queen Street. It is, perhaps, needless to say that the change makes a great improvement in the appearance of the premises.

A. O. H.—We understand that Division No. 1, A. O. H., will give a concert of vocal and instrumental music in their lodge room on the evening of Thanksgiving Day, 12th November next. This will be the first of a series of monthly concerts to be given by the organization during the winter.

GOOD.—In the recent examination at McGill University for entrance the second year in Applied Science, Mr. Herb. H. Shaw, late Principal of Kensington High School, was a successful candidate. He was bracketed first with a Montreal man and awarded a $25 bursary.

UNIVERSALISM.—Rev. G. W. Kent addressed fair sized audiences in the Market Hall yesterday at 3 30 and 8 30. The rev. gentleman has a good delivery, but appears to be somewhat radical in his views—more so than most clergymen of his denomination. He, however, appears to be in earnest and looks forward to the period when dissension among the various sects will terminate and the era of peace and good will be ushered in. Mr. Kent goes from here to Summerside to continue his labors.

POLICE COURT.—This morning three persons, charged with violating the Lord's Day Act, were each fined $1.62 and costs; and the cases of two others charged with a similar offence, were adjourned until the 27th. One drunk was fined $2 or 8 days. The case of two men charged with being drunk and fighting on the streets was adjourned until the 27th, as was also the case of a merchant summoned for storing kerosene in the city without giving on account thereof to the City Clerk. An abusive language case was adjourned until to-morrow.

ISLAND VESSEL IN TROUBLE.—The St. John Telegraph says: The three masted schooner Gypsum King arrived in port yesterday afternoon for harbor. She is bound from New York to Windsor, and was only 52 hours coming from New York to this port. Captain Pettis reports that on Thursday at noon passed the barque Charles E Lefurgey, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., bound from Philadelphia to Partridge Island, about 22 miles to the eastward of Mount Desert. She had lost her mizzen topmast above the cap, mainmast head above the rigging, and foremast head above the cap. The foreyard and jibboom still remained. A jib, foresail, staysail to mainsail, spanker, mizzen and staysail were gone. When the schooner passed the Lefurgey she was heading to the eastward under her main topsail. She was previously reported dismasted. All were then well on board.
