

and more formidable foes. It would seem that New Zealand is not the best governed colony in the world. It is said to be owing to neglect and criminal carelessness on the part of the Government, that so many valuable lives have been lost, and so much suffering inflicted on the New Zealand colonists.

The Ritualists in England are just now in a very bad humor. The Privy Council has decided against them in the famous Mockonochie case. They, it seems, have no idea of submitting to the powers that be, and of regulating their church ceremonies according to the letter of the law, for in the Church of St. George's in the East not one of the condemned practices has been done away with.

Feeling assured that the working of the "Dayspring" is committed to the good hands, and fervently desiring that they may become a strong and a valiant combatant with the Rump power.
