SEALD TENDERS addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "TENDER FOR REPAIRS TO BREAKWATERS (SOUTH) AT TIGNISH, P. E. I.", will be received in the office of the Secretary, until 3:00 P. M., (E.D.S.T.), WEDNESDAY, MAY 16, 1951.

Plans, form of contract and specification can be seen and forms of tender obtained at the office of the Chief Engineer, Department of Public Works, Ottawa, at the office of the District Engineer, 38 Great George Street, Charlottetown, P. E. I., and at the Post Office at Tignish, P. E. I.

NOTE—Upon application to the undersigned the Department will supply blueprints and specification of the work on deposit of a sum of $20.00 in the form of a certified bank cheque payable to the order of the Minister of Public Works. The deposit will be released on the return of the blueprints and specifications within a month from the date of reception of tenders. If not returned within that period the deposit will be forfeited.

Tenders will not be considered unless made on printed forms supplied by the Department and in accordance with conditions set forth therein.

Each tender must be accompanied by a certified cheque on a chartered bank in Canada payable to the order of the Minister of Public Works, or Bearer Bonds as specified in the form of tender, for 10% of the amount of the tender.

ROBERT FORTIER, Acting Secretary, Department of Public Works, Ottawa, April 19, 1951.

Love, Marriage, Children —and security

The surest way to marital security and a happy home? Don't wait for children till you can "afford" them, advises famous psychologist Henry C. Link in May Reader's Digest.

Read why lasting love and sex compatibility depend on the experience of parenthood; why not having too much money may actually make marriage more secure; what 4 influences are most important in determining a happy marriage. Don't miss this key article by an experienced counselor who's helped thousands of troubled couples.

Gleanings of a Rural District New Glasgow

Mrs. Peter Dairon visited the Capital on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan McLeod and family were visitors at Mrs. McLeod's parents' home on Sunday.

Mr. Elwood Stewart was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orr on Sunday.

Miss Shirley Moffatt spent the week-end with her schoolmates, Misses Doris and Nell Andrew.

Mrs. W. D. Stevenson and little daughter, Gloria, motored to the city on Saturday.

Miss Vera Ramsay, teacher of North Rustico School, had an enjoyable week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reagh Farris.

Mrs. John Pursey, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Millar Orr and Mr. Leith Orr, spent a short time at her home on Sunday.

Rev. George and Mrs. Gough motored to the capital on Friday. They were accompanied by Mr. sented with a gift from her friends, as a token of their esteem and friendship. Miss Thompson has been employed at the Blue Dome Restaurant, since her return from Toronto, Ont., where she had been for some time. The best of luck is wished Miss Thompson in her future work.

Messrs. Donald and Eric Gass are spending some time with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gass. They motored from Ontario and report some of the road in bad condition.

Friends will be sorry to learn of the indisposition of Mrs. Murray Orr. She is confined to bed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Whitlock.

Misses Sheila Dickieson and Marion Stevenson spent a very pleasant weekend at the home of the former's uncle, Mr. David McLeod and Mrs. McLeod.

Mr. and Mrs. James Andrews were guests at Lilac Lodge on Sunday, where they visited their aunt and cousin, Mrs. E.E. McKay and Mrs. Gordon Laird.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brookins, accompanied by their son, Aubrey, and Mrs. Blair Andrew, motored to Halifax this past week, where they spent a short but pleasant stay.

The dirt roads, "in spite of so much rain the past week", have dried up wonderfully, and with some fill added to the deeper holes, motoring is not so bad. This will doubtless be good news to the candidates for the coming election, as it will help them in the short space of time to visit the electorate.

Messrs. Leith and Stanley Orr have been welcomed home, after spending the past two years in Calgary. Stanley, who went there in the hope that his asthma condition would clear up, was not disappointed as he enjoyed good health while there. His many friends, hope his condition will not change in the land of his birth. Those lads enjoyed a wide and varied trip prior to arriving home.

Mr. Ralph Emery of Summerside

re-entered the services of the R. C. A. F. He left for British Columbia on Tuesday morning. During World War II he won distinction and will now carry the rank of Flying Officer. Mrs. Emery (nee Enid Clark) will join her husband shortly. Ralph will be greatly missed, as he was a talented singer and freely gave of his time and talent, also an active instructor in Red Cross First Aid and Swimming and Life Saving. Just recently he received a well-merited reward from the Life Saving Society. Best wishes of a host of friends will follow him.
