

Moncton Hawks Down Glacé Bay Miners 4-2 In Rugged Encounter

GLACÉ BAY, N.S., Oct. 23 — (CP) — Moncton Hawks gained the edge in the third period tonight to down Glacé Bay Miners 4-2 in a Maritime Major Hockey League game.

The teams split goals in the first and second periods — for a total of two each going into the third — and then Moncton smashed home two unanswered markers in a hectic final frame.

There were two major penalties and one match misconduct sentence — which involves an automatic fine in the final period that saw fists fly and sticks rise high. Moncton's Hamilton collected the misconduct.

Don Lochart played in the Hawks net, replacing Jackie Gibson, who has been released, and handled 25 shots, compared to 24 by Bob Arnell in the Glacé Bay cage.

Danny Horeck opened the game's scoring with a tally for Moncton when the game was less than four minutes old. John Bailey replied for Miners to even matters. Going into the second, Don Haley connected just past the five-minute mark to give the hometown an edge. This disappeared on a hard shot by Matthews in the dying seconds of the period.

Moncton, although forced to fight hard, had things all its way on the scoreboard from there on in, with goals by Scholes and Marchant.

Rickey Defends Farm System In Baseball

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 — (AP) — Branch Rickey, general manager of Pittsburgh Pirates, told congress today the farm system he helped create is the saviour of baseball.

Only the fact that major clubs poured money into the minors during the depression kept baseball alive, Rickey told a House of Representatives judiciary subcommittee.

"I'll make the sweeping statement that the farm system is the saviour of baseball," Rickey said with fatherly pride, "and without it it is problematical that we could have minor league baseball at all."

The subcommittee is studying whether baseball violates anti-trust laws—as has been claimed in several suits brought against baseball.

Rickey said these suits threaten baseball's life, and he called on congress for help.

"Baseball does not wish to be continuously threatened by suits from whatever source," he said, "disgruntled players or great players, good lawyers or otherwise."

He noted that the legality of the reserve clause has been questioned in court. This is the clause which, in effect, binds a player to stay with the club which first signs him until it decides to trade or release him.

Rickey maintained that the reserve clause is legal, but that if it isn't legal, then it is a "harmless illegality."

He said most of the disagreements are over rules, procedures or policies and that, "in my judgment, (these) properly belong for action and solution within baseball itself."

Beavers Come From Behind To Defeat Islanders 4 To 2

The Saint John Beavers moved into sole possession of first place in the Maritime Major Hockey League last night on the strength of a four goal third period as they defeated the luckless Charlottetown Islanders 4-2 at the Forum.

Trailing 2-0 as the third period got underway the Beavers capitalized on penalties and breaks to wrap up the game. Watson and Meldrum scored within a minute of one another as an Islander sat in the penalty box. Mulligan scored with the Beavers a man short and Johnny Ubricco fired the insurance marker with two Islanders in the box.

For two periods the Islanders looked like the washbuckling Islanders of a year ago as they played with the fire and dash that carried them to the top of the Big Four. Their passes were clicking and their defence was air tight as they kept the slick passing Beavers off balance.

They built up their two goal lead in the second period as the result of goals by Don Bellringer and Marcel Clements and they held this lead until after the seven minute mark of the third session.

Referees Charlie Good and Heffering handed out a total of 23 penalties, including four five minute sentences and a misconduct. The Islanders received 15 penalties and the Beavers eight. Several of the referees decisions met with the disapproval of the fans who voiced their opinions in no uncertain manner.

The Forum was packed for the bruising match and they witnessed one of the best played games to be played here for quite a while. The loss was the fifth straight for the Islanders this year.

Islanders started on the attack as soon as the puck was dropped and Don Bellringer fired a sizzler at Hughes at the seven second mark. Seconds later Johnny Morrow was in scoring position but could not get the puck away.

Play was pretty even during the period with Hal Gordon handling seven shots and Hughes eight. Don Bellringer was back again at the start of the second period at this time "The Dinger" made no mistake as he slipped one between Phil Hughes' legs at the 1:04 mark. The score followed a face-off at the right of the net with Willie Marshall passing the puck to Bellringer. Hughes view was screened as Bellringer shot it through a defenceman's legs.

while Phil Vitale sat out a major. Mulligan fired the winner after C. Smelle stopped an Islanders rush and broke away. Hal Gordon stopped Smelle's shot but Mulligan slipped the rebound into the open net. Seconds later received majors for fighting.

Little Johnny Ubricco ended matters for the night with an unassisted goal. He picked up the puck outside his own blueline with only Larry Travis between him and the net. Travis played him beautifully and Ubricco sensing that he could not beat Travis fired a blazing shot from just inside the blueline. The puck was in the corner of the net before Gordon could move.

Game Odds and Ends. Willie Marshall knocked a Beavers defenceman off his feet with a beautiful flint in the second period but tripped as he broke into the clear. Beavers scored once in the second period but the referees disallowed it as the whistle was blown on the play. The referees did not allow any rough stuff to get started in the corners as they blew the whistle as soon as two players collided.

Beavers had accurate passing plays and seemed to have their power plays down to perfection. They had trouble with the Islanders defence and could not go around them. Once they got the puck inside they could pass it around. Willie Marshall got his first penalty of the season and not many could see that it was earned. "Buck" Whitlock almost tied the game up with a smart play in the third but the puck just missed. The same could be said for "Bucko" Trainor.

Saint John—Goal, Hughes; defence, C. Smelle, Lee, Heon, Mesich, Arundel; forwards Ubricco, T. Smelle, Meldrum, Nicolle, McCracken, Blair, Mulligan, Watson, Buchanan.

Charlottetown — Goal Gordon; defence, Vitale, Travis, McLavon, Dutohak; forwards, Trainor, Favero, Clements, Whitlock, Smith, Simpson, Marshall, Bellringer, Morrow, Beaudry.

Officials—Good and Heffering.

Winger Larry Reagan To Join Islanders

Winger Larry Reagan of the Ottawa Senators will arrive in the City in the next day or two to play with the Islanders. It was announced last night by coach Leo Lamoureux.

Reagan is coming here in a deal between Islanders and Tommy Gorman of the Senators. If the player proves satisfactory, a deal will be made between the two clubs.

A right winger, whose name was not divulged, will arrive in the City Thursday from Bagotville, Quebec. The player is coming here on a try-out basis from the Bagotville Club which has a working agreement with the Islanders.

Two more players may arrive here before the week-end, Leo added.

Durocher Voted Manager of Year

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 — (AP) — Leo Durocher today was voted baseball's "manager of the year." The colorful field leader won the award for leading New York Giants to their first pennant since 1957 in the most sensational race in National League history.

The Giants, last in May and 19 1/2 games behind Brooklyn Dodgers on Aug. 11, climaxed an amazing surge to the top by defeating the Dodgers 5-4 in the final of a three-game post season playoff on Bobby Thomson's three run homer in the last of the ninth inning.

Durocher gained the honor in an Associated Press poll conducted among 187 members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. He bagged 113 votes to almost double the 64 total rung up by runner-up Casey Stengel of the world champion New York Yankees. Stengel won the award in 1950.

Durocher, forsaking baseball for golf at the Hillcrest Country Club in West Los Angeles, accepted the award with delight.

"That's great news," he beamed. "It makes me very, very happy."

Saints - U.N.B. Meet In Intercollegiate Football Game Today

The Saint Dunstan's University senior Saints and the University of New Brunswick football squads will meet here this afternoon in a regular N.B.-P.E.I. Intercollegiate game. The game will be played on the S.D.U. field.

The Saints will be playing today without the services of their star forward Claire "Copy" Callaghan who suffered a severe cut in his knee here last Saturday in a game against the Abbies. It is also feared that he may have a cracked knee cap.

Phil Coyle and Kenny MacDonald may be back in the S.D.U. lineup following their injuries a week and a half ago against U.N.B. It is very doubtful if forward Clarence MacDonald will be able to play.

But the Saints will come with capable replacements with players like the Mullaly brothers, Joe and John and Paul Jay. They have played two games in the series and both times earned a draw. In the opening game of the series they tied Mount A 0-0 and a week later played to a 2-2 draw with U.N.B.

Coach Bob McLaughlin stated last night that his team was light and fairly fast if they could get going. He placed the average weight of his scrum at 165 lbs. and his backfield at about 150.

Following are the lineups:
U.N.B. — Fullback, Shephard; three-quarters, MacNeigh, Dolron, Smith, T. Bliss; halves, Pinder, Thompson; forwards, S. Shephard, Merritt, Craig, Wilson, Menzies, Thorpe; subs, Donald, J. Bliss, Walker, Brannen.

S.D.U. — Fullback, Mallette; three quarters, K. MacDonald, G. Clinton, Cheverie, Coyle; halves, Cameron, Dunphy; forwards, Mullally, M. Callaghan, Driscoll, Penbergast, J. J. Dunphy, C. MacIsaac.

"Worst Exhibition" Of Refereeing Ever Saw, Lamoureux Declares

That was the worst exhibition of refereeing that I ever saw in my life," stated Islanders coach Leo Lamoureux last night following the Islanders-Saint John game during which 23 penalties were handed out with 15 of them going to the Islanders.

Leo stated that he was going to take the matter up at the league meeting on Nov. 4 and see if the situation could not be improved. He cited out the cases of "Red" Favero, Willie Marshall and Phil Vitale in particular.

Favero received a two-minute penalty for roughing while an opponent who was equally as guilty escaped scot free, he stated. Marshall received a penalty for holding after being knocked to the ice and even touching his competitor and Phil got a major when Ubricco pulled a good fake after being checked, he continued. The same kind of cheap penalties were given out periodically all night, concluded Leo.

Doesn't Know Why He Quit Hornets
PRESOTT, Ont., Oct. 23 — (CP) — Leo Bolvin, 20-year-old promising rookie defenceman with Pittsburgh Hornets of the American Hockey League, said today he isn't sure why he left the team yesterday.

Bolvin, who impressed Toronto's National Hockey League Leafs during pre-season training camp at St. Catharines, Ont., so much that it was expected he may land a regular berth with the N. H. L. club, added that he may quit hockey altogether.

"The money doesn't bother me," he said. "I'm just not sure I want to be a professional."

He is slated to talk the matter over with Leafs' general manager Conn Smythe Saturday and is expected to announce his decision after that.

The former Port Arthur Bruin junior told newspaper men that he had nothing against the Hornets or against the hockey system in general.
