

BOOK CITY/BOOKS IN CANADA CO-SPONSOR STUDENT WRITING AWARDS

Student writers can become eligible for $1000, $500, and $250 prizes in a writing competition co-sponsored by BOOK CITY bookstores and BOOKS IN CANADA magazine. The Toronto bookstore chain and the national book review magazine hope to encourage and support future Canadian writers through these awards. In 1991, the first prizes in the BOOKS IN CANADA STUDENT WRITING AWARDS were won by Hannah Landecker, of Vancouver, and Alison Calder, of Saskatoon, out of more than 600 entries. This year, with the help of BOOK CITY, the number of prizes has been increased and the contest expanded to include community college as well as university students. There will be 3 prize winners in each of two categories: poetry and short fiction.

First prize: $1000; Second prize: $500; Third prize: $250. The entry requirements are as follows: 1. the entrant must be a full time undergraduate student at a Canadian university or community college; employees of BOOK CITY or BEDFORD HOUSE PUBLISHING and their families may not enter. 2. Please supply with entry: name, home address and telephone number, university or college address and telephone number, student identification number. No entries will be returned unless accompanied by a self-addressed envelope with sufficient postage. 3. Each student may submit one entry per category. Short fiction should not exceed 2500 words; a poetry entry may contain up to two poems with a 2500 word maximum in total. 4. Winners agree to permit one-time publication in BOOKS IN CANADA'S October 1992 issue. 5. The decision of the judges is final. 6. Entries must be postmarked no later than July 15, 1992, and should be addressed to: STUDENT WRITING AWARDS, BOOKS IN CANADA, 33 Draper Street, Toronto, Ontario M5V 2M3 For more information: contact BOOKS IN CANADA at (416) 340-9809
