Islands Most Popular Wedding

By RALPH CAMERON
Guardian-Patriot Staff Writer

Changing times and fashions no longer agree with the old song "Happy the bride the sun shines on today," in referring to the merry month of May.

In fact, even the long-time favorite, June, has fallen into disfavor.

Whatever the reason, island brides have a definite preference for late summer and fall months, as shown by cold statistics which strip the glamour from mayflowers, and June brides, and reveal a tendency to favor late-in-the-year weddings.

JULY TOPS LIST

Last year, more Islanders were married in July than any other month, when 101 couples took their vows. The other months were: August with 88, Strangely enough, the cold statistics of November is in third place with 76 marriages, while September had 75.

Traditional June saw only 55, as did sixth place and May with 49.

March is consistent in being the least-favored month, as it was in last place in both 1960 and last year.

According to the provincial department of health's division of vital statistics, marriages were down last year with 419, compared to the 682 of 1960.

It is interesting to note that of the 619 marriages, 385 were by license and 231 by publication of banns.

Legion Sets Carnival Date For Tignish

JUNE BRIDING LEAD

Just as spring months have lost their appeal for brides, the same has been said for the rivalries in this world. At least, the babies born on Prince Edward Island.

TIGNISH—The Legion Carnival will be held on Aug. 23. This was decided at the recent Canadian Legion Branch 6, held in the club rooms on Thursday evening and was presided over by the president, J.C. Peter Gaudet.

The secretary, Blaise Ellis read the minutes of the previous meeting. The financial statement was given by the treasurer, Hector Bustle.

Trustees were reported sent to three stock members by the chairman of the sick committee, E.C. Percy.

The legion members were invited to meet with the members of the Ladies Auxiliary for their monthly meeting on April 11th at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Harry Cudmore, director of Red Cross water safety and first aid services for P.E.I.

The meeting decided in favor of donating the hall to the Sports Recreation Association of Tignish for a junior record party on Saturday afternoon to help provide recreation for the youth of the village.

OBITUARY

MISS LUCY A. MCLURE

The death occurred at Brackley Point on February 28, 1962 of Miss Lucy Anne McLure, who was the daughter of the late John S. McLure of North Ruston, where she was born Sept. 1st, 1879.

In her youth she attended Prince of Wales College and normal school in Charlottetown where she obtained a first class degree for public school teaching. For a few years she followed this her chosen profession in her native province and later went to Western Canada where she continued teaching, having first qualified for western teaching by attending the University of Saskatchewan.

Miss McLure made a marked success of her vocation, giving her best to all her duties and throughout the following years, maintained a zealous interest in their adult careers.

She was a lady of sterling qualities, beloved by all for her fine Christian character and unselfish good works, leaving all her communities where she resided the better for her having passed that way.

In her religious life she was a member of the Presbyterian Church having been baptized by the Rev. Dr. Kirk of James Charlottetown for a number of years. She was also a valued member of the Chapter Order of Eastern Stars.

The only surviving member of her family is her aged sister, Mrs. Colin McLure of Brackley Point. Two brothers, Russell and W. Chester S. and one sister, Mrs. Lavina MacMillan preceded her.

The funeral service was held from the Canadian United Church, and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. T. H. B. Somers, who was laid to rest in the family plot in the old historic Covenish cemetery near by.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Colin McLure and family wish to sincerely thank all friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy in the death of their sister and aunt Miss Lucy A. McLure.
