

KO's Feature 4 Bout Card

There were knockouts galore at the Sports Arena last evening.

Don 'Duck' Trainor, headlining the four-bout card, made short work of his opponent, Bob Leadley, knocking him out at the 52 second mark of the second round.

Trainor dropped Leadley twice in the first round, but the Haitian was saved by the bell on the second knockdown. Still groggy from punishment received in the opening round, Leadley was no match for Trainor's punching power.

Bruno Boucher, the husky Frenchman from Chicoutimi, Que., stopped his man at the 2:38 mark of the third round. Seconds earlier he had dropped Cook to the canvas but the Nova Scotian slugger got to his feet only to be dropped again, this time for good.

Boucher had control of the scrap all the way, but was slightly over-eager and was warned twice for kidney punches.

In the special six-rounder, Leo Whipper Steele polished off his opponent, Billie Burns at the 2:50 mark of the opening round. Steele had his man on the canvas three times with referee Kid Nickerson stopping the bout on the third knockdown.

Freddie Burke and Pres Wot-clashed in the preliminary four-rounder. Both boys put up a good battle but Burke was more effective in his punching and was given the nod by both judges and the referee.

Referee for the preliminary bouts was Kid Nickerson, the judges Allison Gillis and Danny McCormack, Wilf McCluskey refereed the main and semi-final bouts. Kid Nickerson replaced Allison Gillis as judge with Danny McCormack.

Harness Racing On Mainland

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (CP)—Bold Venture, a 12-year-old longshot, recorded a 2.11 3-5 mile in harness racing here Wednesday night. The next best time, one-fifth of a second slower, was by another longshot, Bonnie Michael.

Other single dash winners were Pep, Onton Adam, Tom Day, driver Chief, C.B.L. and Guy Adam.

TRURO (CP)—There were only single winners at a harness racing card here Wednesday night. The daily double paid $48, 20, the quinella $8.40 and the exactor $51.60.

Among the single winners were Moncton's Toubi Boy, Jolly Dick of Charlottetown and Amherst's Lee Brook.

Leafs Didn't Waive On Danny

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League said Wednesday they have not waived on Danny Lewicki, reported on the way to Chicago Black Hawks from Montreal Canadiens.

Stafford Smythe, chairman of the Leafs' management committee, said no decision has been made on Lewicki and the aiver deadline is not until Thursday midnight.

Moore Signs Today For Bout With Durelle

NEW YORK (AP)—Archie Moore will sign today to defend his world light-heavyweight boxing title against Canadian Yvon Durelle in Montreal December 10.

Lew Meyers, Durelle's American representative, announced the match Wednesday night. He said Moore and Durelle will sign in Montreal today.

White Sox Shade Tigers; Yanks Snap Losing Streak

Chicago White Sox clinched second place in the American League for the second straight year Wednesday, defeating Detroit Tigers 4-3 in 10 innings.

In the batting race—centre of league interest since New York Yankees sauntered home with the pennant—Ted Williams edged within four points of teammate Pete Runnels while their Boston Red Sox lost 7-5 to the Yanks.

In the only afternoon game in the National League, Chicago Cubs clobbered San Francisco Giants 10-3 but Giants' Willie Mays slammed a double and triple to give himself a two-point lead at .346 in the batting race.

WINNING AGAIN

The Yankees first win in seven starts—since they clinched the pennant—came behind Mickey Mantle's 42nd homer of the season.

Runnels, apparently being shut out for the day, singled to hit his last time up off winner Duke

Maas and lost only one point from his pace-setting .324 average.

But Williams beat out a pushed bunt toward third and stepped up to bang a double in three trips to move his average up to .320 from .317. He also drew a walk.

Frank Malzone drove in four Boston runs on a pair of homers. Mantle increased his league-leading homer production with a line drive belt good for two runs in the fourth inning. Hank Bauer hit his 12th homer, doubled and scored three times. Tom Brewer took the loss.

LANDIS BREAKS DEADLOCK

At Chicago, the 10th-inning deadlock was broken when Jim Landis—in the game for defensive purposes and playing with eight stitches in his left eyebrow—opened the home 10th with a triple and scored on Sherman Lollar's single.

Winning pitcher was Don Rudolph, rookie left hander. Starter Billy Pierce was within one out of his 17th victory in the ninth when Red Wilson's single scored Billy Martin and sent the game into overtime.

Tom Morgan, who replaced Frank Lary in the ninth, was the loser.

Mays went two percentage points ahead of idle Richie Ashburn of Philadelphia with his double and triple at San Francisco. He also grounded out once and walked once to go two for three for the day.

Mays, who won his only NL batting crown in 1954, is belting the ball at a red hot .523 clip in his past 11 games.

A crowd of 7,887 watched the Cubs pound six Giant pitchers for 14 hits, including Bobby Thomson's 20th home run and Lou Jackson's three-run triple in the five-run ninth.

Don Elston, who relieved starter Johnny Brigs in the sixth and gave up only two hits, won his eighth against eight losses.

Ramon Monzant, the third Giant pitcher, was charged with his 10th loss against eight wins.

BALTIMORE (AP)—Arnold Portocarrero notched his 15th victory—a modern Oriole record—Wednesday night by shutting out Washington Senators, 2-0, on just three hits. It was Baltimore's sixth straight victory.

Leo Burke, a rookie up from Knoxville, singled in one run and Bob Nieman the other as the Birds got seven of their eight hits off loser Camilo Pascual in the second and third frames.

Backing up Portocarrero was competent Bird infield which reeled off three double plays.

DOWN AGAIN

Boxing fans witnessed three having dropped his opponent, Leo Whipper Steele is seen after 2.50 mark of the opening round of the special six rounder, after having sent his man to the canvas three times.

SUFFERS FROM ARTHRITIS

Lew Hoad Places Himself In Care Of Two Doctors

LONDON (AP)—Arthritic Lew Hoad placed himself in the care of two doctors Wednesday—a London specialist and that old medicine man, Jack Kramer.

The 23-year-old Australian tennis star spent the first day of his enforced rest visiting friends in London and experimenting with Kramer's get-well-soon recipe. He also arranged to see Sir Reginald Watson Jones a top orthopaedic surgeon.

"I've told Lew he needs more vitamin B," said Kramer, who has been an arthritis sufferer himself since early in the 1940's.

"He's got to wrap up warm, wear plenty of sweaters and take a lot of hot baths."

"He's got to watch himself in wet weather and get into the habit of taking a nap after a meal. Besides that, there's several drugs he can take."

CRACKS TUESDAY

Hoad cracked up Tuesday when he arrived from Paris to play with Kramer's touring professional tennis circus.

He complained of arthritic pains "all over my body." Kramer told him to take the rest of the year off.

"And that's what I meant," Kramer said Wednesday. "There have been a lot of suggestions that Hoad is through for life."

"That is absolutely not the case. What he needs is a good long rest with no pressure—physical or mental. It's obvious to anyone the guy is pretty run down."

Kramer signed Hoad on a two-year, $125,000 contract in 1957 after the young Australian won the Wimbledon championship for the second straight year. Since then, languid Lew has given world professional champion Pancho Gonzales an uneasy time and shown every sign of claiming the crown for himself one day.

Hoad could not be reached for comment, but a friend said: "He is not feeling any better. That boy is under the weather."

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

SAINT DUNSTAN'S University swings into Canadian football on an intercollegiate basis on Thanksgiving Day, Monday, October 13. On that day they will entertain St. Mary's College from Halifax, N.S.

For the first time in many long years, Saint Dunstan's quit the English rugby game in 1957 and turned their attention to Canadian football. It was quite a break for S.D.U. to make, but all things considered college officials felt it was the only thing to do. Other mainland colleges that had been arch rivals in rugby had turned to the Canadian game and the Malpeque Road institution was left with no one to play.

AGAIN A GREAT many students coming to Saint Dunstan's had no knowledge at all about the English game but were real enthusiasts when it came to Canadian football. Time must march on and so it was that rugby went out and Canadian football came to Saint Dunstan's.

Last year the Saints were not entered in any league with the mainland. They felt it too soon to start in league competition but were content to engage in exhibition tussles. This they did and they won all games, showing surprising strength.

LOCAL FOOTBALL FANS will see St. Thomas College and Mount Allison perform here in addition to St. Mary's. The Saints have dates with U.N.B. and Acadia at Fredericton and Wolfville.

Coach A. J. McAdam, who had such great success with English rugby as a player and a coach, is enthusiastic about his squad this season. A.J. has 17 players back from last season and several of the new faces showing up for workout are displaying loads of promise. At least McAdam feels that the local collegians will give a fair account of themselves in this season's competition.

ANOTHER GROUP of students are practicing hard these days on the same game, Canadian football. Prince of Wales college scholars are working out daily for a series with Saint Dunstan's second team and it should prove a real source of entertainment to sport fans in this vicinity.

Last season the Welshmen made a start at the Canadian game as did S.D.U. Saint Dunstan's however had several lads with experience while P.W.C. were starting right from scratch. Saints were much too powerful for the city students but Welshmen were game and kept giving the Red and White team the competition they wanted.

With a year under their belts, Welshmen will show a definite improvement and in a series with second Saints should prove mighty tough opponents. The old rivalry in English rugby was terrific between these two seats of learning and there seems no reason why it can't be the same in Canadian football.

FOLKS WHO MOURNED the death of the old English game loudly proclaimed that no game would ever take its place. Many of them would stand on the sidelines last year and openly ridicule the new game. They were hoping that something would cause those in authority to change their minds and revert to the old game.

Those folks might as well get on the 'band wagon' if they want any fun this fall. Canadian football is here to stay whether we like it or not. We just can't hold back what the majority of youth wants and right now it's Canadian football, not English rugby.

And at that, we could have a most entertaining autumn.

BOB TURLEY, New York Yankees' most successful hurler this season, will be looking for a couple of wins in the coming World Series with Milwaukee Braves. Not only will Bob be looking for these victories but the Yankees are counting on them if they intend to grab back the world title the Braves stole from under their very noses last October.

Of course Turley could falter in the big classic and the Yanks might still get by, but the odds are against any such happenings. If Fred Haney's boys can stop Mr. Turley, then they'll have a mighty great chance of repeating as the world leaders in baseball.

BOB WON the sixth game in last fall's series but he'll get his chance to improve on that record this year. It's likely that Stengel will lead with his ace on opening day at County Stadium and if he does, Turley will be seeing more of the Braves before this year's champion is crowned.

Bob has been preparing for such events and he wants to beat those Braves—make no mistake about that. He's been looking forward to the world series and hopes that he can be a big help in settling the score with the boys from Milwaukee.

Interviewed recently Bob had this to say: "I am using my sinker to good advantage. In a recent game I fanned only four men, but that doesn't bother me. I am willing to let Earl Wynn have the league strikeout title. All I want is to get myself in top shape for those Braves, to whom we all owe something."

ED SULLIVAN has booked six Milwaukee Braves for his television show Sunday October 5. They are Red Schoendienst, Hank Aaron, Eddie Mathews, Del Crandall, Warren Spahn and Joe Adcock.

"I'm turning the whole seven minute bit over to Joe Garagiola" Ed said recently. "Joe knows baseball—he's a former big league catcher—and he's a natural born comedian. He'll tell at least one funny story about every Brave on the show. I've never been satisfied with the way I handle sports personalities. All I can do is recite a few statistics."

We'll be watching.

Unranked Ray Stops Bowdry

CHICAGO (AP)—Sonny Ray, a 3-1 underdog, pounded seventh ranking light heavyweight Jesse Bowdry nearly at will for two rounds before scoring a technical knockout Wednesday in 1:22 of the ninth in their scheduled 10 rounder.

It was the unranked Ray's third victory, and second kayo, in four meetings with the 20-year-old Bowdry.

The St. Louisan's only defeats in 26 pro starts were at the hands of Ray, who came up from small Chicago fight clubs. It ended a winning streak of 10 for him.

Ray, 22, now has won 10 in a row but none as important as this one.

After shaking up Bowdry twice in the earlier rounds with a sledge hammer right, Ray went to work on him in the eighth. At the start of the round, Ray drove him into the ropes, rocked him with lefts and rights and began chasing him around the ring. Another series of lefts and rights kept Bowdry wobbling until the bell.

In the ninth, Ray again pounded him into a corner and flailed him at will. Bowdry near collapse when referee Walter Brightmore stopped it.

Bowdry weighed 173 and Ray 171½.
