

The Guardian, Charlottetown, Thurs. Sept. 10, 1964. 5

Nat. Sci. Biologists Open Sessions Today

The Maritime Psychological Association will meet today for a two-day conference at St. Dunstan's University with registration to start at 9 a.m. in the Kelly Memorial Library Building. Chief speaker during the two-day meeting will be Dr. Raymond A. Bayer, professor of business administration, Harvard and Graduate School of Business Administration.

Former Islander Dies In Mass.

A former Islander, Mrs. Florence Grover, nee Florence Nicole of White Sands, P.E.I. died in Lexington, Mass. Mrs. Grover was born in White Sands, 72 years ago. She was the eldest daughter of the late William J. and Elizabeth Nicole. She resided in U.S.A. since 1912. She leaves two children, Florence and Elmon, and four brothers (Eliel), Mrs. Spencer S. B. A. Murray, Harbor (Laura), Mrs. Sam Beck, Murray, White Sands, Cape Bear, Earl, Roy and Arnold Nicole, White Sands.

Youth Committed To Supreme Ct.

Four Charlottetown youths involved in a break, entry and theft incident sometime ago appeared yesterday in magistrate's court before Magistrate James B. Johnston, Q.C. One of them, Richard Derrell Castrod, was committed to trial in Supreme Court. The other three, John Wayne Castrod, Stewart Gyalvin Ferguson, and Melvin Alvin Jackson were remanded to Sept. 14 to fix dates for their trials. They had all previously pleaded not guilty to the charges.

Cardigan Sister Dies In U.S.A.

The death occurred at Beltham Infirmary, Framingham, Mass. Sept. 5 of Sister Mary Wilfred, the former Bridget Agnes Sharkey of Cardigan, born in 1874 year. Daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Wilfred, she was teaching in the public schools of Cardigan when she was appointed to St. Joseph's in Massachusetts. She taught for over 30 years at the St. Joseph's School for the Deaf and Dumb in Randolph, Mass.

Three Speeders Fined At S'side

The celebration of her golden jubilee in 1954, she held various offices in her religious order. She is survived by a sister, Margaret, Mrs. J. A. McQuaid, of Vancouver, B.C.; a brother, Charles, William Foley, Berwick, and several nieces and nephews. Interment was in Framingham Mass.

Island Native Dies In Boston

The death occurred suddenly in Boston on Tuesday, Sept. 8 of John Hogan, formerly of this province. Mr. Hogan who was in his 86th year, was born at Trinity Cove, the son of the late Thomas Hogan and Caroline Simpson.

Convicted Of Beer Robbery

GEORGETOWN—Five crown witnesses testified in the case of Eugene Philip MacDonald, Montague, charged with stealing a quantity of beer, property of Louis A. Coombs of Lower Montague, when the case was heard here yesterday by Kings County Magistrate Johnston. J. P. Nicholson, witness heard were Louis Acorn, Lynden Stewart, Roy Campbell, Ronald Peter Jamieson and Coombs. Miss E. Foster.

Administrators End Conference

Sessions on the training of senior administrators and on research and development in the Atlantic Provinces formed the bulk of yesterday's agenda as the Institute of Public Administration of Canada wound up its four-day convention in Charlottetown. Discussions under the former topic included papers on the new federal secretary's training course, with G. S. Pollis of the civil service commission of Canada chairman, and on a private company's executive development training program organized by L. H. Fraser, Imperial Oil Ltd., Toronto. Jean Fournier of the Quebec civil service commission headed the session.

Confederation

Continued from page 10. Story was read and education here. During World War Two he served as a major with army headquarters staff and subsequently commanded the 8th Signal Regiment of Charlottetown as lieutenant-colonel. He is one of the original organizers as well as past president of the Canadian Retail Furniture Association and has also served on Charlottetown City Council and acted as chairman of town planning for the city. Mr. Storey is married and has two grown up children. Along with the announcement of Mr. Storey's appointment, Robert Disherley was confirmed in his appointment as executive assistant to the general manager of the Confederation Centre and director of the theatre. Mr. Disherley has been production manager for one theatre as well as involved in the technical aspects of the entire complex since last October. He came to Charlottetown from the Vancouver Festival and the former Elizabeth Theatre in B.C.

Learning Through Art

A pre-school programme for children of 5 years to school-age at the CONFEDERATION ART GALLERY Monday to Friday — 9 a.m. to 12 noon 3 sessions of 10 weeks each during the school year commencing Monday, October 5, 1964. Fees $5.00 per week, $30.00 per 10 week session. Classes in: PAINTING, CRAFTS, MUSIC, DANCE-DRAMA, ETC. All materials supplied. Register now, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the CONFEDERATION ART GALLERY. Registration fee $10.00, balance to be paid first day of classes.

DRIVE-IN THEATRE

55 DAYS THAT SHUNNED THE WORLD SAMUEL BRONSTEIN with CHARLTON HESTON and AVA GARDNER with DAVID NIVEN

Wright's Ladies' WHITE SATIN SHOES

Just Arrived. Shipment of Ladies' WHITE SATIN SHOES. Illusion heel. Sizes 5 to 9. Only 7.95. We will dry these shoes in your choice of color.

WRIGHT SHOE CO.

Queen Street, Charlottetown

SIR HENRY LINTOTT, British High Commissioner to Canada on behalf of the British Government, Wednesday officially presented a Centennial Fountain, as that country's contribution to the Palaces of Confederation Complex here.

Britain's Regard For P.E.I. Shown By Special Fountain

A symbol of Britain's regard for this province and for Canada was presented yesterday to the Palaces of Confederation. British High Commissioner Sir Henry Lintott presented the new centennial fountain, located near Grafton Street between the Provincial Building and the Confederation Centre museum, in commemoration of the Charlottetown conference of 100 years ago.

SDU High Has Increase In Enrollment

Enrollment figures released by St. Dunstan's High School yesterday revealed an increase of 33 students over those of last year. Total registration figure for classes which begin at the high school this morning is 203, with 143 students in grade 11 and a 60 in grade 12. Principal Rev. Francis Cameron said three of last year's staff, Rev. Wendell MacIntyre, Rev. Francis Ledwell and Henry Gaudet have left this year. They will be replaced by Sister Margaret Blair, CSM, B.A. BEd, who has been teaching in Kingston Mills, Ont. for the past three years. Paul Murphy, Charlotteville, and Herbert Morrison, Pleasant Grove, both B.A. graduates from SDU in 1961, will be joining the staff. Mr. Murphy will teach French on a part-time basis.

EAICERN PARKERS DRIVES

HOSPITAL PATIENT. Mrs. Loretta Robertson, Lower Montague is a patient in the Kings County Hospital, Montague. RETURNS HOME. Mrs. James Blackland, Morell recently returned from an enjoyable trip to Prince Albert, Sask., where she visited her brothers for three weeks. Enroute home she made a brief stopover in Toronto where she visited her niece.

MACDONALD FUNERAL

The funeral of Mrs. Charles MacDonal, 80, of St. John's, was held in St. Mary's church here yesterday. Burial was in the St. Joseph's cemetery.

MARTIN FUNERAL

The funeral for George Martin of New Perth was held from 10 a.m. to 12 noon in St. John's church here yesterday. Burial was in the St. Joseph's cemetery.

LOANS CONSIDERED

Mr. J. C. Dewar said the provincial loan committee will meet later this month to consider a number of applications which have been received from students seeking loans under the Canada Student Loan program. Certificates of eligibility will be issued to successful applicants to enable them to borrow up to $1,000 per year for five years from chartered banks.

WEIR FUNERAL. The funeral for Mrs. W. Weir of 8 West Street, was held yesterday afternoon Sept. 9, 1964 from the Citiello Funeral Home. Service was conducted by Rev. J. G. E. Ball. Burial was in the St. Joseph's cemetery.

Former Islander Dies In Mass.

A former Islander, Mrs. Florence Grover, nee Florence Nicole of White Sands, P.E.I. died in Lexington, Mass. Mrs. Grover was born in White Sands, 72 years ago. She was the eldest daughter of the late William J. and Elizabeth Nicole. She resided in U.S.A. since 1912. She leaves two children, Florence and Elmon, and four brothers (Eliel), Mrs. Spencer S. B. A. Murray, Harbor (Laura), Mrs. Sam Beck, Murray, White Sands, Cape Bear, Earl, Roy and Arnold Nicole, White Sands.

Youth Committed To Supreme Ct.

Four Charlottetown youths involved in a break, entry and theft incident sometime ago appeared yesterday in magistrate's court before Magistrate James B. Johnston, Q.C. One of them, Richard Derrell Castrod, was committed to trial in Supreme Court. The other three, John Wayne Castrod, Stewart Gyalvin Ferguson, and Melvin Alvin Jackson were remanded to Sept. 14 to fix dates for their trials. They had all previously pleaded not guilty to the charges.

Cardigan Sister Dies In U.S.A.

The death occurred at Beltham Infirmary, Framingham, Mass. Sept. 5 of Sister Mary Wilfred, the former Bridget Agnes Sharkey of Cardigan, born in 1874 year. Daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Wilfred, she was teaching in the public schools of Cardigan when she was appointed to St. Joseph's in Massachusetts. She taught for over 30 years at the St. Joseph's School for the Deaf and Dumb in Randolph, Mass.

Three Speeders Fined At S'side

The celebration of her golden jubilee in 1954, she held various offices in her religious order. She is survived by a sister, Margaret, Mrs. J. A. McQuaid, of Vancouver, B.C.; a brother, Charles, William Foley, Berwick, and several nieces and nephews. Interment was in Framingham Mass.

Island Native Dies In Boston

The death occurred suddenly in Boston on Tuesday, Sept. 8 of John Hogan, formerly of this province. Mr. Hogan who was in his 86th year, was born at Trinity Cove, the son of the late Thomas Hogan and Caroline Simpson.

Convicted Of Beer Robbery

GEORGETOWN—Five crown witnesses testified in the case of Eugene Philip MacDonald, Montague, charged with stealing a quantity of beer, property of Louis A. Coombs of Lower Montague, when the case was heard here yesterday by Kings County Magistrate Johnston. J. P. Nicholson, witness heard were Louis Acorn, Lynden Stewart, Roy Campbell, Ronald Peter Jamieson and Coombs. Miss E. Foster.

Administrators End Conference

Sessions on the training of senior administrators and on research and development in the Atlantic Provinces formed the bulk of yesterday's agenda as the Institute of Public Administration of Canada wound up its four-day convention in Charlottetown. Discussions under the former topic included papers on the new federal secretary's training course, with G. S. Pollis of the civil service commission of Canada chairman, and on a private company's executive development training program organized by L. H. Fraser, Imperial Oil Ltd., Toronto. Jean Fournier of the Quebec civil service commission headed the session.

Confederation

Continued from page 10. Story was read and education here. During World War Two he served as a major with army headquarters staff and subsequently commanded the 8th Signal Regiment of Charlottetown as lieutenant-colonel. He is one of the original organizers as well as past president of the Canadian Retail Furniture Association and has also served on Charlottetown City Council and acted as chairman of town planning for the city. Mr. Storey is married and has two grown up children. Along with the announcement of Mr. Storey's appointment, Robert Disherley was confirmed in his appointment as executive assistant to the general manager of the Confederation Centre and director of the theatre. Mr. Disherley has been production manager for one theatre as well as involved in the technical aspects of the entire complex since last October. He came to Charlottetown from the Vancouver Festival and the former Elizabeth Theatre in B.C.

Learning Through Art

A pre-school programme for children of 5 years to school-age at the CONFEDERATION ART GALLERY Monday to Friday — 9 a.m. to 12 noon 3 sessions of 10 weeks each during the school year commencing Monday, October 5, 1964. Fees $5.00 per week, $30.00 per 10 week session. Classes in: PAINTING, CRAFTS, MUSIC, DANCE-DRAMA, ETC. All materials supplied. Register now, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the CONFEDERATION ART GALLERY. Registration fee $10.00, balance to be paid first day of classes.

DRIVE-IN THEATRE

55 DAYS THAT SHUNNED THE WORLD SAMUEL BRONSTEIN with CHARLTON HESTON and AVA GARDNER with DAVID NIVEN

Wright's Ladies' WHITE SATIN SHOES

Just Arrived. Shipment of Ladies' WHITE SATIN SHOES. Illusion heel. Sizes 5 to 9. Only 7.95. We will dry these shoes in your choice of color.

WRIGHT SHOE CO.

Queen Street, Charlottetown

HARASS ROYAL COUPLE

COPENHAGEN (Reuters)—A young man and woman trying a banner calling for freedom for the Greek people tried to leap in front of a carriage carrying visiting King Constantine of Greece and his bride-to-be, Denmark's Princess Anne-Marie, here Wednesday. The couple was seized by police and taken away before the banner was properly unfurled.

NORTH RIVER Drive-In Theatre

HEAVENLY CREATURES TONIGHT ONLY

Advertisement for James Bond movies: FROM RUSSIA WITH LOVE, featuring Sean Connery as James Bond. Includes text about the film and the artist's name.

EVERBODY SINGS WITH THE LISAS

Advertisement for Lisa singing group: EVERYBODY SINGS WITH THE LISAS. Shows 3:30 - 7:30. Includes a photo of the group.

SUPER ADVENTURE UNUSUAL EXCITEMENT

Advertisement for Super Adventure: SUPER ADVENTURE UNUSUAL EXCITEMENT. Starts tomorrow. Shows 3:30 - 7:30. Includes a photo of a man and woman.

AT HIGH NOON or when there was BLOOD ON THE MOON...he was the West's most feared one!

Advertisement for The Gunfight: AT HIGH NOON or when there was BLOOD ON THE MOON...he was the West's most feared one! Shows 3:30 - 7:30. Includes a photo of a man.

Advertisement for Kissin' Cousins: Kissin' Cousins is coming! Shows 3:30 - 7:30. Includes a photo of a man and woman.

STARBUCKS COFFEE. Includes a photo of a coffee cup and the Starbucks logo.