FEATURING FISH Scallops' Delicate Flavor Adds Importance To Meal

Succulent shellfish from our coastal waters have added zest and variety to menus on the continent since the days of the early settlers. Whether served alone or in combination with other foods, their delicate flavor gives importance to any meal.

Autumn is a good time to explore the many ways in which shellfish can bring luxury to your family table at reasonable cost. You may be surprised at the number of possibilities. Here are two suggestions from the Consumer Branch of the Department of Fisheries of Canada.

SEA SCALLOPS SUPREME 1 pound scallops 4 tablespoons heavy cream 4 teaspoons fine dry bread crumbs 4 tablespoons melted butter 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/2 teaspoon pepper 1 1/2 cups milk 1/2 cup cooked noodles 2 tablespoons minced green pepper 2 cups soft bread crumbs 2 tablespoons melted butter 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/2 teaspoon pepper 1 1/2 cups milk 1/2 cup cooked noodles 2 tablespoons minced green pepper

"The Home" Theme Taken At UCW Joint Meeting

The joint meeting of Units One, Two and Three of York UCW met recently in York Hall. The worship service was conducted by Mrs. Elmer Brown. Mrs. Frank Vessey and Mrs. Hilda Lacey were the soloists. The theme was "The Home" and the scripture reading, poems and meditations showed the home theme in the missionary life of a church. This was closed by a prayer for the world.

Mrs. Frank Lacey introduced the new Study Book on Trinidad and Tobago with a quiz. The members were asked a question which Mrs. Lacey answered thus giving a greater knowledge of the life of Trinidad and Tobago. It was decided to have this study at the joint meetings held over these months, and use "God and His Purpose" as the unit group meetings.

The presence of Mrs. Arthur Johnson was unable to attend and the business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Lacey. Mrs. Reuben Yates, The secretary, Mrs. Bev Simpson, called the roll and the minutes of the June meeting.

Mrs. Peter Proud reported a successful strawberry festival in July which she noted greatly in the allocation. The members were informed that their $310 allocation was almost met at the September meeting.

Mrs. Lewis Vessey said and thanking for all help received; a letter from Mrs. Lillian R. Dickson, missionary at Taiwan, Formosa, telling of the work there being done at the work of Mrs. Vessey and other missionary efforts and thank you cards and letters from those who were remembered in times of sickness.

Plans for decorating the church for Thanksgiving were discussed. It was decided also to send a box of used clothing to the UCW depot at Toronto the last week of October. All interested persons were to send clothing at that time to Mrs. Lloyd Vessey, supply secretary.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction. Refreshments were served by committee in charge.

Only as you clearly understand yourself, in respect to the problem as it seems to you, can you hope to become positive and positive in protecting yourself if it comes to that from their childish greed insecure-type performance. M.H.

THE "GOOD L.L. ANGEL TALKS TO YOU" Professional Man

L'il Angel: Mr. Professional Man, I guess you know all about our United Fund campaign. We're trying to raise $258,483 from September 24th to October 20th so that 27 Agencies can carry on their wonderful work.

Mr. Professional Man: Yes, L'il Angel, I know all about it.

L'il Angel: Okay, Mr. Professional Man, will you do two things for us?

Mr. Professional Man: Sure, what are they?

L'il Angel: First, help us spread enthusiasm for the United Appeal. Talk to your friends, talk to everybody about how important it is.

Mr. Professional Man: Okay, L'il Angel, then what?

L'il Angel: Then, talk to yourself. Remember, 27 Agencies are working all year long, so how about helping us all year long too. You can spread your payments out over the whole year if you want. Don't worry about remembering them, we'll remind you or you can give us postdated cheques or tell us to bill regularly or have your secretary remind you or make one big cash donation. Any way at all, it's up to you. Remember the Fair Share Plan, one hour's income per month.

Mr. Professional Man: You're some salesman, L'il Angel, I'll do it.

L'il Angel: Thank you, Mr. Professional Man, that makes you a good L'il Angel too.

Mr. Professional Man: Aw, gee, shucks, L'il Angel.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Recall Past Blessings This Thanksgiving Day

Now at week's end with Thanksgiving Day near, we would, here in the peace and quiet of this island farmhouse, pause to examine its deep significance. And we know that nothing we must take for granted, nothing as "our due." Even the Biblical cup of cold water is so common thing to be received thoughtlessly or without thanks, as those of us, who perhaps in some illness, have learned and ever remembered since then.

But there is not much you may wish there is so little in your life and lowly surroundings for which to be grateful. Bless it be, as you recall, the more or less unceasing a 24-hour routine of the everyday. Yet ever here have not experienced those occasions when perhaps being temporarily laid aside from it, we would have been overjoyed if we could have returned to those same duties? Even to walk across the room, to step as of old along a familiar yard-path, would have been privileged indeed.

"For four years I was blind" a recent and especially interesting summer visitor to Alderlea, related. "And then because of successful treatments and faith's smile, 'I could see!' And listening, one was aware of the profound happiness which had attended this miracle, for which she would ever be grateful, because as is only natural to womenkind, we think it is more satisfying to minister, than to be ministered unto."

For this we are glad, this Thanksgiving Season, and for the maple leaves that glow and burn and drift down "earth to earth" on the wing of an autumn wind.

For the Family, who bear with our errors and shortcomings, and who to the sound of the house in the road, give us joy, we return thanks, and for those who, in any social activity, have taken a shower, or a trip, or a weekend or holiday away from home, and who are being hostess to your club meeting in the near future, if you are entertaining friends, having visitors, taking a trip or have held a shower, or a party, or a social activity.

The number is 4-8806.

heart, as once more in the turn of the seasons, another Thanksgiving Day draws near.

Another Grace. "Noli Credere" - reminds us we can return thanks, "after this given me."

"Because I have been given me, I too, shall give."

Because of Thy great bounty, Lord, Each day I live I send my gifts from Thee.

With every brother that I see, Because the love of help from me.

Because love has been lavished so Upon me, Lord, A word to me that was not meant.

For me to hear, All shall give to those in need, The cold and hungry cloth and food, This shall I show my thanks unto Thee.

Thus staid my thanks unto Thee, Good - night!
