Cadet Will Be Bisley-Bound June 22 For Rifle Competition

Blair MacDonald, the big shot among Island cadet marksmen, is schedlued to be Bisley bound on June 22 to join the world's greatest aggregation of riflemen in annual competition. Chosen after shooting over Connaught Range in Canadian competition last year, Blair, along with a cadet from Saint John, N. B., will represent the Atlantic Provinces in the group of twelve Canadian cadets concentrating at Lounge Pointe Ordnance Depot on June 22 and scheduled to embark on the Empress of England on July second for Liverpool.

Blair, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacDonald of Charlottetown, is a graduate of Prince Street School and Queen Charlotte High School, and following two years at Prince of Wales College will enter on his third year at the fall opening.

The Island Cadets have been represented at Bisley on three previous occasions when Ralph Kennedy, Patrick Landrigan and Carl MacDonald successively carried the banner as students at P. W. C.

Billy MacDonald, son of Lieut. Col. W. J. MacDonald and Mrs. MacDonald and a brilliant student in his Freshman year at St. Dunstan's University, won the right to shoot at Bisley in 1954 but death intervened to cut short what gave promise of being a scholastic career and life of usefulness.

The winning cadets in all cases were coached under the watchful eye of Lieut. Col. MacDonald of Prince of Wales College, who is a crack shot with many major victories to his credit over the local range and at Ottawa.

MAY FORM FRENCH GOV'T

PARIS Reuters — Pierre Pflimin, a leader of the Popular Republican Catholic Party, Wednesday night conditionally agreed to form a new government. But he told President Rene Coty that he would have to consult a party conference today before giving a more definite reply.

Chocolate Soldier Sings In Sick Bed

VICTORIA (CP)—Ill and confined to his bed at 78, Leslie Gaze retains the rich baritone voice once familiar to audiences on this continent and abroad.

Although he's been in bed for two years following a heart attack, he still has the sparkle and vitality of one of the earliest of the performers in musical comedies.

He first sang the role of Lieut. Bumerli in the Chocolate Soldier in his native Australia in 1911, and later toured many ciuntries. A choir soloist since the age of nine, he later took musical lessons in England, where the chance illness of a company star brought Gaze into the lead role Chocolate Soldier is still his favorite among the musicals. "It's a wonderful story," he said. "The music is exactly right, and so full of sparkle."

Mrs. Gaze, with whom he lives here, occasionally plays a record he made in his 60s—Who is Sylvia? The voice is a warm baritone, and production smooth.

The clear projection and resonant tone is still there when Mr. Gaze interrupts his talk to break into song. After his concert career, he and his wife settled in California, and retired to Victoria in 1942.
