Fiddling And Step-Dancing Contest Is Held

Fred McCullough was the popular winner of the first fiddling contest held at the Montague Rink on Monday night, with second and third place going to Eugene Hugh-

REPLY

TO

the advertisement inserted in the press by the King's County Progressive Conservative Ass'n., to the effect that the King's County member is opposed to the proposed P. E. I. - N. B. Causeway.

My attitude is simply stated: I am like any other citizen of Prince Edward Island, deeply interested in improving transportation facilities to the mainland, and I wholeheartedly endorse the survey presently being carried on. I challenge the opposition to produce evidence to the contrary.

Signed,

T. J. Kickham.

Lower Montague Driver Is Winner Of Road-E-O

Ralph Annear of Lower Montague was winner of the teen-age Safe Driving Road-E-O held yesterday at Montague and sponsored by the Junior Board of Trade. Last year's winner, Ralph again came through in first place in this year's competition with a mark of 443 out of a possible 500. Jimmie Beck of Allison placed second, and Rollie White, Montague was in third place.

The Road-E-O was officially opened by Mr. John Hughes, principal of the Montague High School. He congratulated the local Junior Board of Trade for their many excellent and worthwhile projects, including the "Garden of the Gulf" museum, their roadside table project and others, but went on to say that he felt that their most important project was the sponsoring of teen-age safe driving Road-e-o's as this dealt directly with the training of young men and women, which is one of

Charlottetown, as indeed

all of Prince Edward Island,

today welcomes its most distinguished statesman, the Right Honourable Louis S.

St. Laurent, the Prime Minister of Canada — the man who, in the words of the Rt.

Hon. C. D. Howe, "Stands in the Shade of No Man."

These words, we feel certain, are echoed in gratitude

by every Canadian citizen, each of whom has enjoyed in some measure, the tangible results of the efforts of the Liberal Party under his brilliant leadership. The achievements of his government during the past eight years are well known to each of us, as Canadians: to nations friendly, who look to Canada as their hope of peace; to the downtrodden, who look to Canadian shores as a haven; to unfriendly powers, who look to Canada with careful consideration and studied caution in their nefarious designs.

We are proud to welcome this man who has brought to his high office those qualities as have enabled him to lead Canada to heights such as the greatest of statesmen have but dreamed — a kindly gracious man with an abiding courtesy, an abiding honesty, and above all an abiding faith in the nation he has helped to make great.
