Als Upset Ticats 27-21; Argo's Down Rough Riders

An upset 27-21 victory by Montreal Alouettes over Hamilton Tiger-Cats in Montreal Saturday and Toronto Argonauts 19-6 triumph over Ottawa Rough Riders in Toronto Sunday tended to lighten the Big Four football race.

Montreal is now tied with Hamilton with eight points for the league lead, while Toronto follows with four points in second place.Ottawa trails with no wins.

In the Senior Ontario Rugby Football Union Saturday, Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchies blasted Detroit Raiders 5-0, while the front - running Sarnia Golden Bears took it on the chin from second place London Lord 28-14.

DEFENSE BATTLE

At Montreal, the Als, up for the big game, ended the Ticats unbeaten string at four games in a defense battle that left a record Molson stadium crowd of 25,79 stamp.

The fast-improving Als showed better balance than the Cats and were never behind, but the accurate passing of Tom Dublinski, who took over late in the third quarter from Bernie Faloney, threatened to shoot the favored Cats in front before the final gun.

Highly significant from the Montreal viewpoint were the 13 first downs made along the ground by the Als compared with eight for the powerful Ticats.

Sam Etcheverry of the Als fired two touchdown passes—one a 40-yard effort to lanky Bill Mosson and rammed over for a touchddwn himself after gimpy-legged Veryl Switzer had pulled off a 41-yard run.

Bill Hudson, 250-pound tackle, scored Montreal's opening touchdown by blocking Cam Fraser's kick and racing into the end zone to fall on the ball.

FIRST CAT MAJOR

Faloney's 45-yard fling to Ron Howell in the second quarter gave the Cats their first touchdown. They then were blanked until Dublinski hit Paul Dekker from 10 yards out early in the fourth quarter.

Billy Reynolds later cracked over the line from two yards out after Dublinski's passing and Jerry McDougall's running had sparked a big Hamilton drive.

Dublinski, who started off with eight straight pass completions before he missed, was still firing away desperately as the time ran out. His last toss, on the final play of the game, was intercepted by Ed Mitchell.

DOUCETTE, GILCHRIST SHINE

At Toronto's CNE Stadium Sunday, Cookie Gilchrist kicked four field goals and Homebrew quarterback Gerry Doucette passed to Jack Shatto for an unconverted touchdown to lead the Argonaut attack.

It was the first Big Four league game ever played here on a Sunday. A crowd of 25,849 saw the Argos snap a three-game losing streak.

The Argos were in command all the way and held the Rough Riders scoreless until the third quarter when import halfback Dave Thelen crashed over from three yards out for an unconverted touchdown. Argos went ahead 6-0 in the first quarter on Gilchrist's first two field goals and added their touchdown and another field goal in the second to take a 15-0 half time lead.

Ronnie Knox kicked a single early in the quarter to put Argos ahead 16-0 and after the Riders cut the margin to 16-6 on Thelen's touchdown Gilchrist came through with his fourth field goal in the last quarter for Toronto's final points.

Coach Hamp Pool of the Argos pulled a surprise in starting Doucette, veteran Argo homebrew quarter, at the signal-calling spot. He shared the job with Knox, the high-priced former UCLA quarter who hadn't been able to get Argos' offence rolling in their three previous games. Doucette sparked the Toronto team to their first 11 points before Knox took over.

ANOTHER BAD DAY

Frank Tripucka, the former ace passer of Saskatchewan Roughriders had another bad day for Ottawa. Coach Frank Clair, in the hope of restoring Tripucka's confidence, went with him at quarter until midway through the second qharter when he put in homebrew Russ Jackson. The young Canadian quarter did a little better job than Tripucka but he too had trouble in making the Riders' offence click against the hard-charging Argo line.

Mighty Lee Paces Fastest Mile, 2:05-4

HALIFAX (CP) — Moncton horses grabbed a fair portion of the honors at Sackville Downs Saturday night with two wins and a place.

S.H. Horsman's Bookmore and Francis Breau's Jolly Jim scored back-to-back wins in the fourth and fifth heats. B.J. Mitton's Bobby Chips followed Jean's Pride to the wire in the eighth to help pay off a $98.90 exactor.

There were surprises in the featured free-for-all, at least in the first leg where Darn Gold Pick led such favorites as Mighty Glib and Mighty Lee to pay $28.80.

Mighty Lee, track holder for the mile at the downs, wasn't to be denied the second time out. The Prince Edward Island entry hit the wire in 2:05 4-5, the top time of the night.

Only double race winner was Titan Emlen who won in the second and sixth. Leigh McHugh's Hithere was the lead-off winner on the card.

The daily double paid $24.10.

Morell Bantams Capture N.B.-P.E.I. Baseball Ch'ship

Morell Bantams are Maritime baseball finalists.

They made sure of that Saturday afternoon with a convencing 11-5 win over Moncton in the third and deciding game for the New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island championship.

The New Brunswickers won the opener at home 7-6 but lost the second 5-2 at Morell That made Saturday's game in the King's County village the all-important tussle and the Island youngsters left no doubt as to their superiorety.

They now meet the Nova Scotia bantams for the Maritime crown.

Buddy McEwen hurled the winners to their triumph. He held tht vistors to three scattered safeties over the seven-inning distance.

Oligvie, Sharpe and Plante shared hurling duties for the New Brunswickers. Off their slants, the Morell lads slammed out seven base knocks.

The King's County boys garnered four big runs in the first stanza after the Monctonians had scored once in their half of the same inning.

The score stayed at 4-1 until the first of the fourth when the mainlanders struck for four markers. That put them in front 5-4 but Morell went ahead with three tallies in the fifth. They added another in the sixth and three in the seventh to make it an 11-5 ball game.

McEwen had eight strikeouts to his credit and Moncton hurlers fanned half a dozen Morell boys.

McEwen also had a good day at the plate slamming out a triple and single in his four appearances at the plate.

Outfielder Gary McGuire collected two singles in five trips.

Fine Racing Card Seen On Saturday

About 500 persons witnessed a fine afternoon race card Saturday at Charlotetown Driving Park.

The program, presented by Frank 'Duck' Acorn, had plenty of thrills and drivers gave it as much as on any race card this season.

There wasn't a double dash winner on the eight-dash program and some real nifty pays were in evidence at the mutuels.

Race winners were Taurida Bay, Myrtle's Pride, Pearl Mac, Helen's Dream, Blake Hanover, Ted Genessee, Nell's Lad and Sky Prince. It was the Prince who stepped the afternoon's fastest mile, 2.10:2

Helen's Dream provided the greatest upset by capturing the sixth dash. The six-year-old Jolity gelding paid $34.90 to win and combined with Ted Genessee for a $141.60 daily double.

Other horses paying in double figures were Myra's Pride, $15.00, and Nell's Lad $11.70.

The exactor of Nell's Lad and Cathy Clegg was worth $40.20 and he quinella, Blake Hanover and Armond's Buddy, paid $6.90.

The first daily double of Myra's Pride and Pearl Mac, paid off to the tune of $36.90.

Moncton Juniors Beat Island Team

A hustling and powerful band of Moncton youths walloped Peakes-Morell team 15-1 yesterday in the first game of a best-of-three series for the New Brunswick Prince Edward Island junior baseball crown.

The game played at Peakes before a large Sunday crowd saw the Monctonians display power in all department and win easily from the Prince Edward Island champions.

Remaining games in the series are scheduled for Moncton later this week. It was actually a 16-1 ball game when play was halted with the home team coming to bat in the last of the ninth. However heavy rain came down and plate umpire Wall called the contest with the score reverting to the end of the eighth. Moncton had scored one in the ninth but it was wiped off the score sheet. That one came as the downpour let loose.

The winners jumped into a 1-0 lead in the first, added a pair in the second and then broke things wide open with eight big tallies in the third. After that they scored three times in he fifth and once in the eighth to give them their 15 total.

The Island champs tallied their lone marker in the fourth. They had another great chance to break through in the seventh when three straight singles loaded the bases with none out. However, Wayne Jones who hurled the visitors to victory, settled down and got the side out without a runner crossing home plate.

Jones allowed the Islanders only five hits and he fanned ten. He issued one base on balls and hit one batter. Basil Gillan was the only hitter to get two hits off his offerings.

Louis McGuire started for Morell-Peakes and was touched for 14 runs and 15 hits before giving way to 'Lefty' Dunn with two out in the fifth. Lefty hurled the rest of the distance and yielded three base knocks. One unearned run came home in the eighth.

Moncton shortstop P. Boiron led the winners at the plate with a booming five-for-six performance. One of his belts was a home run, the other four were singles.

R. Dupois also got credit for a homer when he knocked one just over the shallow left field fence.

H. Wall of Moncton was plate umpire. Charlie Ryan and George Kelley worked the bases.

Pale Hose, Giants Increase Individual League Margins

Sunday was a good day for the league leaders.

Chicago's White Sox boosted their American League margin to 5½ games when they defeated Boston 3-1 as Cleveland Indians were losing twice to New York 2-1 and 1-0.

San Francisco's Giants extended their National League lead to two games over both Los Angeles and Milwaukee. The Giants nipped Philadelphia 1-0 to pick up a full game on the Dodgers, who dropped a 4-3 decision to Pittsburgh, and the Braves, who were beaten 3-2 by Cincinnati.

In other games, Chicago's Cubs shut out St. Louis 8-0, Washington whipped Detroit 5-1 and Kansas City swept a doubleheader from Baltimore 9-5 and 4-1.

FIVE-HIT WIN

Jack Sanford hurled a five-hitter against his former Philly teammates but he needed help from Mike McCormick who got the final out in the ninth. The Giants' lone run came in the second inning when loser Don Cardwell gave up singles to Orlando Cepeda and Willie Kirkland, a walk to Hobie Landrith and a sacrifice fly to pinch - hitter Dusty Rhodes.

The Phillies threatened in the eighth and ninth innings. Richie Ashburn singled in the eighth and pinch-hitter Wally Post followed with a double but Ashburn was out trying to score, Harry Anderson doubled with one out in the ninth. After Gene Freeze sent Willie Mays to the centre field wall for his long fly, McCormick came in and got Ed Bouchee to fly to Mays for the final out.

Eddie Kasko's fourth hit, an eighth inning single, scored Frank Robinson with the Cincinnati run that broke a 2-2 tie with Milwaukee. Bob Purkey was the winner. Warren Spahn, attempting to reach the 20 victory mark for the 10th time, suffered his 14th loss. The defeat napped a seven-game Milwaukee victory string.

HOMERS RUIN DODGERS

Four Pittsburgh home runs ruined the Dodgers and ended their five - game winning streak. They were hit by Roman Mejias, Bob Skinner, Dick Stuart and Hank Foiles, the latter's coming in the seventh to snap a 3-3 deadlock. Ronnie Kline was the winner. Clarence Churn, in relief, was the loser.

Ernie Banks drove in five runs for the Cubs with a single, sacrifice fly and his 41st homerun as sophomore Glen Hobbie blanked the Cards with three hits for his 15th victory. Ken Boyer, who had hit in 29 straight games for the Cards, failed to get a hit.

Billy Goodman's first home run in two years enabled the White amein the fourth with one o Sox to beat the Red Sox. It came in the fourth with one on, off loser Frank Sullivan. Buck Shaw won his 1th for Chicago.

MANTLE' HOMER

Mickey Mantle's 29th home run coming with man on base in the bottom of the 11th, won the opener for the Yankees. The blow wiped out a 1-0 lead built by Cleveland for southpaw Jack Harshman in the top of the 11th. Duke Maas hurled a six-hit shutout for his fifth triumph over Cleveland, in the nightcap. Singles by Yogi Berra and Hector Lopez in the sixth, sandwiched around a sacrifice by Ellie Howard, accounted for the lone run off rookie Jim Perry.

Kansas City rallied for five runs in the 10th to beat Baltimore in the opener and Buddy Daley coasted to his 16th triumph with a six - hitter in the nightcap. A two-run bases - loaded double by pinch-hitter Roger Maris broke a 4-4 tie in the opener.

Eagles Trounce Fort Augustus

The Georgetown Eagles were declared Kings County Intermediate baseball champions after winning a sudden death game from Fort Augustus by a score of 15-5. The game was played yesterday at Vernon River and despite cold, showery weather a good number of fans were on hand for the final game.

The Eagles scored runs in every inning and lead by a score of 7-2 at the end of the third. Fort Augustus put the pressure on in the third and fifth and were able to come up with two runs in each and scored their final run in the seventh.

Prosper of the Eagles was the star of the game in scoring three runs. The game was called in the start of the ninth due to rain.

Bert Olmstead Reports To Leafs

PETERBOROUGH (CP)—Winger Bert Olmstead reported to Toronto Maple Leafs' training camp Sunday, the final member of last season's National Hockey League club to arrive.

Olmstead, apparently a contract holdout, arrived without comment. Manager-coach George Imlach said Saturday that he and Olmstead were in agreement on all points and "everything should pan out okay."

The veteran forward joined Leafs last season from Montreal Canadiens and was a big help in their late-season drive to reach the playoffs.

The first scrimmage was held Sunday with Leafs and Rochester Red Wings, their American Hockey League farm club, playing to a 4-4 tie. The two teams exchanged several players for the practice game.

Hawks Open Training Camp

ST. CATHARINES (CP)—Chicago Black Hawks opened training camp here Sunday with a total of 66 players, largest camp in the history of the Chicago organization.

Manager Tommy Ivan said the club would break with tradition and hold practices in three shifts instead of the usual two.

"We want to take a good look at all the players before deciding on whether to keep them with Chicago or send them to Buffalo, Calgary or Sault Ste. Marie" said Ivan. "We're keeping an open mind and all positions with the big team are wide open."

Mount Stewart Captures Crown

Mount Stewart baseball team won the Intermediate "B" Island championship and the right to play mainland winners for Maritime honors by defeating Tignish at Summerside in a sudden-death contest by the score of 10-6.

Mount Stewart took an early 4-2 lead, faltered in the middle frames to fall behind 5-4, and then finished strong.

A. Coffin, the winning pitcher, gave up 10 hits, struck out 7, walked 7 and hit one. Leo Richard started for Tignish, went seven innings and was charged with the loss. He was touched for 12 hits, struck out 8, walked one and hit one. Relief pitcher Cavin pitched the last two innings, gave up 2 hits and wiffed two.

Garth Affleck, Mount Stewart second sacker, led the attack with five singles in five tries. He stole two bases, and was credited with 3 rbi's T. MacEachern specialized on the long ball hitting two triples in 5 trips. A. Coffin hit a trio of doubles in 5 attempts. D. Jay had 2 for 4, and R. MacDonald 2 for 5.

For Tignish L. Richard and Gerald Keough each hit 2 for 4, Gerald McCarthy 2 for 5, and Alban Arsenaut went all the way to third on his lone hit in five trips. Tignish were less steady in the field having 6 boots to 2 miscues by Mount Stewart.

Minto Miners Shut Out Aces

MINTO (CP) — Minto Miners trampled Charlottetown Rollaway Aces 9-0 here Saturday in opening a best-of-three series for the New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island Intermediate 'A' softball championship.

Cam Fulton hurled a two-hitter for Minto.

Ralph Pineau started for the Aces, being relieved by Henry Hartinger in the seventh inning.

Runs by the Miners were all unearned, with costly errors being cause of the runs.

Bill Coughlan of Charlottetown handled the game.

Lions Shut Out Park Team 4-0

Barry's Lions, in an exhibition softball tilt at the National Park diamond Sunday afternoon, blanked the Park all-stars 4-0. The game slated to go nine innings, was called off in the 7th on account of rain.

Art Ballem, pitching very good ball, limited the Park crew to one hit. John Hughes was the losing hurler.

Neale Fraser, Mario Bueno Win U.S. Tennis Crowns

By WILL GRIMSLEY

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—Australia's Neale Fraser smothered a listless Alex Olmedo 6-3, 5-7, 6-2, 6-4 Sunday and joined Mario Bueno of Brazil in an unprecedented foreign sweep of singles titles in the United States national tennis championships.

Miss Bueno, unemotional 19-year-old daughter of a Sao Paulo professional, added the U.S. title to her Wimbledon women's championship by crushing Britain's six-foot Christine Truman, 6-1, 6-4.

It was the darkest day for American tennis since this historic tournament was started back in the hoop-skirt era in 1881.

DOUBLES TOO!

Foreign players not only won both the men's and women's singles crowns but composed both finals—the first time in history—and even took a major share of the mixed doubles laurels.

Coming on the heels of the surprise defeat in the Davis Cup challenge round, the indignities heaped on Uncle Sam in his own private championship was hard to swallow.

Even Olmedo, the lend - lease product from Arequipa, Peru, was a bitter disappointment. He put up only token resistence against the lefthanded Australian Davis Cup hero, who knocked most of the tarnish off Olmedo's crown as the world's ranking amateur.

Fraser, now having beaten the Peruvaian twice in important international engagements since Olmedo won at Wimbledon, may even be rated the best in amateur tennis and the prize target of professional promoter Jack Kramer.

SHOULDER AILMENT

Olmedo's poor showing — particularly after his fine triumphs over Australia's Roy Emerson and Ron Holmberg — be attributed to a shoulder ailment developed overnight.

Nothing, however, should be allowed to detract from Fraser's well-deserved triumph.

The lefthanded Melbourne star, who becomes the fourth in a succession of Australian winners of the U.S. title, is a vastly improved player over the one who lost to Almedo in the 1958 Australian finals at Adelaide and who was beaten by Barry MacKay in the quarter-finals at Wimbledon.

Braves Purchase Enos Slaughter

NEW YORK (AP) — Milwaukee Braves Friday bought the old pro of baseball, Enos Slaughter, from New York Yankees.

Slaughter will not be eligible to play in the world series if the Braves win the National League pennant, but apparently Milwaukee felt the famous slugger, now 43, would be of help in the stretch drive.

Slaughter achieved his greatest fame playing with the St. Louis Cardinals from 1938 to 1958. He is the last active player of the famous gas house gang of the Cardinals.

Used principally as a pinch hitter by the Yankees this year, his batting average this year is .172 in 99 times at bat, with 17 hits of which six were home runs and two were doubles. Last year, however he hit .304.

Whether the Braves paid above the waiver price of $20,000 was not revealed.

Johansson Inks Pact For Tour

GOTEBORG, Sweden (AP)—Ingemar Johansson signed a contract with New York promoter Andy Neiderreiter Friday under which the heavyweight king will tour Mexico, Cuba, Central and South America.

Johansson will get an estimated $100,000 and expenses for the month's tour starting about Dec. 1. Johansson's longtime advisor, Edwin Ahlquist, disclosed.

WESTERN UNIVERSITY

The University of Saskatchewan at Saskatoon started its operations in 1909.

D.V. MacDonald Captures Belvedere Championship

Don V. MacDonald of Charlottetown won the Belvedere Club championship over the weekend in one of several tourneys staged at the local course.

MacDonald defeated defending champ Harry Simmons 2-and-1 in a bitterly fought 36-hole final.

The new champ was one up after the first 18 holes Sunday morning and increased his lead to 5 in the afternoon round. MacDonald later stayed off a determined bid by Simmons, who picked up three birdies, a good effort but not enough to overcome MacDonald's lead.

A total of 71 golfers competed in another tourney, the Men's Nation-wide best-ball-battle for the Canadian best ball championship.

The tourney, a cross-Canada affair, is decided by each club's score on each of the eighteen holes. The club with the lowest score wins the championship. The local team shot an amazing 17-under-par 55.

Three eagles were carded on par-5 holes, the equivalent of a hole-in-one on par-3 holes. Doug Saunders, Harry Simmons and Doug Fraser were the three sharpshooters.

Two other championships were decided on Saturday.

LEADS FOR SEAGRAMS

A.G. MacMillan captured the low gross in the competition for the Seagrams' trophy, with a terrific even par-72, over a wind-swept course. He was followed closely by long-hitting Doug Fraser who carded a 74.

A.G. MacMilan and Dr. T. Laidlaw will play a handicap match this week for the trophy.

Club pro Cecil Dowling was overheard commenting that these were two of the best rounds carded this year at the club, considering the disturbing high winds.

Low net was captured by Dr. T. Laidlaw with a 61. Irving Buchanan grabbed the runner-up spot with a 63.

SETS RECORDS FOR SENIORS

In the senior championships, 51-year-old Johnny MacDonald, super-intendent of the Charlottetown Golf Club, set a new record for senior competition at Belvedere.

The senior member shot an exceptional 4-over-par 76. Runner-up was H.F. Jardine with an 86. Two golfers were tired for low net, Jack Bishop and Jack Wilson shot identical rounds of 73.

Trap, Skeet Shoot Result

Following are the results of last Saturday's trap and skeet shooting. A good crowd turned out to take a crack at the clay targets and almost everyone was anxious to get a few rounds in, in preparation for the big provincial Trap and Skeet championship which will be held at the Charlottetown Gun Club a week from today. This shoot promises to be the largest ever held here in Charlottetown and will attract gunners from every point on the Island.

Cullen, Cushenan Are Standouts

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (CP)—A former Toronto Maple Leaf and an ex - Montreal Canadien are among the standout performers at New York Rangers' National Hockey League training camp here.

Brian Cullen, from Leafs, scored two goals in Sunday's inter-squad game. He teamed with Dean Prentice and Ken Schinkel, last year's American Hockey League scoring champion with Springfield Indians, in an impressive line.

Prentice scored one goal and Schinkel was robbed by goalie Gump Worsley of two brilliant rushes.

Ian Cushenan, acquired from Montreal, has been one of the big men on defence in early scrimmages. Ranger coach Phil Watson has been impressed with his rugged play and hard-working style.
