

Sports Scribes Reaction Leans Toward Criticism

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Reaction of Canadian sports writers to football commissioner Sydney Halter's serialized version of the Grey Cup spectacle varied but indelibly weighed toward criticism.

Halter, sports editor of the Toronto Telegram notes that "Halter was accused by one writer (during the telecast) of scuttling and selling out the national (football) final to an American television network at the expense of Canadian fans and $25,000."

Walker comments that this "sheer nonsense" because, he says, an American Broadcasting Company crew spent Friday evening studying clips of the Montreal-Hamilton semi-final to show the event that the Grey Cup contest could not be shown.

He says Halter was "thrilled" by an "unavoidable" spot and "even now, with some of the heat off, I'm glad it wasn't me who had to make the decision."

Tom Melville, Regina Leader-Post: The decision to play the remaining minutes... Sunday was the only one the commissioner could make... it is a pity that the show hadn't been

CPGA Names Two Players For Tourney

MONTREAL (CP) — The Canadian Professional Golfers' Association announced Monday that Stan Leonard of Vancouver and Alvie Thompson of Toronto have been selected to represent Canada at next week's Mexican international golf championship in Mexico City.

Pat Fletcher of Royal Montreal, CPGA president, said in making the announcement names of top Canadian pros were considered on the basis of performances in Canada this year with particular emphasis on the CPGA championship held last August in Toronto.

Thompson, 28, an assistant pro at Toronto's Northwood Club, was the No. 1 choice because of his victories in the CPGA event and the Manitoba Open.

Rams Make Terry Baker No. 1 Pick In Draft Mon.

By JACK HAND
CHICAGO (AP) — The last place Los Angeles Rams pounced on Terry Baker, Oregon State's fine quarterback and Heisman Trophy winner, as the No. 1 pick in Monday's draft of collegians by the National Football League.

In sharp contrast to the rival American Football League, whose San Diego Chargers did not select Baker until the 12th round, the Rams quickly chose the six-foot-three, 195-pound senior from Portland, Ore., who threw 15 touchdown passes and gained 2,276 yards this year. NFL, AFL or Canada. This draft merely certified negotiating rights in the NFL.

SEEK LINEMEN

Baker has indicated he wants to play pro ball but he still has a game to play against Villanova in the Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia Dec. 15 as well as the basketball season.

Eloy Hirsch, general manager of the Rams, said he talked to Baker about 10 days ago and was told he was interested in playing in the NFL. However, Baker also has a fall offer from Toronto Argos, reportedly for $100,000. Toronto Argos have been reportedly interested in Baker.

It took the NFL brass three hours, 30 minutes to complete the first round of 14 players on its way to the final total of 290 players in 20 rounds. Of course, any boy is free to sign with the

Can. Speedskater Says Condition Rather Good

VALLA D'ALE N. Sweden (AP) — "My overall condition is in fact rather good," Canadian speedskater Paul Enock said Monday from his wheelchair.

Halter had every reason to allow the game to start... hindsight dictates that no effort should have been made to resume play after half-time.

Unsolved Problems of Tuberculosis

Anti-tuberculosis "wonder drugs" inhibit the growth of T.B. bacteria, we don't have one that will kill the germ.

The average length of drug treatment in tuberculosis is 1 1/2 - 2 years.

Accelerated research is being instituted to discover a more effective drug, and a better vaccine to cut down the time element in treatment and to prevent infection.

The P.E.I. Tuberculosis League needs your help to support research, as well as its education and prevention programme.
