Successful Concert At Tryon Hall

The variety concert, held in Tryon Baptist Hall, on Friday, May 14, and sponsored by the Tryon and North Tryon Women's Institutes, was presented to a packed house. Many were turned away because even standing room was not available. The audience was most appreciative and enthusiastic, inspiring the performers to do their very best. It would be difficult to mention any star performance, as all the actors and entertainers seemed to please the audience. Perhaps the most hilarious moment of the evening came when the curtain was pulled back to reveal seven of the community well known residents attired as infants for the "Baby Show."

The concert opened and closed with choral numbers sung by the school children of both districts. The senior group's final selection was "The Island Hymn", which they followed by "The Queen". Mrs. C. D. Wright accompanied the children, and they were directed by Wm. A. Jones.

Mr. Roy Dawson, secretary of the Tryon School Board, was chairman and the programme was as follows:

"Pop Goes The Weasel", "Venice" and "There Were Three Crows"—Junior School Children's chorus.

"Polly Put the Kettle On"—One act play—Tryon Women's Institute. Cast: Mrs. Austin Smith, Miss Addie Halliwell, Miss Florence Mabey, Mrs. Sheldon Howatt, Mrs. Marjorie Howatt and Misses Mildred Howatt and Helen Brown.

"Nothing To Laugh At"—reading—Arthur Callbeck.

"The Blue Danube"—duet—Mrs. Sheldon Howatt and Mrs. Raymond Wood, accompanied by Mrs. Vivian Bartlett.

"Baby Show"—babies—Messrs. Otto Johnson, Norman Wood, Hillis Cairns, Asher Howatt, Max Lefurage, Gerald Best and Austin Smith.

Mothers—Mrs. Earl Mabey, Mrs. Hillis Cairns, Mrs. Arthur Thomson, Mrs. Lloyd Howatt, Mrs. George Robbles, Mrs. Percy Howatt and Mrs. Walton Toombs.

Judge—Mr. Everett Howatt.

"Star Child" and "Secrets"—vocal solos—Barbara Smith, accompanied by Mrs. C. D. Wright.

"Duna" and "Home on the Range"—vocal solos—Mr. Norman MacDonald, accompanied by Miss Ethel Inman.

"From Night"—one act play—North Tryon Women's Institute. Cast: Miss Mildred Dawson, Mrs. Archie Thomson, Mrs. Charles Roberts, Miss Helen Howatt, Mr. Burt Thomson, Mr. Charlie Thomson, and Mr. Archie Thomson.

"The Merry Peasant", "Oh Dear, What Can the Matter Be" and "The Island Hymn"—Senior school children's chorus.

"The Queen".

Mrs. William Arthur Jones directed the one act plays.

Following the programme, lunches were sold, and a social half-hour enjoyed.

NEW ACADIA W.I.

The members of the Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Gus Peters on April 8 for their regular meeting. The meeting was opened by repeating the Creed.

Roll call was answered by 15 members and six visitors. The minutes of March meeting were read and approved.

Committees reported as follows: school needs soap and paper towels; sick, no report.

Committees for April are: school scrubbing committee; sick, same as March.

The secretary attended the leadership course in the absence of the president, and a report was given on the programme, also some good ideas on planning a district convention.

Donations of remittances were received from both Simpson's and Eaton's and were given out at the meeting to be made into articles to be sold at some future meeting. A letter of "thanks" will be sent to both Simpson's and Eaton's for their lovely donations of remittances.

The women of St. Charles' handed in $11.25, proceeds from a card play. The Government grant was received. The Line and Burk's Road South will be in charge for cleaning the school for April.

Institute News was passed around to members who will pay for same at next meeting.

A letter was received from the director of first aid acknowledging the letter regarding the cancelling of first aid at St. Charles for the time being, but wishing to see the course reorganized again.

Lunch was served by hostess in charge and a social hour was enjoyed by all. Patty Peters entertained members by singing some very nice songs.

Mrs. Maurice Dodecette invited the members to her home for May meeting, after which the meeting was adjourned.

Successful Variety Concert Repeated

The variety concert which was staged in the King George Hall, Kensington by the school district of Indian River, some time ago and repeated on Monday night, May 5 in Hamilton Hall, proved very successful in entertainment and in finances which are raised for the building fund of the new school.

Messrs. Thos. Humphrey performed the duty as chairman in Kensington while Mr. Lloyd Lockery acted as the Hamilton concert. Two one-act comedies were very well presented; each member of the cast taking their respective parts in a very realistic manner.

In the first, a very active little drama, Mrs. Russell Campbell and Mrs. Daniel Noonan, playing the part of two maiden ladies, brought out very amusingly the events of an evening in their home, when they had a visitor, a shy young man who later proved himself a relative. This part was very well taken by Mr. Keith Mann. This scene gave the audience much cause to smile.

Mr. Donald MacLellan played a very professional part, in the second comedy. From his apparent absent-mindedness, the writing of a speech and washing dishes are duties that cannot be attended to at the same time, and when a young lady, Miss Agatha MacLellan, took refuge in his apartment, he was more confused than ever. Her sudden appearance brought still another visitor, Mr. Andrew Turner, with more amusing complications. The part of a relative was well taken by Mrs. Louis Rogers.

The many deceiving and perplexed situations throughout this scene were well performed and applauded by the audience. Mr. Allan MacLellan supplemented his brother's part with equally as good acting in the second performance.

Pleasing musical numbers included vocal solos, Miss Donalds MacDonald, duets by the Misses Margaret and Jean Murray, Kensington, with Rev. L. Murray, their father, as accompanist, Rozita and Koreen Hickey guitar accom. and Janet Mann and Eleanor Hickey.

Impersonation and song: Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean was very favourably done by the Mann children and Mr. Paul Gallant rendered some very fine accordion selections.

Lively instrumental music was played during intermission by Mr. Walter Rogers, violin, Rozita Hickey, guitar, with Mrs. Edgar Hickey as accompanist.

Much credit is due all taking part in this fine performance also to Mrs. E. C. MacLellan, Mrs. Austin MacLellan, Mrs. Keith Mann, Mrs. Edgar Hickey for their assistance in preparing the plays.

LONDON — (CP) — A dull whistling sound puzzled the audience

Tignish Shore

Among the recent visitors at the Shore were Rev. J. A. MacDonald, P.P., Mr. J. Dunbar, Alma, Mr. Leo McDougall and Mr. and Mrs. A. DesRoches, Tignish.

Mrs. Joseph Doucette and Mr. E. J. Arsenault, who were both patients in the Western Hospital, have returned to their homes fully recovered.

The regular meeting of the Home and School Association was held last week with Mr. Ben J. Pitre presiding. There was considerable discussion re school improvements and it was decided to paint the ceiling of the school room within the next few days. The president thanked the teacher for his help and encouragement during the past year.

A special meeting of the St. Thomas Aquinas Society was held on April 30 with Mrs. Edmond Gaudet presiding. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Ben J. Pitre and Mr. Cyril Gaudet presented the treasurer's report. Mr. P. A. Arsenault addressed the meeting and encouraged everyone to continue to work in the interests of this worthwhile society which has already and is continuing to do so much for education.

The pupils of Tignish Shore School presented their three act play in the parish hall at Tignish on April 29 in the presence of a large and appreciative audience. Rev. Denis Gallant acted as chairman and introduced the cast. Mr. Henry Gaudet played the accompaniments. At the conclusion of the performance the pastor, Rev. J. A. MacDonald, thanked and congratulated the pupils, teacher and parents of Tignish Shore for their wonderful performance. A good sum of money was realized for the parish funds.

KINGSTON BRANCH CANADIAN LEGION
The monthly meeting of the Kingston Branch No. 20 Canadian Legion, B.B.L. was held in the Legion Home, Charlottetown, on May 8, at 8.30 p.m. Twenty members attended the meeting, which was presided over by the president, Comrade Andy MacEachern. The meeting opened with the roll call of officers and the minutes were read and approved. During the business part of the meeting the financial statement was read by the treasurer, Comrade Ray Bruce, and three new members were enrolled. It was moved by Comrade Michael Murphy and seconded by Eugene McQuillan that comrade James Berrigan, Wilfred Stretch, Whitfield Yeo, Judson MacPhee and Ray Bruce be on the Ways and Means Committee. With no further business the meeting came to a close with the usual Legion procedure.
