IN MEMORIAM

JAMES MATTHEW CAHILL
There passed peacefully away at Beach Grove on July 11th 1958 James Matthew Cahill in his 87th year.

Mr. Cahill or "Jim" as he was fondly known by his many friends, was born at Kildare, P. E. I., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cahill.

Possessed of a very jovial nature he was loved by all who knew him.

In 1892 he married Mary Alice Mullaly who predeceased him in 1949. His early life was spent at Kildare, engaged in the fish- ing business.

The deceased was a great lover of the sea and in 1908 took part in the rescue of the crew of the Schooner "McKein" for which deed he was presented with a sil- ver watch by the Canadian Gov- ernment.

In 1912 he and his family moved to Charlottetown, later to Southport, where he was employ- ed by Dr. Leo Frank, at the Rosebank Fur Farms.

Upon his retirement he resided at home with his son Carlyle, and daughter - in - law, in Southport. A few months before his death he had the misfortune of a seri- ous fall, which necessitated his admittance to the Charlottetown Hospital. After some weeks treat- ment he was removed to Beach Grove for further convalescence but God willed otherwise and he gradually grew weaker until on the above mentioned date, his gentle spirit entered its eternal home to meet his Saviour.

The deceased was a devoted member of Saint Dunstan's Bas- ilica and also of the Holy Name Society. During his illness he was visited by his Pastor the Rev. Father Corcoran who also adminis- tered unto him the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church.

There are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father, two sons and two daughters, namely, Mrs. Fred DeCoste (Ade- line), Charlottetown; Mrs. George Higgins (Patricia), Summerside; Lawrence, Summerside and Car- line. Also surviving is one sister Mrs. Catherine Conroy, Brooklyn N.Y. and eleven grandchildren. Six daughters predeceased him in their tender years.

The funeral which was largely attended took place, Monday morning, July 14th at 9 o'clock from the Hennessy Funeral to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Re- quiem High Mass was solemn- ized by Rev. Father Reid who also officiated at the grave. The Rev. Joseph Trainor occupied a seat in the Sanctuary.

Burial took place in the family plot in the Roman Catholic Ce- metery.

"May his Soul rest in Peace."

The pallbearers were Charles Trainor, Joseph Burns, Owen McGarry, John Aylward, William McCarron and Dr. James Higgins.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late James Cahill wish to convey their heart- felt thanks to the Redemptist Fathers, the clergy of Saint Dun- stan's Basilica Parish, also those
