A Spider's Musical Ear.

During the entire summer until late in the autumn a large black hunting spider (Lycoea) dwelt in my piano. When I played andante movements softly, she would come out on the music rack and seem to listen. Her palpi would vibrate with almost inconceivable rapidity, while every now and then she would lift her anterior pair of legs and wave them to and fro and up and down. Just as soon, however, as I commenced a march or galop she would take to her heels and flee away to her den somewhere in the interior of the piano, where she would sulk until I enticed her forth with "Traumerel" or Handel's "Largo."—Dr. Wier's Dawn of Reason.

Only Official Use of "Rebel."

In the public square of Santa Fe is a soldiers' memorial monument which is said to be the only one in the United States that bears the word "rebel" as applied to the soldiers of the Confederate army. The inscription reads:

To the Heroes of the Federal Army Who Fell at the Battle of Valverde, Fought with the Rebels Feb. 21, 1862.

On the other side a second inscription pays a similar tribute to the soldiers of the Federal army who fell in a fight with the "rebels" at Canon del Apache and La Glorieta pass March 28, 1862.

His Idea of It.

"Don't you fear the strong arm of the law?" asked the friend. "Not always," answered the pugilist who was engaged in preparations for a meeting. "There's no doubt about the law's having a strong arm, but it's like the rest of us. It spends a great deal of time talking things over when it might be reaching for some one's solar plexus."—Washington Star.

Haunted.

Little Virginia—My mamma says you live in a haunted house. Little Winnie—The idea! We don't either. Nobody ever heard of a ghost being inside of our house. Little Virginia—Yes, but it's always haunted by a crowd of collectors.—Chicago News.

"To what may I attribute the honor of this call?" "A pair of aces."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Tracing a Pair of Trousers.

Lord Brampton was on one occasion presiding over a case in which the plaintiff was giving evidence against a man who had stolen a pair of trousers from his shop. "How much were the trousers?" queried Hawkins.

"Well," replied the plaintiff, "it depends upon who wants to buy them. I sell them to one man for 30 shillings, to another for 25, but you can have them for 23 and 6."

"Sir," cried Hawkins angrily, "I want you to tell me how much those trousers are worth!"

"Well," replied the plaintiff, "shall we say 22 shillings to you?" "Look here," thundered Hawkins, "if you do not instantly tell me what those trousers are worth. I'll send you to jail for 14 days for contempt of court."

"Well, well!" replied the frightened plaintiff conciliatingly, "you may have them for a guinea. I'm giving them away; still you may have them at that price."

Even the stern aspect of Judge Hawkins could not stop the roar of laughter which broke out on hearing the reply, a roar in which Hawkins, after a few minutes, joined himself.

TANSTEAD JUNIOR, P. Q., 12th Aug. 1893.

Messrs C C Richards & Co.

GENTLEMEN,—I fell from the bridge leading from a platform to a loaded car while assisting my men in unloading a load of grain. The bridge went down as well as the load on my back, and I struck on the ends of the sleepers, causing a serious injury to my leg. Only for its being very fleshy, would have broken it. In an hour could not walk a step. Commenced using MINARD'S LINIMENT, and the third day went to Montreal on business and got about well by the use of a cane. I can sincerely recommend it as the best liniment that I know of in use.

Yours truly,
C. H. Gordon.

The Tail of a Cat.

Every one can tell a cat's tail from a dog's, but it seems that the movements of each do not mean the same thing. For instance, when a dog wags his tail from side to side, that is held to be a sign of friendship and peace, and it will usually be found, according to Dr. W. Main, that this, the horizontal line, is the line of peace. There is, however, one conspicuous exception to this rule, for when tomcat waves his tail in such a fashion, so far from his being an indication of his desire for peace, the movement generally precedes an attack. Dr. Main thinks it possible that this seemingly peaceful action of the tail when really about to attack may have given rise to the charge of treachery so freely made against pussy.

All in the Game.

"Here is a terrible thing," commented the young thing, looking up from the paper. "A young man attacked his wife with a poker and was only stopped by the screams of the woman, which attracted a passerby, who summoned the police."

"Ah, a poker game," replied the major. "The gentleman 'passed' the lady 'saw him' and 'called.'—Pittsburg Chronicle.

JAPANESE CATARRH CURE CURES.

The following testimonial is only one of the hundreds daily received by the Proprietors of Japanese Catarrh Cure. Coming from British Columbia, where, owing to extreme dampness of the climate, catarrh is more prevalent and more difficult to cure than in other parts, makes it more valuable. Mr. James Farr, of the well-known firm of J. & E. A. Farr, Chilliwack, B.C., writes: "I have been very badly troubled with catarrh for years, and tried all the advertised remedies and many Doctors, but in every case the catarrh came back. One year ago I purchased six boxes of Japanese Catarrh Cure, and since finishing the treatment with this remedy, have not felt the least sign of catarrh. My nephew, William Bentley, was also so bad with catarrh that it was unpleasant to go near him; he has also been cured by Japanese Catarrh Cure. We keep it for sale in our store, and know of many similarly afflicted, who have been cured." Japanese Catarrh Cure is guaranteed to cure any case of catarrh. Sold by all Druggists. A free sample will be sent to any person suffering with this disease. Enclose five cent stamp. Address the Griffiths & Macpherson Co., Toronto. [111]

("Let the Sunshine of Prayers Illuminate the dark places of Theory")

A THOROUGHLY Progressive, Practical Institution, in which young men and women not only taught Bookkeeping (in all its applications to Commerce) both by single and double entry, but are trained how to do business by actual business transactions. The students act as buyers, sellers, traders, bankers, book-keepers and accountants in actual business operations, and the currency issued by the College Bank, and the merchandise from the Emporium are used in bona-fide business transactions, just the same as in mercantile and banking houses. Book-keeping in itself may be learned at home, but a knowledge of how to transact business cannot be thus acquired. The course and system of training is eminently practical, and testimonials from business men and from students who are now holding lucrative and responsible positions.

SUBJECTS: Book-keeping by single and double entry (theoretical and practical) Actual Business Practice, Business Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Law, Railroading, Steamboat- ing, Banking (actual practice in the College Bank), Typewriting, Shorthand, and Navigation.
