Campanella Named Most Valuable Player

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK, Nov. 1—(AP)—Roy Campanella, Brooklyn's brilliant catcher, today was named most valuable player in the National League for 1951 by a 24-man committee of the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

The chunky negro, approaching his 30th birthday Nov. 19, shrugged off a series of injuries, trying to avoid the threat of disaster. Hobbled by a leg injury he limped through the first playoff game but had to sit out the last two as the Dodgers lost the pennant. He batted .325, fourth highest in the league, hit 33 homers and drove in 108 runs.

Campanella piled up 243 points on the basis of 14 for a first-place vote, nine for second and so on down to one for tenth.

Stan Musial of St. Louis, winning his fifth batting title with a .355 average, finished second with two firsts and 191 points. Stan was the only man to be named on all 24 ballots.

Monte Irvin, big power man for the Giants with 121 runs batted in and a .312 average, had five first place votes — three more than Musial. Irvin wound up with 166 points, good only for third place.

Sal Maglie, ace pitcher of the Giants with a 23-6 record, was fourth with 153 points, followed by Preacher Roe of Brooklyn with his brilliant 22-3 season. Roe had 135

Fleeting Moment Wins Running Of Cambridgeshire

By JACK HAND

NEWMARKET, England, Nov. 1—(AP)—Mrs. M. E. Johnson's Fleeting Moment outlasted a cavalry charge of 44 other horses today to win the 106th running of the Cambridgeshire stakes by a half length.

The 28-to-1 shot gained the lead inside the last furlong and held on to edge Mrs. G. M. Jelliss' Denizen in 1:52 3-5, fastest time since the war for the straight 1 1-8 mile gallop. Denizen started at 20 to 1.

Lord Rosebery's Fastnet Rock, the 8 to 1 favorite, got close enough to have its picture taken in the run for third but it lost the position to Lord Durham's Brunetto, a 66 to 1 longshot.

The victory was worth $9,660 to Mrs. Johnson, a Londoner, who owns only one other race horse.

An Irish hospital sweetstakes payoff is based on the race.

The 45-horse field was a record for this race, topping by two the previous record set in 1862.

The straight course at Newmarket has a sharp dip in it about a furlong from home and this was where the race was decided.

Fleeting Moment was fourth going down the hill, but took the lead from Salamit, Brunetto and Tudor Castle — the first three over the first mile — coming up hill.

The Cambridgeshire is one of the biggest betting races in England. It forms the second half of the "autumn double" in which bettors attempt to couple the winner with the winner of the Cesarewitch, run two weeks earlier.

Three Cheers won the Cesarewitch and few people had the right combination. Those who did got odds of about 800 to 1 from the bookmakers. On the pari-mutuel double they got $383.20 for $1.40.

Fleeting Moment, at five, is a chestnut horse by Signal Light out of Nightmare.

Jackie Robinson, who kept Brooklyn in the race with his home run and diving catch on the last day of the regular season, was sixth with 92 points. Brooklyn and New York dominated the first 10 places with three each.

Richie Ashburn of the Phils. runner-up to Musial in the batting race with a .312 average, was seventh; Bobby Thomson, whose memorable homer won the playoff for the Giants, was eighth, followed by a Pittsburgh contingent of Murry Dickson, 20-game winner for a seventh place club, and Ralph Kiner, home run leader with 42 for the Pirates.

WHEREAS upon reading the petition on file of Lettie M. Passmore of Charlottetown aforesaid, Single woman, Administratrix of the above named estate, she, praying that a citation may be issued for the purpose hereinafter set forth: You are therefore hereby required to cite all persons interested in the said Estate to be and appear before the Judge present at a Probate Court to be held in the Court House in Charlottetown in Queens County, in the said Province, on Tuesday the 20th day of November next coming, at the hour of eleven o'clock forenoon of the same day to show cause if any they can why the Accounts of the said Estate should not be passed and the Estate closed as prayed for in said petition and on motion of Malcolm MacKinnon Proctor for said Petitioner.

And it is hereby ordered that a true copy be forthwith published in some newspaper published in Charlottetown aforesaid once in each week for at least four consecutive weeks from the date hereof and that a true copy hereof be forthwith posted in the following public places respectively, namely in the hall of the Court House in Charlottetown aforesaid and at or near the Bank of Canada Building in Charlottetown aforesaid and at or near the Bank of Nova Scotia Building in Charlottetown aforesaid, so that all persons interested in the said Estate as aforesaid may have due notice thereof.

WITNESS His Honour Harold Leonard Palmer, Judge of the said Probate Court at Charlottetown aforesaid, the day and year first above written.

By the Court.
(Sgd.) M. Elizabeth Wright
Registrar.

Grain

WINNIPEG, Nov. 1—(CP)—Coarse grain futures prices generally showed an easier tone today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Hesitation on the United States grain market prompted liberal offerings.

Shipping demand appeared in oats and barley.

Flax was taken by industrial accounts and local interests.

Reports of overnight export loadings of Canadian wheat totalled 3,400,000. They were: United Kingdom, 1,100,000; Germany, 750,000; Belgium, 435,000; Israel, 500,000; Malta, 350,000; and Bolivia, 465,000.

Class two and I.W.A. wheat prices were down 1/4¢. Trading was dull.

Closing prices:
Oats — Dec. 94¢; May 92 1/2¢; July 88¢.
Barley — Dec. 134¢; May 128 1/2¢; July 122 1/2¢.
Rye — Dec. 194¢; May 195 1/2¢; July 190 1/2¢.
Flax — Dec. 4.44; May 4.40A; July 4.31N.

Ken Watson To Quit Curling

WINNIPEG, Nov. 1—(CP)—Ken Watson, who three times has piloted a Manitoba rink to the Dominion curling championship, announced today he is quitting competitive curling. It means the end of the famous curling partnership with his brother Grant.

"Mr. Curler" to Manitobans, Watson and his brother are known throughout Canada for their curling prowess.

In addition to winning the Dominion crown, Ken Watson has skipped rinks to Manitoba championships seven times—six of them consecutive. Seven times he has grand aggregate winner.

FORCED LANDING

CHATHAM, N. B., Nov. 1—(CP)—An R. C. A. F. Vampire training plane from the Chatham air base made a forced landing today near Amos, a community southwest of Chatham. The pilot, whose name was not released, escaped injury and the aircraft was only slightly damaged. It landed on a field after developing engine trouble.
