Cardigan District.

According to notice a Convention of Delegates from the several P.-ling Divisions of the 3rd Electoral District of King's County, was held in the School House at Cardigan Bridge, on Wednesday, the 9th June inst., at which the following gentlemen were present as Delegates:—

De Gros Marsh Division—John T. Poole, Goff's Mills; Alex. McKinnon, Melrose; Thomas F. Hughes, Lanching; Hugh McLellan, Grand River Bridge; Malcolm McKenzie, Mitchell River; Angus McLellan, Narrow's Creek; Farquhar D. Campbell, Cardigan Wharf; Peter McCormack, Grand River; Hugh A. McPhee, Narrow's Creek. Plummer's Polling Division—Dugald Munn, New Perth; Peter Gordon, Rosneath; Wm. Shaw, Brudenell; John J. McDonald, Montague Bridge; Terrence Power, New Perth; Peter Wilson, Head of Cardigan; James McAulay, Pisquid Road; Daniel Rielly, Montague; George F. Owen, Cardigan Bridge. Eighteen Mile Brook Polling Division—Patrick Koughan, Elliot Vale; Thomas Corcoran, Baldwin's Road; John Kenny, Baldwin's Station; John McCarty, Stanhope Road; Thomas Mellish, Union Road; Hugh McQuaid, Baldwin's Road; Daniel Shaw, New Perth; Patrick Walsh, Summerville; Dennis McQuaid, Cardigan Road. Dundas Polling Division—Samuel McDonald, Dundas; John E. Morson, Dundas; Ronald McKenzie, Dundas; Frank Beiristo, Head of Grand River; John Acorn, Head of Grand River. Cardigan Polling Division—Edward Sharkey, Corraville; John Sycworth, St. Peter's Road; John Nicholson, Pisquid Road, Lot 52; James Morgan, Cardigan Bridge; John J. Campbell, Cardigan Bridge; John Ryan, Grand River Road; Alex. H. McGilvray, Glenfanning; Michael Boldin, Glenfanning.

The meeting was organized by appointing Hugh A. McPhee, Esq., as Chairman, and the undersigned Secretary.

Credentials of delegates were then received, and the names taken down by the Secretary. John McDougall, Esq., the late representative of the Cardigan District, said that he wished to inform the meeting that it was not his intention to accept a nomination for the forthcoming election. He was very thankful for the generous support he had received four years ago; and he trusted that the candidates that were selected on this occasion would be as successful as he had been.

George F. Owen also intimated that he did not wish to be nominated as a candidate.

On motion of Mr. Dugald Munn, seconded by Mr. Edward Sharkey, Hugh L. Macdonald, Esq., Cardigan Bridge, was nominated as a candidate. The principle being adopted that one Catholic and one Protestant should be placed in the field, and no other nomination being made for any other Catholic, Mr. Macdonald was unanimously chosen as our candidate.

On motion of Patrick Koughan, Esq., seconded by Mr. Thomas Mellish, Cyrus A. Shaw, Esq., New Perth, was proposed as a candidate.

On motion of Samuel McDonald, Esq., seconded by Mr. Ronald McKenzie, Walter A. O. Morson, Esq., Charlottetown, was also proposed as a candidate.

The delegates then proceeded to cast their ballots for the candidate they favored, James E. McDonald, Samuel McDonald and Thomas Corcoran being appointed a committee to report on the result. After counting the ballots, the committee reported that Cyrus A. Shaw had received the majority of votes.

On motion, the nomination of Hugh L. Macdonald and Cyrus A. Shaw was made unanimous.

In a few appropriate remarks Mr. Shaw expressed the gratification he felt at the high honor the Convention had conferred upon him; and said he believed, in the coming contest, the Liberal-Conservative Party would be successful not only in this District, but all over the Island. The present Government have proved to be the farmer's friends, and every elector should poll his vote in favor of candidates who will support them. If elected on the 30th instant, he would endeavour, as far as possible, to have the local wants of the District well attended to. In this contest, he hoped that each delegate present would use every exertion to secure the election of the candidates they had chosen to carry the banner of the Liberal-Conservative Party in the Cardigan District. Hugh L. Macdonald on rising was greeted with tremendous applause from the large meeting that had assembled to hear the result of the Convention. He thanked the gentlemen who had selected him as one of the candidates. Although he was no great speaker, yet if he was returned as a representative, he would endeavour, with all the English he had, to advance the interests of the District. And if he found that he could not obtain what was due to us by using that language, he would try what effect the Gaelic would have on the Government. He believed the present Government was one of the best the Island had seen for many years, and he hoped that they would be returned for another term.

The thanks of the District were given to Mr. McDougall, the late representative, for his services, and a hearty tribute was given, testifying to the respect the people of the District had for him.

A review of the actions of the Government during their term was given by George F. Owen and the Rev. S. G. Lawson, who happened to be present. From the favorable manner with which commendation of the Government was received by the meeting, there can be no doubt that the Cardigan District will send two representatives to support the present administration.

The thanks of the meeting were tendered to the Chairman and the Rev. Mr. Lawson, after which the meeting dispersed.

GEORGE F. OWEN, Secretary.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Keep it Before the People.

SIR,—In the presence of hundreds of the electors of Charlottetown in the Market Hall, just before the last general local election, Mr. David Laird, who is acknowledged by the Grit Party to be one of their prominent leaders, said that the people of this Province should be taxed at least to the extent of from $240,000 to $250,000 per annum. Think of it farmers of Prince Edward Island—a tax of about $2.50 per head for every man, woman and child in the country, or in other words, a tax of $15 on every family of six people. This is the main plank in the Grit platform. Mr. Laird was simply voicing the sentiments of the party when he said so.

Their whole cry ever since has been that the people should be taxed, and their representatives in the House of Assembly for the last four years have done all they possibly could to force the Government to tax the country. But thanks to a wise, economical and enterprising administration they have failed in their endeavours; and the Liberal-Conservatives tell them now, as they told them at that time, that there is no necessity for it, and that they do not intend, if returned to power, to impose any direct tax on the people. They believe rather in collecting the honest debts due by the Dominion Government, in the future as in the past. This way of raising money is as gall and wormwood to the opposition, for their prophecies that the Government could not be run a twelvemonth without taxation have been scattered to the winds. Hence their chagrin. When the Attorney-General announced, during the late session, that the Government would receive $125,000 next year, from the Dominion, in addition to the regular subsidy, the effect on the opposition was as if a bombshell had exploded on the floor of the House. Instead of being pleased at the prospects of their constituents having no taxes to pay for the next four years, they seemed to be filled with consternation and the most profound regret, and after having exercised all their ingenuity in trying to find out where the present Government would get the money, they appealed to the hero of Inch-Arran, Mr. Louis H. Davies, who, true to his instincts, demanded from the Dominion Government, in the House of Commons, whether any such promise had been made to the Government of Prince Edward Island. But Mr. Davies retired from the contest with about as much honor as he did in his tilt with Mrs. Grant—a sadder if not a wiser man. Farmers of Prince Edward Island, if you want the tax revived with redoubled energy, vote for the proteges of Messrs. Davies and Laird; but if you desire to continue free from direct taxation, support the present Government and do all you can to return them to power.

A Voter Speaks his Mind.

SIR,—Mr. Daniel Davies has had published another of his letters in the last Union, in which he scolds the Editor of that paper all on account of Mr. Thomas Morris, the leading Grit candidate for this city. Mr. Davies in his life time has written letters to the press at various times and on a great variety of subjects, but never until now has he ventured to come out in the role of a temperance man. He tells us that wise legislation would confine such (alcoholic drinks) to the shelves of the Apothecary for medicinal purposes, "and to support this assertion" he threatens the Editor with another letter in the next issue, all of which is candid as could be wished. In the meantime, I fancy Mr. Davies can have no objections to one of "the masses" to which he so condescendingly refers, looking at his so called temperance principles as laid down in his letter. Of course, to begin with, he believes in Thomas Morris, who though a dealer in strong drinks, is a strong party man who means what he says. Very well, Mr. Thomas Morris said, according to the Patriot's report of the interview which the clergymen of this city had lately with the City Councillors, that there are as many disreputable clergymen as there are respectable men, engaged in the liquor business. This insult to the clergymen is surely not forgotten by Mr. Davies. He has not forgotten it, and still he has the hardihood to recommend his nominee for legislative honors. Mr. Thomas Morris is to assist, under the wise counsel of Mr. Daniel Davies and others, in making such laws as will keep strong drink out of the hands of "the masses;" and place it on the shelves of the apothecary for medicinal purposes only. If Mr. Davies has nothing better than this to offer, I fear it will be a long time before he establishes that temperance millenium which he says wise legislation would bring about. But he lays claim to being a temperance man on other grounds. He has done business at Murray Harbor Beach, but he never sold spirits at the establishments there, which is no doubt very true, but then we doubt if Mr. McFayden, who was really a temperance man, would sell it for him, or allow it to be sold on the premises. At any rate, it is rather a strange way of showing forth temperance principles, this of Mr. Davies. He asks us to believe in his temperance sincerity, because he foregoes the profits that he might make by selling liquor at Murray Harbor Beach. By the same token a man might as well claim credit for being a good citizen and Christian, because he does not commit any other of the great sins. I think it is quite evident to every one that Mr. Davies is not a consistent temperance man, or else he would not recommend electors to vote for Thomas Morris; nor can he be a friend of the liquor dealers, for he is of opinion that such laws as will confine liquor to the shelves of the apothecary, can, and ought to be enacted. Mr. Davies is bidding for temperance support and liquor dealer influence in the one breath, but he will find that he cannot serve two masters at the time of an election any better than at any other time.

Awaiting his next epistle, I am,

NOTER.

Dundas Notes.

SOME of our Grit neighbors has commenced to count their chickens before they are hatched. This they will find out next election.

Mr. Hugh MacLellan has been appointed Clerk of the County Court by His Honor Judge Reddin, in place of George Mackenzie, Esq., resigned.

We regret to say that our friend, E. Hodgson Macdonald has met with an accident. While returning from the mill his horse took fright, and he was thrown from his carriage and got his shoulder dislocated. But under the skillful treatment of Dr. Gillis he is fast recovering.

The school in this section is in a flourishing condition under the efficient management of Mr. Henry Campbell and his assistant Mr. Roderick Matheson.

Mr. S. MacPherson, our enterprising Tailor, is doing a rushing business in his line of trade, as he keeps a large assortment of cloths to suit his customers. He is the right man in the right place.

Our Carriage Factory is turning out a fine assortment of wagons under the superintendence of Messrs. MacKay and Williams, which meets with ready sale.

BUFFALO BILL.

ABSOLUTE PURITY.

THE following analyses (made by the Dominion Analyst) of three BAKING POWDERS sold in this market should put a stop to the unjust efforts of the Royal to mislead the public as to its being the only pure powder. These impartial tests show that other Powders are as pure and wholesome:

W. SAUNDERS, Dom. Analyst, St. John, N. B. reports:

Royal—Contains Alkaline Carbonates—a mixture consisting mainly of Bicarbonate of Soda and Cream of Tartar—adulterated with about 20 per cent of Starch.

W. F. BEST, Dom. Analyst, St. John, N. B. reports:

Pure Gold—Contains Cream of Tartar, Carbonate of Soda—fresh and pure.

(Nov. 18, 1882—Not adulterated; same as usual.)

WOODILL'S (April 7, 1883—Not adulterated; same as usual.)

June 4, 1884—Fresh and pure; same composition as usual.

MAYNARD BOWMAN, Dom. Analyst, Halifax, N. S. reports:

WOODILL'S (Of good quality; contains nothing injurious.)

Woodill's German Baking Powder has a reputation for purity and wholesomeness now nearly 20 years.
