
FLATTOP AND FROGMAN

Visitors lined the pier at the Halifax dockyard Saturday to take advantage of a Navy Day invitation to tour the aircraft carrier Bonaventure, while others, left, watched a frogman diving display. Just over 12,500 people visited the dockyard. Navy Day celebrations wound up the annual Navy Week, which began with Battle of the Atlantic Sunday.

Heavy Docket Heard At Court In S'side

SUMMERSIDE — A sentence of three months in Prince County jail was given Edwin Louis Gaudet, of Central Bedeque here yesterday after he entered a plea of guilty to theft. The docket before Magistrate W. Chester S. MacDonald included more than 20 cases.

A $75 fine was levied on Albert Henry Bridges, of Mount Pleasant, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while his abilities were impaired by alcohol. Cst. Edward F. McCue, of the Summerside RCMP detachment, stated that he was called to Miscouche on May 14, and found the accused sitting in his truck, in the ditch.

A similar charge was brought against Patrick Harold Lynch, of Portage, and adjourned after he entered a plea of not guilty. J. Watson MacNaught, QC, is representing the accused.

Alberton Warren, Alberton, was given an adjournment without plea, until May 31, and is out on his own recognizance, charged with care and control of a motor vehicle while impaired.

A $50 fine for driving while his license was cancelled, was levied on Herbert James Hardy of Ellerslie.

ASSAULT CHARGE

Four persons appeared in court on assault charges and in all cases were adjourned after pleas had been taken. William Trowsdale of St. Eleanors, pleaded not guilty to charges of assaulting a police officer and resisting arrest, while Alice Arsenault, St. Eleanors, pleaded not guilty to assaulting a police officer. All three charges were laid by Cst. Herbert Murphy, the St. Eleanors village policeman.

Two Lennox Island men were charged with assaulting and causing bodily harm to David Bernard, of Lennox Island. Sterling Joseph Bernard pleaded guilty as charged while John Henry Bernard pleaded not guilty. Both cases were adjourned until Thursday morning.

Two men were fined $20 and costs on charges of possession of intoxicating liquor not purchased at a vendors. Wilfred Leyroy Wright, Summerside and Joseph Edward Blanchard, of St. Louis, were the offenders.

Gordon Bell Sharon, Crapaud, and Cecil James Stewart, Ingraham, both paid fines of $10 on speeding charges, while a similar amount was paid by Elmer Prescot Greenlaw, RCAF station Summerside, for passing where there was a solid white line.

Various other charges under the liquor control and highway traffic acts, resulted in the usual fines being levied for offences ranging from intoxication ($20) to failure to stop at a stop sign ($5).

SET TRIAL DATE

BELGRADE (Reuters) — Milovan Djilas, former Yugoslav vice - president rearrested last month after 15 months of freedom, will go on trial here again May 14, informed sources said Friday. Djilas, once regarded as a potential successor to President Tito, had been at liberty since his conditional release in January last year after serving nearly half of a nine-year jail sentence for "hostile propaganda."

OBITUARY

Inserted by his friends and relatives, as a tribute to the deceased.

PARNELL J. BROTHERS

The death occurred in the Charlottetown Hospital on Easter Sunday morning, April 22nd, after a prolonged illness of Parnell J. (Perle) Brothers in his 75th year.

The late Mr. Brothers was born at Elliotvale in 1886, the eldest son of the late Patrick and Emily (Hynes) Brothers, where he spent the greater part of his life engaged in farming. In 1914 he married Mary Praught, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Praught, Alberry Plains, and settled on the old Brothers Homestead. As they both being talented musicians and gifted entertainers and their hospitality unlimited their home was always the social centre for the whole community. He was also blessed with a wonderful voice, and was a member of St. Joachims Church Choir Vernon River for almost 50 years.

He was a great lover of horses, an ardent race fan, and in his younger days bred, trained and raced some of the best in these years. In 1945 he retired from farming and moved to Vernon River, later moving to Charlottetown where he resided until the time of his death.

He bore his long and trying illness with great fortitude and trust in his devine Maker, and although hospitalized and bedfast since November 1961, he was never heard to complain, and was always cheerful to the last.

In spite of the best of medical care and nursing, he grew weaker and on the above date, fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church, of which he was a faithful member, his gentle soul went out to meet his God, and joined his two sisters and brother in heaven.

Perle was widely known and a general favorite with both young and old. He possessed a pleasing personality, was a good neighbor and a true friend to all in need.

He is survived by his sorrowing wife, devoted adopted daughter June, Mrs. Bryon Bruce, and one brother Harold Cardigan and three sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Blake and Mrs. May Pratt, Taunton Mass and Mrs. Laura McIntyre, Baltimore, Md., as well as a number of nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

His funeral, which was very largely attended, was held on Wednesday, April 25th., from Hennessey Funeral Home to St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Pastor, Rev. Father Gillis, Rev. Clifford Murphy being present in the Sanctuary who performed the services at the grave.

The pall-bearers were all old friends and neighbors, Joseph Power, Emmett Power, Alphonsus Keoughan, Arthur Wright, George Walsh and Brendon Curran.

May his soul rest in peace.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Parnell J. Brothers wish to thank the Priests, Sisters, Doctors, Nurses and staff of the Charlottetown Hospital, the Hennessey Funeral Home, all who sent Mass cards, enrollments, cards and letters of sympathy, and floral offerings, also all kind friends and neighbors who helped in so many ways in their recent sad bereavement. A sincere and heartfelt thank you to one and all.
