
LOBSTER AND barbecued chicken was the order of the day at the first annual reunion of First World War veterans of Kings held at the former Gordon home at Brudenell Saturday. The large, roomy home and beautiful grounds were ideal for this gathering. The sociability of the afternoon can be detected in the above picture when veterans and their wives sat together to enjoy the afternoon meal and the program by the Lovat Scots Band.

First War Veterans' Reunion Is Successful

MONTAGUE — Approximately 350 veterans and their wives were present for the first reunion of First World War veterans of Kings County. More than 200 of those present were veterans of the First World War in whose honor the Royal Canadian Legion branches of Kings County sponsored the event.

Some of the remarks overheard from these veterans were: "This is tremendous"; "a wonderful location for such an event"; "have seen some old buddies I haven't seen in 18 years although they live in Kings"; "hope this is an annual event"; "the Lovat Scots band really adds color to the outing"; "what a wonderful day"; "the legion is to be commended," and many more.

President of the provincial command, J. Hamilton Douglas, Mt. Stewart, stated "this is one of the best ways to encourage war veterans to join our branches and I am really impressed". He congratulated the Kings County legion branches on their thoughtfulness.

R.M. Martin, chairman for the event and co-chairman Douglas McGowan, MLA, were enthusiastic with the results of the gathering and stated that although a few minor changes would be made another year, the day proved very successful.

The Lovat Scots band received a tremendous ovation for its performance.

The fresh lobster and barbecued chicken proved to be very popular.

Flames Destroy Buildings At Iona

IONA — A fire Sunday destroyed a barn and a hen house belonging to Wilbur Daley of Iona.

The blaze, believed started by one of the Daley children playing with matches, was discovered at approximately 5:15 p.m. and the Eldon fire department was summoned.

Lost in the blaze along with the buildings were some straw, a small amount of feed, and a threshing mill. There was some insurance coverage.

The only animal in the barn at the time was a sow which was rescued before flames reached the area.

Although the fire had spread too rapidly for the fire department to bring it under control immediately it was prevented from reaching the larger barn and neighboring structures.

ARCHERY BAN DRAWS PROTEST

NOTTINGHAM, England (AP)—Local bowmen are up in arms over a ban of archery in the schools of Nottinghamshire, land of Robin Hood and his merry men.

Bows and arrows have been outlawed by the education authority.

"Archery is potentially dangerous, particularly where children are concerned," said a spokesman of the county education committee, adding: "Nor is it safe for spectators."

The committee reaffirmed its ban in the middle of a Robin Hood festival organized to publicize the tourist attractions of leafy Sherwood Forest and the surrounding country where the legendary outlaw once roamed.

"I have never heard of anyone being injured watching archery," said Sydney Bond, president of the County Archery Society.

"It never did Robin Hood any harm."
