LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

MANTLES a specialty—Beer Bros.

THE SUNRISE.—This steamer left this morning about 11 o'clock for Sydney, C. B.

A SMUG SUM.—The Calais, Me., shoe factory is said to have cleared $47,000 last year.

A POINTER.—Anyone desirous of seeing Trilby should procure seats at once. The advance sale is exceptionally large.

MEETING.—A meeting of the St. Paul's building committee will be held in the Rector's room on Monday next at 4 p. m.

THE COBAN.—The steamship Coban will not arrive here until Tuesday morning, instead of Monday, as previously advertised.

IMITATIONS of the celebrated "Tyke" Serge are being shown by many tailors but any customer who knows the real "Tyke" will recognize them at once. Look for the trade mark "Tyke" on back of every 2¼ yards.

ISLAND GRAIN.—Only one cargo of P. E. Island grain has appeared in port up to date this season. The price asked is 55 cents per bushel, rather steep. Other cargoes are daily expected when the price will likely be reduced.—North Sydney Herald.

RAILWAY MEN'S MEETING.—The Sunday afternoon meeting in Philharmonic Hall to-morrow will be conducted by Miss Bartlett, railway evangelist of the W. C. T. U. of the Maritime Provinces. Meeting at 4. Song service at 3.45. Strangers always welcome.

GILLETT'S BAKING POWDER.—Mr. W. C. Ash, representing E. W. Gillett, of Toronto, manufacturer of the celebrated Imperial Baking Powder, has spent two months on the Island, and sampled a number of towns with these costly goods. Mr. Ash has just finished Charlottetown, and people receiving a sample of these elegant goods will be delighted with the trial result.

RACES AT SUMMERSIDE.—A good programme has been made ready for the races on the Summerside Driving Park on Dominion Day. A special feature of the day's sport will be a bicycle race, the first prize for which is a siver cup presented by Mr. Geo. Godkin, M. L. A., with the entrance money added, and the association will give second and third prizes in cash.

A WARNING TO OTHERS.—A Calais, Me., women met with an accident the other day which should serve as a warning to the fair sex. She was putting on her shawl and, as women will, was holding her shawl pin between her lips when it accidently slipped down her throat, that is the pin not the shawl. Two physicians did everything that they could to dislodge the pin but without success.

INTERRED AT NEW GLASGOW.—The bdyo of Dr. Rossin was removed to New Glasgow yesterday and interred in the family plot of James Dickieson, Esq. The funeral procession was large consisting of some fifty or sixty carriages. The clergyman at the grave preached an eloquent tribute to the skill of the deceased, declaring that of all the cases he had treated, he had never lost one.

THE TRILBY WAIST.—The new wrinkle in designs is the Trilby waist, which is trimmed with close bands, laid over the fullness of a plaited or gathered bodice. Trilby herself wore only two of these decorations, which crossed in front, and this adherence to the model is absolute, other forms of trimming filling up deficiencies and making the crossed bands appear like decoration. Be sure and see Trilby at the Opera House Monday night.

A FALSE ALARM.—A Lewiston, Me., undertaker, while sitting up with a dead body one night recently fell into a dose from which he was awakened by the sound of someone trying to get out of a closed place and calling in a stifled voice "Help me out, won't you sir?" He admits that his hair felt as if it were'nt attached very closely to his head, and it was a minute before he plucked up courage sufficient to lift the coffin lid. He found no signs of life but on opening the closed shutter of the room he discovered that it was broad daylight and a little girl had fallen into a rain barrel outside the window.

FOR BOSTON.—The passengers for Boston in the Olivette yesterday were: Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Slattery, Agnes, Maud, Kats and Bernard Slattery, J. N. Nicholson, Mrs. Gillis, Ambrose Callaghan, Mrs. W. Sellers, Mrs. Hoskin, Simon McDonald, M. S. Johnson, T. Henry, A. Buchanan, C. Achorn, Mrs. C. Hyde, Ada A. Hoar, Mrs. G. W. Stewart, Mary McRae, J. Crockett, P. McNally, May O'Brien, Geo. Gaudet, Agnes Gregory, C. McDonald, E. Singleton, L. Stewart, O. Poole, P. Shuskey, Ellen McCormack, Jas. Manning, E. McLeod, H. McCormack, F. E. Pelley, M. A. Gillis, P. Trainor, J. McDonald, Mary Stockman and A. Gallagher.

BIG STAKES RACES.—The Halifax Driving Club are to be congratulated on the success which has attended their 3-minute stakes for trotters and pacers, to be trotted on Labor Day, they having received no less than 23 nominations, the largest number of entries ever received for any kind of a stake race in the provinces. The stake is for a guaranteed purse of $250, the payments, $5 each, being due June 1, (when the horses must be named) July 1, August 1st, and 26th, and if payments exceed the amount guaranteed, they will be added to the stake. There are four nominations from Charlottetown, viz., A. S. Hewitt, Phillip I. McMahon, Ronald J. Steele and Edmund Cameron. The 2.40 race has been declared off, and a class race will probably be substituted.

PRINCIPLES OR VOTES—WHICH

Both will be important in the coming elections. Both parties want votes; principles may come in later. Some people say that principles tell in the long run more powerfully and conqueringly than votes. Certainly the principle, or root motive of Rigby, has told convincingly all over the country. The old rubber waterproof is dead and buried. The problem was to produce a garment while, while being perfectly waterproof, should at the same time, be unobjectionable as an ordinary overcoat, This dual character is admirably sustained in Rigby Porous Waterproofs. A Spring Overcoat; a waterproof garment; perfect ventilation; durable service. Don't be afraid of the rain or the chilly air; Rigby will protect you from both. Rigby is talked about; worn by thousands.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

ABOUT TRILBY.

SIR,—Will someone competent to explain please tell us whether we are to see a dramatization of Du Maurier's Trilby on Monday night, or a translation of a French story of seventy years ago. If it is to be Du Maurier's Trilby, why should it be called a translation? And if Du Maurier plagiarized his story, why use his name in the advertisement?

TRILBYITE.

A BAD BRIDGE.

SIR,—Allow me a short space in your valuable paper for a few remarks in respect to the bridge on the West Royalty road. This bridge has been a menace to life for over a month, and is a disgrace to any civilized country. It is destitute of railings or one sound plank, and is guarded by two immense pitfalls, one on each side. Complaints and reports innumerable have been made about this bridge, but, alas! sad to say, they all went for naught—the powers that be were immovable. Is this proper treatment for the travelling public? Is this the proper condition to keep our bridges in? I think not. If the local Supervisor does not look after his business, I think it is high time he himself was looked after. I hope that these few words will have their desired effect and that I will not be obliged to again refer to this matter.
