HOOD — At the Prince Edward Island Hospital on March 29, 1962, to Mr. and Mrs. S. Warren Hood (nee Arlene Guindon. RN,) a daughter Shauneen Jori. Weight 7 lbs., 11½ ozs. A sister for Carla.

IN MEMORIAM

JAY — In loving memory of Ward B. Jay, who departed this life March 31st, 1961.
One long and lonely year has passed
Since our great sorrow fell.
The shock that we received that day
Will always with us dwell.
You wished no one a last farewell
Nor could you say good-bye.
But you were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
If we could speak to you today
Or even clasp your hand,
I know you would tell us
Someday we will understand.
Our hearts' ache with sadness
And tears so often flow,
For what it meant to lose you
Pop.
No one will ever know.
Sadly missed and always remembered by his wife and daughters Thelma and Orva.

JAY — In loving memory of Ward B. Jay who departed this life March 31st, 1961.
Though tears in my eyes do not glisten,
And my face is not always sad,
There is never a night or a morning,
But I think of the Father I had.
I was not there to see you die,
Or lift your hand and say goodbye.
But I will remember my whole life through,
The last few words I had with you.

Lovingly remembered by daughter Reta, son-in-law Hughie and granddaughters Ruthie, Lorna and Heather.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late J. Edward Turner wish to express their sincere thanks to Dr. Carl Brown, Dr. J. P. Sweeney, Rev. Andrew MacDonald, Rev. J. N Trainor, Rev. Walter Reid, Sisters and Nurses of the Charlottetown Hospital and to all their relatives, friends and neighbors who showed their sympathy by many acts of kindness.

I wish to thank Dr. Paul Cudmore, Dr. Laidlaw also the nurses who took such good care of me during my stay in the P.E. Island Hospital, also a special thanks to Canon Ibbott and Rev. Mr. Campbell for a nice visit and to all my good friends and neighbours who visited me, sent me cards and treats. May the good Lord bless every one of you real well.

John W. Whitehead, Clinton.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the sisters, doctors, and nurses of the Charlottetown Hospital for the kindness they have shown me while I was a patient there: also to all those who have sent me flowers, cards, etc. I thank you all.

Mrs. Patrick Sinnott, Bristol.

MRS. JOHN H. DAWSON

The death occurred suddenly at her home on March 2, 1962, of Mrs. John H. Dawson, nee Mary Jane Ramsay.

Left to cherish a fond memory are her husband, two daughters, Mary, Mrs. Vernon Webster, Middleton; Doris, Mrs. Earl Fall, Hampton; five sons, Hazen and Joseph, Albany; Barclay, Ontario; Clifford, Cape Traverse and Paul, Cornwall. Also 28 grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Wyman Birch, St. Eleanors, and Mrs. Joseph Veale, Port Hill; who have the sympathy of friends both far and near.

The funeral was held on March 4th from Albany United Church, conducted by Rev. E. M. Cameron. Interment in Floral Hills cemetery.

Honorary pallbearers were: George MacKay, Elmer Gamble John Muttart and Frank MacKay. Active pallbearers were: Donald Birch, Stuart Veale, Winston Cameron, John MacKay, Sheldon Dixon and Waldron Cameron.

The messages of sympathy received by her bereaved family and the floral tributes evidenced the high esteem and deep respect in which she was held.

CARD OF THANKS

John H. Dawson and family wish to express sincere thanks to Dr. MacLeod, Rev. R. M. Cameron, organist Mrs. Walter Craig and choir. The Davinsons Funeral Home and the many relatives and friends who sent floral tributes, letters and cards of Sympathy, to the phone operators, and to all who helped in so many ways during our recent sudden bereavement. Mere words cannot express our deep gratitude.

OBITUARY

ALBERT I. DRAKE

After a lengthy and painful illness ,Albert I. Drake passed away on March 7th, 1962. in the P.E.I. Hospital.

He had been in the best of health until about a year ago, when he entered the P.E.I. Hospital for a major operation from which he never fully recovered, and had to return to hospital on December 28th. Despite the best medical aid and kind nursing he gradually grew weaker until the end came as a relief to his suffering. All through his illness he was never known to complain but bore it all with courage and fortitude.

He lived his entire life in Millview where he was a successful farmer, and in the days of fox industry owned a large ranch where his good management and skill caused many favorable comments.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his sorrowing wife, the former Elsie Furness of Vernon, also two sons, Edison on the home place and Wynston at Vernon, together with their wives and his six grandchildren will always remember him so kindly.

Also surviving are three sisters, Edith (Mrs. David Fraser), Vernon, Lona (Mrs. Ernest Ings), Hazelbrook, Prudence (Mrs. George Vanderstine), Calgary, three brothers, MacLean of Cheadle, Alberta, John, Hazelbrook and Robert, Millview. A brother Samuel passed away February 27th.

A large crowd of people gathered at the funeral service to pay their last tribute to one who was highly respected as a good neighbor and a faithful friend.

The service was conducted by Rev. T.R. Goudge, assisted by Dr. A.S. Weir. A beautiful solo "The Christian's Good-Night", was feelingly rendered by Lloyd Martin, Orwell and two hymns "The Lord's My Shepherd", and "Abide With Me", were sung.

Flower bearers were, Harley Ings, Douglas Drake, Wendell Drake, Perley Drake, Lorin Drake and Lloyd Drake.

Pallbearers were, Francis Drake, Claud Wood, Wilfred Drake, Joseph B. MacDonald, W.W. Mutch and Gordon Sheldow.

On the evening before the funeral Coronation Lodge held a service as a special tribute to a dear departed brother.

Mr. Drake was an Honorary member of L.O.L. Millview.

Interment was in Birch Hill cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Albert J. Drake wish to express their sincere thanks to Dr's. Stewart and Cox, the nurses and staff of P.E.I. Hospital, the clergy, and all those who sent so many letters, cards, beautiful floral tributes and the many expressions of sympathy shown during their recent sad bereavement.

INDIA OUSTS CHINESE

NEW DELHI (Renters)—The Indian government has ordered 105 Chinese nationals to leave the country. Datar Balwant Nagesh, minister of state for home affairs, told parliament Monday. Datar added that 68 Chinese had already left India. The expulsions began with the deterioration of Sino-Indian relations in 1959 over long-standing border disputes.
