

Charlottetown Team Formally Admitted To Maritime Hockey League

PICTOU, N.S., July 30 — (CP) — Charlottetown Abbies came back to Maritime senior hockey today to fill a blank that lasted for 15 years. At a meeting of the Maritime Big Four Hockey League here, representatives of the famous old Island club served notice it is re-entering the league. That will mean the league will change its name to the Maritime big five.

Hallifax St. Mary's, Amherst Ramblers, Moncton Hawks and Saint John Beavers were the only invited teams. The Charlottetown club was a member of the old Big Four loop that produced ace hockey players and Allan Cup winning teams. As evidence of their determination to form a strong club, Abbies promised to post a bond of $2,000 by Aug. 21.

For several months, Charlottetown sportsmen, headed by Tom Rogers, have been whipping up enthusiasm for a return to Big Four hockey. Abbies went out of the hockey picture back in 1933, when the original Big Four collapsed.

Last winter, Halifax and Amherst took one of their league semi-final playoff games to Charlottetown. It was a shot in the arm to Charlottetown hockey and plans were immediately made for a revival.

Abbies have several major league contacts and are confident of obtaining first class imports to team, they hope, with such talented native sons as Buck Whitlock, Bucko Trainor, and Mousie Dowling.

Several former N.H.L. players, with coaching experience, are being considered for the job of handling the club. An application has been received from Murph Chamberlain, Sydney Millionaires coach last season. Rated a better coaching prospect than Chamberlain, is Kilby MacDonald, formerly of the Ramblers.

Amherst Ramblers, weak club of the 1949-50 schedule, will be back again this season, greatly improved, it was promised.

Although Dartmouth Arrows informed the meeting they are forced to stay out again in 1950, the delegates voted that they be permitted to retain their franchise. The league will import two referees. Last year the only imported official was Moe Walsh who will not be back. Steve MacDonald, Sydney, representing the Cape Breton League told the meeting the Island will also import two referees. It was decided that if the referees are of the same calibre they will be interchanged during the season.

Decision to support the C.A.H.A. in their plans for a super series was taken at a special meeting of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association Saturday.

J. E. Hudson of Halifax, past president of the M.A.H.A., and now president of the Maritime Big Four, said the C.A.H.A. is still prepared to go through with a major series despite its failure to reach an agreement with the N.H.L.

He read a telegram from George Dudley, secretary manager of the C.A.H.A., that said: "Officers have been recommended that major series proceed as proposed but contracts be dropped. If this is approved by executive committee, arrangements in respect to Maritime imports provided for at meeting will stand."

"If major series proceeds, Maritime Association winner will play Quebec winner commencing April 13, in Maritimes. "Will probably be week before decision of executive available."

The M.A.H.A. executive instructed President Bryce Love, New Glasgow, to wire the C.A.H.A. that it is in favor of the major series, even without contracts.

Another important item on the agenda was the status of five members of the Moncton Hawks who had been suspended last spring after they refused to play an exhibition game.

Guided by the C.A.H.A., the Maritime Association ruled that Eric Fleet and Bob Leckie will be suspended until Jan. 1, 1951, and Lou Milani, Rod MacKenzie and H.P. MacEwan will be kept out of competition until Nov. 1, 1950.

Letcher Stable Leads Keen Racing Program At Exhibition Track

Miss Donna Mae and Jennie Kalmuck, owned by Mr. Lorne Letcher of Springhill, Nova Scotia, lead a keen night racing card at the Exhibition Raceway on Saturday night when they topped off wins in four of the ten dash events, while the MacEwen-owned P. E. I. Budlong, from York, was the other big double winner.

Driven by Letcher, Miss Donna Mae took top honors in the second and sixth events, while the other Springhill entry, Jennie Kalmuck came through in the seventh and tenth events with Mr. O'Donnell at the reins. Reg MacCallum piloted P. E. I. to wins in the third and eighth.

In the remaining four events, starting upsets were the order of the night with strong favorites going down behind the driving displays of comparatively "longshots" to pay off handsomely at the parimutuel wickets.

Absgewit Milady, owned and driven by Cyril Smith of Hunter River, started things rolling in the very first event when she came home in front of an eight horse field to pay $16.20 to win, while Bob Canuck's winning performance in the fourth race, called for a $24.20 to win ticket holders. After placing fifth in the number five race, James MacGregor's New Look came in for the biggest of the night, $39.40.

Ma Cherie, owned by Mrs. Eloise Miltn, Moncton, N. B., and driven by Dave Wisner, was the top horse in the fifth event on the card.

Two horses were set back from their finishing positions during the night's program. Walter Kelly's Johnny Kalmuck came in first ahead of Absgewit Milady only to be set back to third position for performing at a mixed gait, while Just Brenda was set back from fourth to sixth for interference in the first turn in the eighth race.

The annual Caledonian Club Games will be the leading feature in track and field competitions when the Island Clubs will gather at Stratgarting on Wednesday in a gala afternoon of running, jumping and dancing competitions, and other leading athletic and amusement features. Today, a six-man track and field team from the Abegweit Club will compete at New Glasgow, N. S., against other leading Maritime teams as part of New Glasgow's bi-centennial celebrations there this week.

The big feature in aquatic sport will be the holding of the Queen's County swimming and diving championships at Victoria Park on Saturday afternoon under the sponsorship of the Charlottetown Y's Men's Club, at which the local Yacht Club will also hold Snipe and Class III racing in connection with the meet. The swimming and diving competitions will be the first to be held in this city for many years, and is expected to be a leading highlight of this week's entertainment and keen competitive athletics.

In boxing bouts held at Springhill, N.S. on Saturday night, Harry Poulton, holder of the Island welterweight title, punched out an overwhelming five-round T.K.O. over Ernie Durrell from Bay St. Anne, N.B. Poulton, after scoring a draw decision last Wednesday at Saint John with Howard Leslie, broke Durrell's nose and cut his mouth so badly that the referee had to call the fight when Durrell could not answer the bell for the fifth.

In a news report which appeared in this paper after the Saint John fight, Leslie was said to have beaten Poulton for an easy decision, but this has been substantiated as an error, and Harry wishes to correct it by receiving a written notice from the promoter in Saint John, which states that he (Poulton) was the aggressor throughout the fight and that it was a draw decision.

The local welter champ's next fight is to be held at Summerside at the Curran and Briggs ball diamond where he will take on the ex-Canadian middleweight champion Roger Whynott in the most important fight of his career.

Abbie Team To Compete At New Glasgow

A six-man track and field team from the Abegweit Amateur Athletic Club will leave this morning by car for New Glasgow, N. S. The team, made up of both senior and junior athletes, will compete against other leading Maritime athletic clubs there this afternoon as part of New Glasgow's bi-centennial celebrations being held there this week.

Those who will compose the local team are George Walters (captain), Johnny Cash, Wendell Barrett, Bob Jay, Cullen DeLory, and Bob Naylor of Amherst, who will join the local club on the mainland.

Junior Vics Come From Behind To Smash Out 10-2 Win Over Kinsmen

Sparked by the brilliant relief hurling of Wendall "Preacher" Gillis the Junior Vics smashed out a 10-2 win over the Kinsmen in a 10-inning contest at Memorial Field yesterday afternoon before a large crowd of fans.

The winners had to do it the hard way as they came from behind a 2-0 Kinsmen lead with five big runs in the fifth frame and added three more in the sixth and another brace of tallies in the seventh.

Gillis came on in the sixth inning with the Vics leading 5-2 to take over the pitching chores from Currie. The bases were packed to their fullest capacity but the old Preacher let the Kinsmen down without a run when he whiffed Purcell and made the next two batters hit easy outs. In the next frame he got into trouble again when MacDougall got his second single of the day. Coyle walked to put men on first and third. Cairns hit a ball back to the mound and Gillis forced MacDougall at third. He whiffed Trainor and Kennedy hit into an infield out. From then on the losers hardly smelled his offerings as he retired the sides in order in the last two frames.

The Kinsmen had trouble in getting the winners out as they used three pitchers in an effort to stop the Vics. MacDougall started and was relieved by Taylor in the fifth after giving up five runs on eight hits. Taylor was replaced by Carson who pitched the remainder of the game.

Currie before he was yanked was touched for seven hits and both Kinsmen runs. He received credit for the win, while Lorne MacDougall was the loser.

MacDougall led the batters during the game, each getting three hits. Art Hughes had a double and a terrifically long home run to centre field for the winners also. Trainor and John MacDougall were the leading balmers for the losers each getting a brace of singles during the contest.

Dowling & MacKenzie Lead First Round Of P. E. I. Golf Tourney

Leading a field of seventy-seven golfers, the largest in many years, Maurice "Mouse" Dowling, defending champion, and Art MacKenzie, holed out with a gross 75 each for a first place tie at the end of the first round of the Provincial Amateur Golf Championships held over the Charlottetown Golf Club's Belvedere Course on Saturday afternoon. Both are from the local club.

Alan MacMillan, President of the Charlottetown Club, chucked up a 78 for a close second. The final 18 holes of the competition will be held over the Summerside Golf Club's course next Saturday.

With the fairways, greens, and the weather perfect for golfing, the competition throughout the day was very keen, with Dowling and MacKenzie in particular, playing very consistent golf for the entire 18 holes. On the outgoing nine, both golfers chucked up 38's just three over par and came back in over the final nine with par performances of 37.

Dowling shot one under par on both the 14th, and 15th, holes and scored pars on eleven others, while MacKenzie shot a three on the par-four first and came through with twelve other par performances. MacMillan also went out in a three over par 38 display but had
