

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Hurricane Edna put the kibosh on racing in the Maritimes last Saturday night—Stdney and Truro, N.S., Charlottetown, P.E.I., Fredericton, Saint John and Moncton, N.B., all had to be cancelled. Moncton Raceway received the full force of the storm which demolished over 25 stalls and turned that many horses out of house and home for the night. The horses were rounded up and placed under the grand stand. None were injured as they seemed to sense the danger and were easily taken care of by the groomers. The lighting system, the tote board and part of the fence were damaged. We understand that the stalls will have to be completely rebuilt and it will cost several thousand dollars. The management, however, are taking this in stride and we note where races were held on Wednesday night and will be held again tonight. As far as we can learn it is the only track that suffered much damage and we sympathize with the management in having such a loss overtake them so early in their operations.

We notice an ad for a complete dispersal sale of horses and equipment owned by Ralph Parker, R.

R. I. High River, Alberta. Among them is The Great G. p. 202 1/2, sire of Strong G. p. 207. Memorial G. p. 207. Nova G. p. 210 1/2. Gallant Bobby p. 213 1/2, David G. p. 214. The G. Patch p. 208 1/2 and others. The Great G. is a brown horse by Berry the Great 200 1/2, dam Helen Johnson by Single G. 158 1/2, and was bred by C. E. Johnson, Coatesville, Indiana. In the season of 1952 he made 13 starts and had winning brackets in 12 of them. His record was taken at Lexington, Ky. He is a splendidly proportioned horse and was purchased the next year by C. L. Dauphinee and B. C. Cruikshank of Halifax and brought to the Maritimes for racing in 1943.

The opinion of horsemen here was that he had not been rested sufficiently after such a long journey from the western states. The result was that he did not make a good showing in his first start at Charlottetown in the Junior Free For All Pace, August 13, 1943 which was won by Jolly (Conroy) owned by Moriarty & Lacey, Dartmouth, with 1-1-3. Dale H. (Hennessey) 2-3-1, Hhea Mae (Hood) 4-2-2. All Grattan (J. O'Brien) 5-1. Continued on page 7

Leaves Today For Rangers Training Camp

Orin Carver (above) who starred with the Islanders last season, leaves for Saskatoon, Sask., today to attend the training camp of New York Rangers.

Carver was All-Star right winger in the Maritime Major Hockey League last year in his first season out of junior hockey. He played with the Memorial Cup champion Barrie Flyers in 1952-53.

Boston Boxer Good Puncher, Crowd Pleaser

Pictured above is Johnny McDonough, the highly rated Boston middleweight boxer who will meet Cobby McCloskey in a 10-round bout at the Forum on Monday night, September 27.

The hard hitting colorful McDonough, who has nine knockouts to his credit in 19 professional fights, tips the scales at 155 pounds. In one of his more recent outings he kayeed Smitty Hicks, the middleweight champion of Maine in two rounds. It was his second fight with Hicks and his second knockout victory over the Maine champ. It took McDonough nine rounds to put Hicks away the first time.

The Boston fighter boxes out of Clem Crowley's stable. Crowley manages Johnny O'Brien the leading contender for the World's Featherweight title. O'Brien recently lost a close 12-round decision to Jimmy Carruthers of Australia the retired feather weight champion.

Following is a review of McDonough's 19 professional fights. The impressive part of his record is the fact that he has won his last nine fights by knockouts. Before turning professional in 1951 he had been Golden Gloves champion.

Bobby King, lost decision, 10 rounds.

Racing Here Tonight; May Be Last Meet Of Season

Saint John Hockey Hopes Almost Nil

SAINT JOHN, N. B. (CP)—Chances of Saint John being represented in Maritime provinces senior hockey this winter lessened Friday.

The New Brunswick Senior Hockey League has set Sunday as a deadline for a Saint John entry and Friday night there was no indication any individual or group intended to organize or financially back a team.

At Fredericton Jack T. H. Fenety, first vice-president of the league, who had conducted a week-long investigation into the Saint John situation, said he had been unable to uncover anyone in this city interested in a senior hockey club.

City Stevenson, a co-manager of last winter's Beavers, reiterated an earlier statement by himself and the other part-owner of the 1953-54 club, Murray M. Long, that they would not operate a team.

There is also some doubt the Saint John Forum will open its doors this winter. The rink is faced with court action brought by a bond-holder for recovery of interest due on his bonds. The present directors, who are not contesting the action, say they will not operate the rink this winter.

It is possible there will be a sheriff's sale of the building.

Tournament.

The tournament opens today and is a two-day affair. Dowling is professional at the Charlottetown Golf Course.

Marciano Retains Title By Chilling Charles In Eighth

By Jack Hand

NEW YORK, (AP)—Blood-spattered Rocky Marciano, warned three times for punching after the bell, floored Ezzard Charles three times in a savage attack and knocked out the former champion in 2:36 of the eighth round Friday night. It was his fourth defence of his world heavyweight title.

With blood flowing from a gashed nose and right eye, the unbeaten titleholder swarmed to the kill with a barrage of punches that ended Charles' dreams of becoming the first former champ to win back the championship.

Down for a two-count in the second round, Charles fought back gamely under heavy fire until he was sunk for keeps in the fierce eighth.

A thunderous right hand punch to the jaw midway in the eighth sent the Cincinnati Negro sprawling on his side under the ropes. He bounced up quickly at the count of two but was badly hurt.

ROCKY CUTS LOOSE

Determined not to let Charles escape again, the Brockton, Mass., slugger loosened a barrage of punches.

Charles sunk to his knees under a left-right-left attack and it seemed certain he would never get up.

Blinking while referee Al Berl tolled the count, Charles made a last gasp effort to rise after nine. He still was getting up when Berl shouted "ten" and motioned that the Yankee Stadium fight was finished.

A swarm of Rocky's admirers poured into the working press section at the sudden ending and his father kissed him in mid-ring.

Marciano bled from the nose in the third and suffered a deep cut at the tip of the nose in the sixth. In the eighth, the left eye that was cut in the first fight, June 17, again was cut.

All three officials had the champ way out front, giving only the first round to Charles. Referee Berl had it 5-1 and judges Frank Forbes and Artie Aldala each 6-1. The AP card was 5-1-1.

Eager to drop the man he had been unable to floor in 15 rounds in their first match, Marciano hit Charles after the bell in the second, fifth and seventh. Charles traded punches with him after the fifth. Referee Berl warned Rocky at the end of the fifth and seventh for the after-the-bell blows and cautioned him for a borderline low blow in the sixth.

Charles did not escape warnings from Berl who cautioned him for holding in the fourth and seventh. Time after time he had to pry Ezzay away from Marciano.

CHARLES TOOK FIRST

Charles took charge of the champ in the first round. He was hooking with the left and driving home short right hand punches to the head while tying up Rocky in close. Marciano was missing.

But Rocky did not permit Charles to pile up the wide early lead he took in June. In the second the champ drove three solid right hand punches to the body and then boomed home a right to the head that floored Ezz.

Charles bounced up quickly and lunged back at the champ in the final seconds of the round. Marciano drove home a right after the bell ended the second.

Although Charles was staggered three times in the third and again in the fourth, he managed to fight on even terms in the fifth. Spinning Marciano with one hand around his neck, he drew a warning from Berl. Then Marciano launched another fierce attack that found both men swinging freely after the bell.

HUNTERS' CORNER

The trout fishermen's Inning are over... game called on account of time limit. The season officially ended at mid-night of Wednesday, September 15. There are always the few who will try to sneak in a few runs regard less of the chance they may be caught off base. Try your luck boys if you feel that way about it. I'd love waving you to the side-line.

For the true blue angler it will be a long wait till next April 15. However, there is one bright spot... they cannot take away one's memories, the whisper of leaves in the dawning... mist rising from a darkened wood... the musical ripple of fast water... the heart warming swirl of a feeding trout. For the fishermen who prefer angling from a boat on a quiet mill dam memory conjurs red winged black birds swinging on the reeds... the V of a swimming muskrat... the contented gabble of a brood of feeding black ducks... the clear cry of the grebes or the deep boom of the bittern.

A large number of anglers fraternely placed their bets on the tidal rivers and seaward sandbars. Maybe they are the most satisfied of the lot. This type of angling requires patience but the prize is well worth it on many occasions some beautiful specimens were creelred from the deep salt water; this past season and while they were waiting for a strike they could listen to the throaty gurgle of the tide as it crept up on the sun warmed sand or watch white gulls wheeling in the blue and busy shore birds whose twinkling feet followed each receding wave or retreated from its advance.

As usual many anglers are deploping their poor luck while others have nothing to complain about. In this scribble it was not because of a scarcity of trout referring particularly to the sea run variety. To my way of thinking, trout were in a finicky mood this year. They were well fed for one thing as more than plentiful rains kept fresh water streams at a high level. Every trout I caught this season had its belly rounded out with a collection of grub, beetles, snails, stickle backs and whatnot. Trout that are not really hungry (Continued on page 15)

Ch'town Will Apply For Entry In NB Hockey League

Charlottetown will be represented at the meeting of the New Brunswick Hockey League on Sunday by Dr. F. C. Dougan, Sam Kennedy, Gilbert A. Gaudet and Forrest Clow. It was decided last night at a special hockey meeting at the Forum.

An invitation to attend the meeting was received here from secretary of the N.B. League. The meeting will be held in Amherst. Charlottetown will apply for entry into the League. Other clubs in the circuit are Amherst, Moncton and Fredericton. Halifax will be present at the Sunday meeting.

First reports on the drive to raise funds were heard last night. The initial reports were very satisfactory and officials to believe that enough money will be raised to sponsor a team.

Another meeting will be held at the Forum at 7:30 Monday evening.

Indians Clinch Tie For Flag; Giants Dodgers, Lose

DETROIT (AP)—Cleveland Indians clinched a tie for the American League pennant Friday night by whipping Detroit Tigers 6-3 on Bobby Avila's grand-slam homer in the seventh inning.

Avila's home run, a 350-foot liner into the lower left field seats, gave the Indians their eighth straight victory in their inexcusable drive to end the five-year rule of New York Yankees. One more and Cleveland victory or a Yankee loss it will be all over.

Bob Lemon, Cleveland's 33-year-old ace, pitched a six-hitter and recorded his 23rd victory against only six losses. He was breezing behind a 2-0 lead until a pair of errors, by leftfielder Al Smith and Avila, allowed the Tigers to tie the score with two unearned runs in the sixth.

Cleveland had taken a 2-0 lead in the first inning with Al Rosen knocking in the second run with a 380-foot homer into the lower right field seats, his 24th.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies delayed the New York Giants' pennant march Friday night as Robin Roberts vanquished Johnny Antonelli in a 4-3 pitching duely.

A single by Del Ennis with the bases loaded and one out in the eighth inning drove in Philadelphia's tying and winning runs after the Giants had gone ahead 3-2 in the fifth with two unearned runs.

The loss prevented the Giants from adding to their 4 1/2 game lead over the Brooklyn Dodgers. Roberts permitted seven hits as he registered his 21st victory of the season and his third over the Giants. It was only Philadelphia's fourth triumph in 17 meetings with the Giants and its first in nine games at the Polo Grounds.

Antonelli, seeking his 22nd victory, absorbed his sixth defeat, three at the hands of the Phillies.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The New York Yankees kept their pennant chances just barely alive Friday night by whipping the Philadelphia Athletics 10-3. Tommy Byrne helped win his own ball game, batting in three runs with a single and double, while Yogi Berra contributed a three-run homer.

The Yanks scored three times in the first inning. Johnny Gray walked in Irv Noren and Mickey Mantle with one out. Berra doubled both runners home and scored on Eddie Robinson's double.

The A's first run came on Bill Wilson's lead-off ninth inning homer.

Eagles Defeat Braves 8-5

The Southport Eagles defeated the Charlottetown Braves 18-5 yesterday evening in an exhibition softball game.

Billy MacFarlane pitched two-hit ball for the winners while Billy Wright tossed a 10-hitter in losing. Joe Revell, Billy Hughes and Billy MacFarlane led all batters with three hits.

Freddy Quinn made some fine fielding plays in right field. Joe Revell also played a strong game at short. It was the Braves' first defeat to Southport in the last two years.
