ties; and determine that, according to the best of their judgment,

"Our deputies, the land's elect,
shall be, indeed,
"Her choice of worth and mind."— in that choice—whatever new men may be included in it—the present parliamentary leaders of both parties will, most assuredly, be found—as they deserve to be—the foremost and most honored on the roll. Then may we expect, through a necessary—may I not say unavoidable?—coalition of talents, learning, integrity, experience, respectability, and patriotism, the formation of a new party—THE PARTY OF PROGRESS—and the installation of a Government rich in all the elements which give stability and permanence to constitutional administrations. Then, as the life of such a party—then, as constituting such a Government, may our political chiefs justly and confidently exclaim,—

"A course like ours is its own sacrament:
Truth, justice, reason, love, and liberty,
Th' eternal links that clasp the world are in it,
And he who breaks their sanction, breaks all law
And infinite connection."

Of the complots, formed by certain disappointed, vindictive, scheming, and needy ambitious individuals, for the political annihilation of some of the most prominent of these men, I am well aware, and well aware am I also of the vile calumnies which they have basely concocted and basely propagated, for the purpose of damning them, if possible, in the estimation of their several constituencies; but, notwithstanding all this, I am quite certain that their labours to this end,—even were they giants, instead of pigmies in intellect, as they are,—will prove as futile, and, perhaps, as overwhelming to themselves, as the Titans found theirs to be in their furious and insane attempt to dethrone the Thunderer. The places which these men occupy in the esteem, gratitude, and affections of their several constituencies, have been too honorably and justly attained, for the malicious inventions of envy—though keen and persistent as the blood-hound—ever to have sufficient weight and influence to deprive them of them.

WE copy from a Report of a meeting of Presbytery, published in the last Patriot, the following choice extract:—

"Mr. McNeill submitted an overture, requesting the Presbytery to adopt it, and transmit it to Synod, desiring the latter body to take into consideration, the propriety of establishing a mission among the Roman Catholics of the Lower Provinces. On account of the small attendance at Presbytery, it was agreed to postpone the discussion of this overture till next meeting."

It was a wise thing to postpone the discussion of the "overture"—(what a nice word!) If the Catholics made a proposal to establish a "mission" amongst the Protestants of the Lower Provinces, what a tremendous uproar there would be about it! We imagine that that "mission" would likewise have to be "postponed."

"The Patriot Editor has quite a talent for misquoting."—Examiner, November 19.

"When he says we are in the habit of misquoting, he is simply bearing false witness against his neighbor."—Patriot, November 24.

Does not the latter extract, which was intended to be a crushing refutation of the first, clearly prove that our contemporary possesses the talent for misquoting? We made no allusion to Mr. Laird's "habits."

MRS. WENTWORTH STEVENSON has handed to us a statement of her accounts connected with the holding of several Concerts given by her in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, on behalf of the poor sufferers by the great fire in July last, which she desires to have published. We have not room for them in our present No., but will endeavor to find a place for them next week.

COUNCIL ELECTIONS.

Writs for the Election of six members to serve in the Legislative Council, in the place of six members of that Body, whose seats have become vacant by Law, have just been issued by His Excellency the Lieut. Governor, in Council. The Writs bear teste on the 21st inst. Nomination day 12th December. Election, 19th. The following are the names of the gentlemen whose seats are vacated:—

KING'S COUNTY.
Hon. Andrew A. McDonald,
" James Dingwell.

PRINCE COUNTY.
Hon. James Yeo,
" Donald Ramsay.

QUEEN'S COUNTY.
Hon. John Goff,
" Kenneth Henderson.

We have every reason to believe that the hand of the Incendiary is again busy in our midst. We are informed that an attempt was made, on Wednesday night last, to burn the premises of Mr. John Jury, Kent Street. Matches and other combustible materials were found on his premises. It is to be regretted that the perpetrators of these vile acts cannot be discovered. The scoundrel who would set fire to the premises of his unoffending fellow-creature, in the dead hour of the night, and subject him and his family to the risk of being burnt in their beds, deserves, when caught, to be suspended on the first lamp-post.—Islander.

His Excellency the Lieut. Government, in Council has been pleased to order THURSDAY, the SIXTH day of DECEMBER next, as a day of General Thanksgiven to Almighty God for the many mercies we have received at His hands, in our preservation from pestilence, for an abundant Harvest, and the continuance of peace during the present year.—Isl.

The preparations of Dr. Knights, of Melrose, Mass., are becoming deservedly popular, not only in this Island, but in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. By all the prominent Druggists of St. John and Halifax it is conceded that his Larookah's Pulmonic Syrup is the most effectual remedy for Coughs, Colds, and all pulmonic complaints, that has ever been made available to the public. We are glad that our people are so quick to appreciate a good medicine, while so many worthless ones are attempted to be foisted upon them by unscrupulous quacks.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—On Saturday night, the 10th inst., about 7 o'clock, Mr. Bernard McTague, of Montague, Lot 57, was returning, on foot, from his daughter's house, and when within three quarters of a mile from his own house, he was overtaken by a person named Dougherty, who had a horse and gig. This man kindly asked McTague to take a lift; the old man agreed and got in. Dougherty drove along cautiously, till coming to a bad place in the road, opposite P. O'Connell's, where the horse shied. Dougherty suddenly struck him, which caused him to jump and rear. The seat of the gig gave away, and poor McTague was thrown violently on the hard road. He was stunned for some time, but became better, and was carried home. He retained the use of his senses and his speech until about 5 o'clock on Tuesday morning, when he died.

McTague was in his sixty-fifth year, and was always an industrious, sober and honest man. He leaves a large family and many friends, and is deservedly regretted by all.—May he rest in peace.—Com.

By the arrival of the steamer Merlin from St. John's, Nfld., we have dates from that place to the 15th inst. An election to fill a vacancy in the representation of Trinity Bay, resulted in the return of R. Alsopp, Esq. Scarlet fever was raging in St. John's. A very valuable copper mine was in operation at Tilt Cove. It gives employment to one hundred men. The ore is procured in large quantities, and its yield of pure copper is stated to be from 10 to 20 per cent. Some 1,700 tons of the ore had been sent to England. Some marble deposits are also furnishing valuable specimens, and are in progress for extensive quarrying in coming years. About a week ago a young fisherman named John Sutton, from Trepassey Bay, was killed at St. John's, by falling from the cliff at "Crow's Nest," where he appeared to have strayed quite unaccountably. Some money and a silver watch were found on his person. A Coroner's Jury gave a verdict of accidental death. A correspondent of one of the St. John's papers writing from Placentia on the 31st Oct. reports the result of the fishing season as very bad. As usual, he says, when the French leaves the Banks, there has been a good deal of fish at Cape St. Mary's during the month, and some good catches had been made, when bait was got. The potato blight is worse than in any past year, and this with the bad fishery causes great poverty, and numbers must starve if employment is not given.

The Mayor of Quebec received from London a despatch dated 7th inst., authorizing him to draw on Messrs. Glyn & Co., for £2,500 stg., on account of the fund for the relief of Quebec sufferers. This makes a total of £7,000 stg. sent from the mother country. $10,000 have gone from New York, nearly $20,000 from the Maritime Provinces, and immense sums from every quarter.—Her Majesty contributed $1,500.

The Hon. Mr. McGee entertained his countryman, J. Francis Maguire, Esq., M. P., for Cork, at a select dinner party at St. James' Club, Montreal, on the 8th inst. The party included a number of the leading citizens. A public dinner was tendered to Mr. M., which he declined.

The New York correspondent of the St. John Freeman says:—

The wonderful influences of money and its absolute superiority over every other consideration is strangely and truly manifested in the election of John Morrissey to a seat in the National Congress. He is no longer the prize-fighter, gambler, burglar and black-leg his past career would suggest, but an honorable member of the United States Congress. No less than six indictments for as many crimes—including murder, burglary, assault and battery—have been found against him by the Grand Jury of this State, in the face of which he was triumphantly elected! In answer to the attacks of the opposition he published a letter a few days since, in which he claimed exemption from the consequences of previous record on the pretext that he "had a son twelve years old, to whom he wished to transmit a name free from reproach, and unsullied by the pernicious reputation of his father;" He had a "laudable ambition in aspiring to the title of "M. C."; there is a vast difference between the son of Morrissey the Pugilist, and the son of the Hon John Morrissey, M. C. He is one of the richest men in the States, having accumulated a vast fortune through the instrumentality of a faro-bank, of which he has been proprietor at Saratoga. That he lacks brains and education may be atoned for in physical culture; where a knock-down argument is needed, he is unquestionably "the right man in the right place." Such an opponent may intimidate the fearless Butler—just elected to Congress in Massachusetts—and dissuade him from his determination to impeach President Johnson.

A ROYAL PRINTER.—The young prince, son of the Emperor Napoleon, has requested permission to learn the art of printing. A miniature press has been prepared for him in the Tuilleries, and a printer selected to give him the necessary instruction in the "art preservative of all arts."

TESTING SWORD BLADES.—The blade must possess an amount of elasticity sufficient to enable it to recover its shape perfectly after flexure, and must be sufficiently tenacious to resist a violent shock. To test its elasticity, the foreman takes hold of the blade by the shaft, fixes the point in a plank, and by a rapid but steady lounge, without the slightest jerk, bends it until the middle part touches the plank. He afterwards closely examines it to see if it has resumed its original shape. It is a rare circumstance for a blade to break under this test, but it frequently does not recover its former shape, and is then said to be faussante. Sometimes this defect cannot be remedied, and there is no alternative but to reject the blade; often, however, by submitting it to several annealings, its elasticity may be restored; and the blade will afterwards pass the test. The second test, for tenacity, consists in striking the flat of the blade upon a block of rounded wood, thereby causing it to take for the moment a sharp bend, since the blow is sufficiently violent to make it touch every point of the curved surface of the wood; in fact, it twists itself round the block of wood for an indefinitely short space of time. If the blade recovers its shape again it is then struck first with the back and then with the edge upon an anvil surmounted by a small block of wood, which the blade should cut through without evincing any signs of having done so, upon its edge or other portion of it. The blades having undergone this last test, are passed and despatched to the workshop to have their hilts put on. It is only the blades for cavalry sabers that are submitted to these very severe tests: those for the infantry, of a yatagan shape are too short and thick to be able to undergo it.—Mechanics' Magazine.

INVIGORATE THE RESPONSIBLE ORGAN.

The stomach is the responsible organ of the system. If the digestion is imperfect, every member, every gland, every muscle, every nerve and fibre is more or less out of order. All the fluids are depraved. The brain is clouded. The spirits are depressed. All dyspeptics know this to be the truth. It is not, however, past the truth. Columns would be required to enumerate the pains and penalties of dyspepsia, nor could any pen do them justice. Tens of thousands feel them; no man can describe them.

Can they be prevented? Can they be relieved? Can they be banished at once and for ever? UNQUESTIONABLY THEY CAN. No dyspeptic has ever taken HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS in vain. Believe no one who says the complaint is incurable. This great vegetable stomachic will eradicate it—is eradicating it in thousands of cases over which medical practicioners have shaken their heads unanimously, saying, "Nothing can be done."

The faculty has its fallacies. One of them is that Indigestion is the most difficult of all the ordinary ailments of mankind to combat and subdue. This is a mistake. Nothing can be easier than to conquer it if the true specific be administered. This vegetable combination which has become famous throughout the civilized world as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is an antidote to the disease which has never been known to fail, fortunately is everywhere procurable. If you wish to fool with the dyspepsia, try the pharmacopœia prescriptions. If you want to root it out and prevent its recurrence, take the Bitters daily. There is no discount on the testimony in its favour. If there is a man or woman who has ever tried it for indigestion without being benefitted, the fact has not transpired. Universal, uncontradicted praise avouches its wonderful tonic virtues.

Holloway's Pills.—Wrongs made Right.—Every day that any bodily suffering is permitted to continue renders it more certain to become chronic or dangerous. Holloway's purifying, cooling and strengthening Pills are well adapted for any irregularity of the human body, and should be taken when the stomach is disordered, the liver deranged, the kidneys inactive, the bowels torpid or the brain muddled. With this medicine every invalid can cure himself, and those who are weak and infirm through imperfect digestion may make themselves strong and stout by Holloway's excellent Pills. A few doses of them usually mitigate the most painful symptoms caused by undigested food, from which they thoroughly free the alimentary canal, and completely restore its natural power and action.

MOTHERS, MOTHERS, MOTHERS.—Don't fail to procure MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for all diseases incident to the period of teething in children. It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother. Thirty-five cents a bottle.

GEORGE LEWIS, Market Celrk.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

SO wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are its cures, that in almost every section of country are persons publicly known, who have been restored by it from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits upon the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and other eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our AMERICAN ALMANAC in which they are given; with, also, full descriptions of the complaints our remedies cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the one to use. Try it once, and you will concede its value.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere.
