New Steel Trawlers Proving Their Worth

By J. W. LAVERA
GEORGETOWN—Three steel stern trawlers owned by Gulf Garden Foods Ltd. of Georgetown are proving that this type of trawler is the "shot in the arm" that the fishing industry of the Atlantic Provinces needed to cure a variety of ills. The three trawlers, the Gulf Gallant, the Gulf Gull and the Gulf Hawk, built for Gulf Garden Foods Ltd. by Bathurst Marine Ltd., of Georgetown, are currently fishing the Gulf of St. Lawrence waters and landing huge catches of fish to the south fish plants of Usen Fisheries Ltd. and Eastern Fisheries Ltd. Red fish constitute the great majority of the catches at this season of the year. From June 1 to July 24, the three trawlers have landed the staggering total of 1,870,079 pounds of fish. The largest single load being brought to port by the Gulf Gallant when she landed 224,605 pounds. To land the nearly two million pounds of fish the three trawlers together have made 14 landings.

New Orchestra At Tignish Shows Immediate Popularity

TIGNISH—The Rockin' Robins, a local orchestra promoted and sponsored by the Tignish Sports Recreation Association, comprising Jean Perry at the piano; Bobby Boyce, drums; Vincent Doucette, electric guitar; Terrie Arsenault, electric guitar and singer with the group, played for the first time Tuesday and Saturday nights at the Centennial arena here. The group proved more popular than ever anticipated, proving that local talent can play an important role in any small community. The orchestra will continue to play throughout the summer months. The Sports Association, sponsoring summer and winter activities for the youth, has at the present time 125 children enrolled in their annual Red Cross Water Safety Swimming program. During the coming week, following their instructions at the water safety at the arena, Major and Minor baseball is in full swing on the new diamond. The new arena at Tignish has opened a door for the youth of the area, and has provided recreation for the older people as well. The past few weeks were busy ones for the members, as they lined up their summer program of entertainment. The Women's Working Auxiliary of the association purchased a piano for the orchestra which has been drawing the crowds.

Nicholson Rumored Possible Candidate

The name of Charlottetown lawyer, John P. Nicholson has been mentioned by political observers here in connection with the leadership of the provincial Liberal Party. Although Alexander Campbell, M.L.A., Summerside lawyer, has announced he will not seek the leadership, there has been speculation that Dr. M. Lorne Bonnell, interim leader, may still meet some opposition before a final choice is made at a leadership meeting scheduled soon. Local Liberal supporters have been heard to express pleasure at the prospect of persuading Mr. Nicholson, a city councillor, to seek the leadership nomination. They say his knowledge of political matters in this province and his keen intellect would be a decided asset in the Legislature. It is believed he would have strong support from the rank and file members of the party if he should choose to let his name come before the convention.

Postmen Here Ask Details

Charlottetown postal clerks have expressed sympathy with striking postal workers in other parts of Canada and may decide on the strike issue here at a meeting this evening. The Charlottetown branch of the Canadian Postal Employees Association yesterday passed a resolution stating members were in sympathy with those who are not satisfied with the proposed raise for postal workers in that we do not believe that it brings us up in line with comparable services in Canada. It added, however, that members "would appreciate a more concerted action and more dynamic leadership on the part of our national executive." The Charlottetown branch has asked for more information on the issue from the national executive, which also met yesterday and a second meeting of the branch will be held when this is obtained.

Atlantic Acceptance Corp. Future May Be Fixed Soon

By GORDON GRANT
Canadian Press Staff Writer
The air around Atlantic Acceptance Corp. is as clouded now as it was six weeks ago when the company ran into financial troubles. But the situation may clear in the next week or so. An offer for part of Atlantic's business is expected to be submitted to note-holders in about 10 days. The first hint that something was wrong with Atlantic came when the stock market June 15 when the company's shares were offered at $14 each after selling for $20 1/2 the previous day. On June 15, after the Toronto Stock Exchange closed, the company, bombarded with queries, said it had defaulted on payment of a $5,000,000 note which had been due June 14. An $8,000,000 note due June 15 also had gone unpaid. Under terms of the company's trust deed, all debts became payable. These totalled an estimated $115,000,000, but the exact figure has never been revealed.

Fredericks department store of London, Ont., went under July 5. It owed Adelaide Acceptance, an Atlantic subsidiary, more than $600,000. Commodore Sales Acceptance, another Atlantic subsidiary, filed a petition July 15 to put Racan Photo-Copy Corp. into bankruptcy, claiming debts of $700,000. After two brief court sessions, the hearing was put over to Sept. 10. An application was made July 16 to put Daltle Corp. (Canada) Ltd. and DHI Ltd. into bankruptcy by Commodore, claiming debts of $9,200,000. A spokesman for the Clarkson Co. receivers, said the moves were technical and would not be followed up. Arcan Corp. was placed in receivership July 22 by Commodore, which said it held a $350,000 debenture of Arcan's. All this has prompted a new "game" on Bay Street, Toronto's financial centre, which is "Who's next for bankruptcy?"

Some trust companies were also rumored to be in financial difficulty, but they denied it. Many made a point of stressing their strength in interim reports. Early this month shares of British Mortgage and Trust of Stratford, Ont., crashed to about $8 from $28. HELD ATLANTIC NOTES It was disclosed that British Mortgage held Atlantic notes through the amount involved has never been revealed. William P. Gregory, president of British Mortgage, had resigned from Atlantic's board when it went into receivership. Denison Mines Ltd., Canada's largest uranium company which also has interests in real estate, oil, cement and trucking, said it was considering making an offer for British Mortgage. Neither company would say what type of deal would be arranged, although it is understood that Denison would ante up about $6,000,000 for British Mortgage treasury stock. Denison wasn't the only company interested in British Mortgage. Cecil Richards, Ontario's superintendent of insurance, said last week British Mortgage "may soon" amalgamate with another Ontario trust company. Mr. Richards would not say what company may be interested in tying up with British Mortgage. Victoria and Grey Trust was widely rumored to be the company, but officials would not comment. Shares of British Mortgage closed at $3 1/2 to $4 1/4 on the unlisted market Friday.

FILE PETITIONS
Meanwhile, subsidiaries of Atlantic Acceptance were busy filing petitions to put other companies into bankruptcy or receivership. Fredericks department store of London, Ont., went under July 5. It owed Adelaide Acceptance, an Atlantic subsidiary, more than $600,000. Commodore Sales Acceptance, another Atlantic subsidiary, filed a petition July 15 to put Racan Photo-Copy Corp. into bankruptcy, claiming debts of $700,000. After two brief court sessions, the hearing was put over to Sept. 10. An application was made July 16 to put Daltle Corp. (Canada) Ltd. and DHI Ltd. into bankruptcy by Commodore, claiming debts of $9,200,000. A spokesman for the Clarkson Co. receivers, said the moves were technical and would not be followed up. Arcan Corp. was placed in receivership July 22 by Commodore, which said it held a $350,000 debenture of Arcan's. All this has prompted a new "game" on Bay Street, Toronto's financial centre, which is "Who's next for bankruptcy?"

the week of April 24, the magazine says. New orders are down sharply. The magazine says one company September order: call for only 35 per cent of the firm's capacity. Another is booked for only 15 per cent. Steel predicts that August shipments should equal or exceed shipments for July. The magazine adds heavy buildup of inventories indicates a decline in output of ingots and castings during the next six months. A record 70,600,000 tons was produced in the first half of 1965. Steel also says a86-a-ton-increase in long term steel sheets by U.S. Steel Corp. Reflects "upward pressures on the cost of producing steel." The price had been $151.80 a ton. Long term steel made by only a few companies—a sheet of steel coated in lead and tin, and used to make gasoline tanks and air cleaners in automobiles.
