

A Wonderful Letter

From a Grateful Man.

Paine's Celery Compound Saved His Life.

Physicians, Medicines and Mineral Springs Failed Him in His Time of Need.

A Prominent Druggist Vouches for the Truth of Every Statement.

WELLS & RICHARDSON CO.,
GENTLEMEN,—I think it my duty, without solicitation from anyone, to write in the interests of other sufferers, and give you a testimonial in favor of your (to me) almost miraculous remedy, Paine's Celery Compound. For more than a year I was suffering from the agonizing pains of sciatica, and after trying all that medical skill could devise, and using many remedies, patent and otherwise, I concluded to try the Hot Springs at Banff. I took the treatment thoroughly and carefully for six weeks, and came home at the end of that time racked with pain and weighing 43 pounds less. At this juncture, when hope had almost fled I heard of Paine's Celery Compound. It seemed suited to my case, and I sent to my druggist, Mr. J. W. Higginbotham, of this place, and asked him about it. He recommended it to me, and I took a bottle. I soon began to feel better, and after taking the second bottle I was a cured man and threw away my crutches.

I kept a bottle on hand in case of my return of the complaint. I am now 58 years old, and I feel as spry and healthy and free from pain as ever I did in my life. I was born in Northfolk, England, and came to Canada when only 3 years old. I was brought up in the township of Cornwall, Ontario, and came to Manitoba eight years ago. Have always been a farmer, and am as able to do hard work now as ever I was.

With a heart full of gratitude for the benefits derived from the use of your remedy, and a wish to influence others who may suffer, I gladly and freely indite this letter.

Yours gratefully,
JAMES LEVERINGTON,
Virden, Man.

Mr J W Higginbotham, the successful and extremely popular druggist of Virden vouches for Mr. Leverington's statements as follows:
I have known Mr. Leverington for two years or more, and can confirm what he says in regard to his cure by Paine's Celery Compound. Ever since his cure he has been sounding its praises, and he is a perfect enthusiast on the subject of Paine's Celery Compound. I believe him to be thoroughly reliable.

J. W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
Druggist.

WATCHES

THE watch trade has been rather fluctuating of late, first the price went up, after a long period of low prices, now the prices have dropped again, whether because of war or greater variety of production we cannot say, but the fact remains that you can buy from us a reliable timekeeper cheaper than ever before, in fact that there is no need to buy shoddy goods at all.

If you want a good and also the cheapest watch for the money, we recommend a good movement in a nickel case instead of a poor one in a fine looking colored case that will only wear a very short time.

Soliciting a share of you patronage, we remain,
Yours respectfully,

E. W. TAYLOR,
VICTORIA JEWELRY STORE.

THE SPLIT INFINITIVE.

G. Bernard Shaw Says the Clamor About It Is All Nonsense.

In a letter to the editor of the London Chronicle G. Bernard Shaw writes: I should have thought, now that we have an academy of letters, that it might rescue us from the gentlemen who occasionally write to you to explain how English should be written. Some time ago you let loose an unhappy creature to whom some competent person had incautiously pointed out a common blunder in the use of "and which." Not understanding the matter, he began accusing every writer in whose works he could discover "and which" of writing bad English. With your permission, I have extinguished him, and he has not since been heard of. There was some excuse for that poor wretch, because there unquestionably is a wrong way of using "and which," but for the "split infinitive" pest there is no excuse at all. There is nothing whatever to mislead him except his own nature. If any man were to object to a split infinitive such as "I greatly regret," or a split subjunctive such as "I should greatly prefer," or a split imperative such as "come slowly up," what newspaper would waste an inch of space on his foolish ignorance? And yet this split infinitive nonsense is taken quite seriously by editors who are sufficiently good writers to repeatedly use it themselves.

The infinitive is a mood in which the position of the adverb cannot possibly produce ambiguity; consequently the order of the words is not a matter of grammar, but of style, of which the ear is the only arbiter. The ear often demands the split infinitive and will have it in spite of all the silly people who do not know what style means.

When these infinite insects are disposed of, you will no doubt be attacked in due course by the even more impudent impostors who, though they pronounce the word "color" so as to rhyme with "duller," and never hear it and never have heard it and never will hear it pronounced in any other way, from time to time pretend to be shocked when it is spelt without a "u." I trust you will always insist on these nuisances definitely stating whether they pronounce it or "honor" or "neighbor" or "favor" or "behavior" so as to rhyme with "our" or "poor," as the case may be, or whether they are merely bogus etymologists—century belated Johnsons.

In either case you will be justified in recommending them to the care of their relatives and suppressing their babblings.

Black and White Effects.
Black and white effects again figure largely in the domain of both fashionable dress and millinery. Black and white silks, satins and brocades just brought from over the sea are set forth by leading importers. Black and white taffetas, surahs, failles and other fancy silks and liberty textiles appear. Black and white checks and plaids are being formed into stylish spring costumes by the fashionable dressmakers, and Frenchwomen are now wearing black and white satin brocade shirt waists with their stylish black cloth skirts. Waists of black and white or gray and white stripes or dots are always good style, whether made in the manner of the cotton shirt waists or with full fronts turned back with white revers over a tucked chemisette of fabric to match. A full blouse of cream white silk or satin, covered everywhere with a drapey or veiling merely of jetted black net, often proves the most becoming of all waists a slender woman of indifferent complexion can select. Sometimes cream ribbons matching the blouse are the most satisfactory additions she can make to the waist; again, a bow of soft pink or brilliant cerise satin works wonders of improvement.—New York Post.

Cleaning Up Once a Year.

The majority of people treat their systems in the same manner as a house-keeper treats her home—they go in for a good cleansing once a year. In the "home" it is a rational custom. In the case of the human system it is a most irrational habit. Your health is your most valuable possession, and it should not be necessary to have to impress upon you that you should take constant care of it. If you have been neglecting it during past seasons, and feel the need of a Spring medicine, take

Abbey's Effervescent Salt

Take it every day. It is not only a Spring medicine. It is an all-the-year-round tonic and invigorator, which purifies the blood and cleanses the system. Its use in the Spring will do you more good than many so-called Spring medicines. The fact that it is endorsed by and enters into the prescriptions of the leading physicians of Great Britain, Europe and Canada, should be sufficient guarantee of its sterling worth.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt is a standard English preparation, which is sold by all druggists at 60 cts. a large bottle. Trial size, 25 cts.

THE KIND YOU NEED.

The True, Reliable and Easy Working Diamond Dyes.

When the Diamond Dyes are used the work of home dyeing is a pleasure to every woman. Doubts and fears regarding results are never entertained. There is a confidence in every woman's heart that perfect work will crown her efforts. It is an established fact that all colors of the Diamond Dyes come out in fulness, richness and beauty.

For long, long years Diamond Dyes have been the favorite family dyes in every civilized country, and although imitation package dyes are now being offered for sale by dealers who think more of big profits than of giving satisfaction to the public, the great inferiority of these imitation dyes in strength, fastness, beauty and brilliancy was soon discovered, and they are now avoided and condemned by all who prize good, bright and durable colors.

Thousands of testimonials are coming in from all parts of the country testifying to the excellence and vast superiority of the Diamond Dyes.

Refuse all poor, worthless and imitation dyes when they are offered to you. Ask for the "Diamond," and see that the name is on each packet.

Crossing Swords in the House.

Away back in the seventies, during the famous deadlock fight on the civil rights bill, the question of the adjournment of congress was under discussion one Saturday afternoon. Ben Butler, that born wit, had stepped over to Sam Randall's desk for a private consultation. Butler favored a Sunday session, while Randall opposed it vigorously.

"Bad as I am, I have some respect for God's day," said the famous high tariff champion, "and I don't think it right to hold a session on the Sabbath."

"Oh, pshaw!" responded Butler. "Doesn't the Bible say that it is lawful to pull your ox or ass out of the pit on the Sabbath day? You have 73 asses on your side of this house that I want to get out of this ditch tomorrow, and I think I am engaged in a holy work."

"Don't do it, Butler," pleaded Randall. "I have some respect for you that I don't want to lose. I expect some day to meet you in a better world."

"But you'll be there, as you are here," retorted the sly Benjamin, quick as a flash, "a member of the lower house."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Quality of Real Fun.

One man said to another in an elevated car about something that he had just read, "Now, that is actually funny," and then he read it over again. The inference from this is, of course, that many of the things written in fun are not really funny, and making due allowance for lack of appreciation, it is doubtless true that much of the matter written as fun actually does lack the true spark. It may be well intentioned, good natured, even cheerful, and yet lack the peculiar filling, satisfying, energizing, refreshing, uplifting quality of real fun.

The man who has this kind of fun in his heart and who has besides the power of communicating it to his neighbor need not go to the Klondike for his reward.—New York Ledger.

A HISTORICAL QUERY

That Goes Back to Our Forefather in the Garden of Eden.

Did Adam Suffer from Indigestion?—His Descendants do—But They Have Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, With Which to Cure Themselves.

Did Adam suffer from Indigestion? He did not—unless it was after he had eaten the forbidden fruit.

All suffering, all pain, is contrary to the Creator's intentions. Man was not intended to suffer, or every baby would be born with a special disease.

But, since men and women, by breaking the laws of Nature, have brought pain and suffering on themselves the all-wise Creator has put within their reach the means whereby they can escape from the penalty of breaking Nature's laws, just as He gives them the chance to escape the consequence of spiritual sin.

Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Bilioousness, Sour Stomach, Flatulence, and the other diseases arising from defective digestion are the most common ailments in America. The means whereby they are cured are Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets act in the only way that can result in curing these diseases. They remove the cause. They digest the food that the worn-out can't digest, and they put the stomach in condition to carry out its duty properly and promptly.

One or two of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after each meal for a few weeks will positively cure the worst case of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, etc. One or two doses give complete relief.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at fifty cents a box, six for $2.50, or sent, on receipt of price, by the Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.
