

charge of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Cherry Valley, in the Parish of St. John's. His Lordship, in his Ordination Sermon, dilated at length on the duties and responsibilities of the Christian Ministry. In the afternoon the rites of Confirmation were administered to a number of young persons of both sexes, whom his Lordship addressed in a suitable charge.

A MISSIONARY TO THE PROPRIETORS.

It will be seen on reference to the Passenger list, that that distinguished character, the Rat-Catcher, William Douse, Esq., has taken another trip to England. His journey will not be, however, on this occasion, solely at the expense of the Selkirk Estate, for it is generally acknowledged even by his friends, that he has been fed by the Obstructives, and must be fed at their cost, to move the land proprietors in England to employ their stupendous influence with Her Majesty's Ministers to get a forfeiture of their promise in respect to the concession of Responsible Government, so that the people may be kept for a while longer in slavery to the Compact. It must be admitted that the case of the Faction is a desperate one, when they are constrained to solicit the services of such an individual as Mr. Douse on such a Mission. They are evidently determined to die hard, but their despair is more manifest in this Mission than in any other of their recent proceedings. The fools!—had they waited a few days longer till they received the now published solemn pledges of the Ministry, they would have saved themselves from much useless expense—from utter disgrace in this Colony, and utterable contempt in Britain. When Mr. Douse will reach England he will have more reason to cry out in the terms of his hacknied vulgarity, that his interposition "will end in smoke," than ever he had on any former occasion in reference to any other subject.
