

The Guardian, Charlottetown, Fri., July 6, 1962. 7

HAPPENINGS

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE R. TRAINOR
Young Couple Pledge Vows In Ceremony At Ch'town

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the church of the Most Holy Redeemer on Saturday, June 2 when Carol Ann Mackay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mackay, Partridge, became the bride of George Robert Trainor, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Trainor of Charlottetown.

Rev. C.H. Moreaux, C.S.G., performed the double rite ceremony. The servers were David Nantes and Teddie DeCoste. The organist, Mr. Alex M. C. Leao, accompanied Miss Peggy MacIntyre who rendered appropriate hymns during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white tulle with a long, lined with scooped neckline and long tapered sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil of white silk, a coronet held in place with a cluster of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of pale pink roses.

Miss Alberta Murphy, RN, as bridesmaid wore a street length dress of blue pinks with a matching headband and shoes and her bouquet was a semi-cascade of deep pink carnations.

Mr. Ronald McKean of Charlottetown was the bestman and the ushers were Mr. Alan Gillis and Mr. Basil Dogie.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE R. TRAINOR
Young Couple Pledge Vows In Ceremony At Ch'town

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the church of the Most Holy Redeemer on Saturday, June 2 when Carol Ann Mackay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mackay, Partridge, became the bride of George Robert Trainor, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Trainor of Charlottetown.

Rev. C.H. Moreaux, C.S.G., performed the double rite ceremony. The servers were David Nantes and Teddie DeCoste. The organist, Mr. Alex M. C. Leao, accompanied Miss Peggy MacIntyre who rendered appropriate hymns during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white tulle with a long, lined with scooped neckline and long tapered sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil of white silk, a coronet held in place with a cluster of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of pale pink roses.

Miss Alberta Murphy, RN, as bridesmaid wore a street length dress of blue pinks with a matching headband and shoes and her bouquet was a semi-cascade of deep pink carnations.

Mr. Ronald McKean of Charlottetown was the bestman and the ushers were Mr. Alan Gillis and Mr. Basil Dogie.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Trainor have a 10 year old son, George, and a 4 year old daughter, Heather. They are at home at 1100 Sherwood Drive in Sherwood.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS
Annual Bazaar Plans Are Discussed At Belle River

The regular monthly meeting of the Belle River Women's Institute was held at the home of Priscilla Bell. The meeting opened in the usual manner and roll call was answered by nine members and one visitor.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Ernest Morrison, who acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. J. K. Nicholson. A donation of $2 was received from Mrs. J.W. Cook and 50 cents from Mrs. Earl Howe. Mrs. Roy MacLean and Mrs. Hank Van Overkirk offered to serve on the sick committee for July. Mrs. Bruce McKay invited the members to a treat for the August meeting.

Priscilla Bell and Mrs. V. A. Overkirk met at the home of the lunch committee. It was decided to hold the annual picnic sale and Bazaar in Belle River Hall on July 15. The "penny trinket" article was donated by Mrs. Elmer Stewart Morrison.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and roll call was answered by eight members. The treasurer reported that there was $32.94 on hand. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lorne Ferguson. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. E. Holm.

LET'S EAT
Fresh Cherries Can Be Conserved For Winter

Cherry blossoms were in full bloom in the Northwest a short time ago. A spectacular sight — the fragrant white petals, against the lofty snow-capped mountain peaks. Now cherries have come to harvest and here is the latest way to conserve them for fall and winter entertaining.

Measurements are level 1/2 cup. 2 1/2 lb. fresh sweet cherries. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice.

CHERRYVIN JAM
2 1/2 lb. fresh sweet cherries. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice.

HISTORIC AREA
Exmouth, port and summer resort in Devon, England, reported 10 ships for the stage of Calais in 1347.

MARY HAWORTH
Rebellion To Authority Is Natural In Adolescence

Dear Mary Haworth: I am writing on behalf of a friend of mine, Susan. Susan is a widow with a daughter, 16. The child is very spoiled and becoming a real problem.

Susan has worked hard since her father's death. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS
Annual Bazaar Plans Are Discussed At Belle River

The regular monthly meeting of the Belle River Women's Institute was held at the home of Priscilla Bell. The meeting opened in the usual manner and roll call was answered by nine members and one visitor.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Ernest Morrison, who acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. J. K. Nicholson. A donation of $2 was received from Mrs. J.W. Cook and 50 cents from Mrs. Earl Howe.

Mrs. Roy MacLean and Mrs. Hank Van Overkirk offered to serve on the sick committee for July. Mrs. Bruce McKay invited the members to a treat for the August meeting.

Priscilla Bell and Mrs. V. A. Overkirk met at the home of the lunch committee. It was decided to hold the annual picnic sale and Bazaar in Belle River Hall on July 15.

The "penny trinket" article was donated by Mrs. Elmer Stewart Morrison. The minutes of the last meeting were read and roll call was answered by eight members.

The treasurer reported that there was $32.94 on hand. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lorne Ferguson. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. E. Holm.

LET'S EAT
Fresh Cherries Can Be Conserved For Winter

Cherry blossoms were in full bloom in the Northwest a short time ago. A spectacular sight — the fragrant white petals, against the lofty snow-capped mountain peaks.

Now cherries have come to harvest and here is the latest way to conserve them for fall and winter entertaining. Measurements are level 1/2 cup.

CHERRYVIN JAM
2 1/2 lb. fresh sweet cherries. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice.

HISTORIC AREA
Exmouth, port and summer resort in Devon, England, reported 10 ships for the stage of Calais in 1347.

MARY HAWORTH
Rebellion To Authority Is Natural In Adolescence

Dear Mary Haworth: I am writing on behalf of a friend of mine, Susan. Susan is a widow with a daughter, 16. The child is very spoiled and becoming a real problem.

Susan has worked hard since her father's death. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS
Annual Bazaar Plans Are Discussed At Belle River

The regular monthly meeting of the Belle River Women's Institute was held at the home of Priscilla Bell. The meeting opened in the usual manner and roll call was answered by nine members and one visitor.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Ernest Morrison, who acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. J. K. Nicholson. A donation of $2 was received from Mrs. J.W. Cook and 50 cents from Mrs. Earl Howe.

Mrs. Roy MacLean and Mrs. Hank Van Overkirk offered to serve on the sick committee for July. Mrs. Bruce McKay invited the members to a treat for the August meeting.

Priscilla Bell and Mrs. V. A. Overkirk met at the home of the lunch committee. It was decided to hold the annual picnic sale and Bazaar in Belle River Hall on July 15.

The "penny trinket" article was donated by Mrs. Elmer Stewart Morrison. The minutes of the last meeting were read and roll call was answered by eight members.

The treasurer reported that there was $32.94 on hand. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lorne Ferguson. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. E. Holm.

LET'S EAT
Fresh Cherries Can Be Conserved For Winter

Cherry blossoms were in full bloom in the Northwest a short time ago. A spectacular sight — the fragrant white petals, against the lofty snow-capped mountain peaks.

Now cherries have come to harvest and here is the latest way to conserve them for fall and winter entertaining. Measurements are level 1/2 cup.

CHERRYVIN JAM
2 1/2 lb. fresh sweet cherries. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice.

HISTORIC AREA
Exmouth, port and summer resort in Devon, England, reported 10 ships for the stage of Calais in 1347.

MARY HAWORTH
Rebellion To Authority Is Natural In Adolescence

Dear Mary Haworth: I am writing on behalf of a friend of mine, Susan. Susan is a widow with a daughter, 16. The child is very spoiled and becoming a real problem.

Susan has worked hard since her father's death. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS
Annual Bazaar Plans Are Discussed At Belle River

The regular monthly meeting of the Belle River Women's Institute was held at the home of Priscilla Bell. The meeting opened in the usual manner and roll call was answered by nine members and one visitor.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Ernest Morrison, who acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. J. K. Nicholson. A donation of $2 was received from Mrs. J.W. Cook and 50 cents from Mrs. Earl Howe.

Mrs. Roy MacLean and Mrs. Hank Van Overkirk offered to serve on the sick committee for July. Mrs. Bruce McKay invited the members to a treat for the August meeting.

Priscilla Bell and Mrs. V. A. Overkirk met at the home of the lunch committee. It was decided to hold the annual picnic sale and Bazaar in Belle River Hall on July 15.

The "penny trinket" article was donated by Mrs. Elmer Stewart Morrison. The minutes of the last meeting were read and roll call was answered by eight members.

The treasurer reported that there was $32.94 on hand. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lorne Ferguson. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. E. Holm.

LET'S EAT
Fresh Cherries Can Be Conserved For Winter

Cherry blossoms were in full bloom in the Northwest a short time ago. A spectacular sight — the fragrant white petals, against the lofty snow-capped mountain peaks.

Now cherries have come to harvest and here is the latest way to conserve them for fall and winter entertaining. Measurements are level 1/2 cup.

CHERRYVIN JAM
2 1/2 lb. fresh sweet cherries. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice.

HISTORIC AREA
Exmouth, port and summer resort in Devon, England, reported 10 ships for the stage of Calais in 1347.

MARY HAWORTH
Rebellion To Authority Is Natural In Adolescence

Dear Mary Haworth: I am writing on behalf of a friend of mine, Susan. Susan is a widow with a daughter, 16. The child is very spoiled and becoming a real problem.

Susan has worked hard since her father's death. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS
Annual Bazaar Plans Are Discussed At Belle River

The regular monthly meeting of the Belle River Women's Institute was held at the home of Priscilla Bell. The meeting opened in the usual manner and roll call was answered by nine members and one visitor.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Ernest Morrison, who acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. J. K. Nicholson. A donation of $2 was received from Mrs. J.W. Cook and 50 cents from Mrs. Earl Howe.

Mrs. Roy MacLean and Mrs. Hank Van Overkirk offered to serve on the sick committee for July. Mrs. Bruce McKay invited the members to a treat for the August meeting.

Priscilla Bell and Mrs. V. A. Overkirk met at the home of the lunch committee. It was decided to hold the annual picnic sale and Bazaar in Belle River Hall on July 15.

The "penny trinket" article was donated by Mrs. Elmer Stewart Morrison. The minutes of the last meeting were read and roll call was answered by eight members.

The treasurer reported that there was $32.94 on hand. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lorne Ferguson. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. E. Holm.

LET'S EAT
Fresh Cherries Can Be Conserved For Winter

Cherry blossoms were in full bloom in the Northwest a short time ago. A spectacular sight — the fragrant white petals, against the lofty snow-capped mountain peaks.

Now cherries have come to harvest and here is the latest way to conserve them for fall and winter entertaining. Measurements are level 1/2 cup.

CHERRYVIN JAM
2 1/2 lb. fresh sweet cherries. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice. 1/4 lb. lemon juice.

HISTORIC AREA
Exmouth, port and summer resort in Devon, England, reported 10 ships for the stage of Calais in 1347.

MARY HAWORTH
Rebellion To Authority Is Natural In Adolescence

Dear Mary Haworth: I am writing on behalf of a friend of mine, Susan. Susan is a widow with a daughter, 16. The child is very spoiled and becoming a real problem.

Susan has worked hard since her father's death. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.

She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent. She is very independent and has a strong sense of self. She is very intelligent and has a great deal of talent.