Does it Pay?

Does it pay to have fifty workingmen, poor and ragged, in order to have one saloon keeper dressed in broadcloth, and flush of money?

Does it pay to have one citizen in the county jail because another sold him liquor?

Does it pay to hang one citizen because another made him drunk?

Does it pay to have a dozen intelligent young men turned into thieves and vagabonds, that one man may get a living by "selling them rum"?

Does it pay to receive fifteen dollars for a license, and then pay twenty thousand dollars for trying a man for murder, induced by the rum sold him?

Does it pay to have a hundred homes blasted, ruined, defiled, turned into hells of misery, strife, and want, that some wholesale rum seller may build up a large fortune?

Does it pay to have twenty mothers and their children dress in rags, live in hovels, daily famish, that one rum-seller's wife and children may live in ease and affluence?

Does it pay to have hundreds of thousands of men and women in almshouses, penitentiaries, and hospitals, and thousands more in the asylum for the idiotic and insane, that a few heavy capitalists of the whisky ring may profit by such atrocity?

Does it pay to tolerate a traffic which breeds crime, poverty, agony, idleness, shame and death wherever it is allowed?

The following appears in an exchange under the head "Hymeneal":—"Let hope and happiness ever rest in those young hearts who walk forth with the morning star of promise glistening on their brow, and with each morning's dawn spring up anew, filling their lives with diamond joy dust, which may float and sparkle, enveloping their home in jems jeweled in perpetual sunbeams of joy, beauty and peace."

Benjamin Legault, of Beauharnois, Que., has entered an action to prevent his widowed sister, who is worth $100,000, from marrying a young man to the injury of plaintiff. The intended bride is sixty-five, whilst her lover, Mr. Cardinal, is less than twenty-five.

The talk about a new ship canal through Egypt, from sea to sea, continues in London. It is calculated that for $50,000,000 such a canal can be constructed from Alexandria to Suez via Cairo.

April 14th, 1881.

DR. BENNET & LEWIS, 119 Hollis St., Halifax.

DEAR SIRS,—It gives me great pleasure to be able to inform you that since I have been under your treatment my health has greatly improved, and I am entirely free from pains. For years I have suffered, and although several of the best physicians have treated me, they have, none of them, been able to cure or give me relief. Thanking you for your kind attention, I remain, dear sirs, yours truly,
MARY JANE HOLT.

HERRING COVE, April 8, 1882.

DR. BENNETT & LEWIS, 119 Hollis St., Halifax.

DEAR SIRS,—My wife, who has been ill for about three years, and attended by the best physicians without receiving the least benefit therefrom, but since wearing your Pads, she is QUITE WELL. With deepest gratitude, and with the view of benefitting others, I remain, yours obediently,
JOHN KEATING.

All the different pads and appliances can be had at Messrs. Fraser & Reddin, Druggists, sole Agents for the Island. Medical advice free by return mail. oct 11

Italy, the youngest among the nations, promises to become a prodigal child. The interest on its public debt is increasing at a rate rapid enough to stagger sober financiers. In 1860 the interest did not reach 100,000,000 lire. Within ten years it has advanced to 269,388,943 lire. It is now 433,710,345 lire, which, with the redeemable debt, brings the total up to the very respectable figure of 500,000,000.

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

A test of over thirty years in France, and throughout the Continent of Europe, has established the fact that these Pills positively cure suppression of the Menses produced by cold, Nervous shock, Anemia, General Debility, &c., &c., in every instance. They also cure Leucerrhœa or White's Falling of the Womb, Catarrh, of the Uterus and Vagina, and Piles, and give a healthy tone and vigour to all the Generative Organs. All druggists.
